Business Notices.

Buying the past year, we have continued to our had with a severe attack of congestion of the lungs; think thirteen we are able to talk our office, still hale with, or energy only just. Our paper has made its appearance each week, the which was rendered as well as circumstances would admit.

Matt D. Blaser, who not only filled our place in the office during the day, but was good at the non-cash in spite of friend or foe, is a blind infant.

During these five weeks we have had some of the greatest snow-storms on record; it left as soon as it appeared, and created general devastation on the Raisin river. We notice Coon & Morey have opened their new stock of goods. The Wendell Bros. also Graham & Goodyear have occupied the beautiful store in the new block. J. H. Miller has moved our door east and is still alive.

VanDuyn, Lynch & Co., have bought of the iron front of the Coon, which makes a grand addition to its appearance. The windows are filled with home plants, some of which are in bloom, and make the beautiful store look more pleasant and inviting.

Our Town.—What improvements your village exhibits? So said a Farmer resident of an adjoining town, returning after an absence of a few months. Aye, we have made great improvements, and the Manchester of to-day, then the and pale-to-the-sickness into which it gradually transformed itself. Brick-laying the business, we must name Hosmer, and Jim Hampson. We must move two of saws, and lose two more. We must build up the town. A long pull, a strong pull, and a pull altogether.

Sensible.—Try one of these Tip-Top Cigars at Coon & Morey's Tobacco and Cigar Store, and see the fine assortment of Pipes, Cigar-holders, Tobacco boxes, Pouches &c.

Focus.—A For Rent at the Union School Building, about 4 weeks ago, the answer will please call, pay for the paper.

Now or Never.—Those wishing Photographs taken will do well to call upon Henry Bissell at once, as the weather is very fine for taking beautiful ones, and we understand that Mr. Graham will have his brick wall built in a few weeks which will obstruct the windows, and so cause Mr. B. to suspend operations for a short time. Call at once.

Focus.—A Pocket book at Coon and Morey's, price $1.

U. S. X.—The General Agent of the United States Express Company passed over the branch and settled with their agents and have withdrawn from public favor. This is the result of the guard consolidation or humbug sell out.

☞ The Freight train has commenced running daily, which is a great accommodation to those residing on the branch road. We hope it will continue.

☞ Those who have come to our town, and those who have satisfied their majority since the last election, should see to it that their names are registered.

Take Care Because business at Wastell's Store, that credit will not suffice at any store.

Dramatic Exhibition.—The Amateur Players of Clinton, will give an Entertainment at Union School Hall, on Thursday and Friday evenings, April 2d & 3rd. The Programme consists of the celebrated Domestic Drama, "The Chimney Corner," "Mrs. Wilkins Will," "Seven Versus Sentiment," interspersed with Music, Tableaux, &c. The Whole to conclude with the laughable Farce, "That rascal Pat." The Amsden Bro's are to furnish the Music. Tickets 25cts.

Union School Lyceum.—The subject for debate at the Union School this evening will be, Resolved: "That the Yes in Michigan than the Sword." E. C. Olney is Chief disputant for the Affirmative, and Albert Palmer for the Negative.—Essays, by Misses Nettie Williams and Katie Howe. Declamations by Myron Pierce and Arthur Case. This is a very entertaining society and has become one of the institutions of Manchester. We wish it success.

Horse.—By Gully in Goodyear's Block, Cor. Main and Chicago streets.

☞ Gently Shave, then you repair and to cured on horses of lameness which very caught in their respective local.

Work.—We have received the following: "Pike Pat," "Outline," Schenck's "The Whisper of Hope," words & music, published by D. P. Faulds, Louisville Ky.

Harper's.—Harper's for April is on hand, and it is as usual the number. Why don't you subscribe, only $4.00 per year.

Coon & Morey.—Are selling Green-lan Tobacco and Cigars cheaper than any other Store in town. See advertisement in another column.

☞ See J. H. Hagan's Prices of groceries in Another Column.

The Best.—Messrs Graham & Goodyear have secured of Mr. J. G. Compton (traveling agent for the Elgin Co.) the agency of Manchester and vicinity for the sale of their favorite machine and all other first class Sewing Machines manufactured. They will keep the Elgin & Florence on exhibition at their store, but will furnish customers with any machine in the market. Our citizens would do well to patronize Ed & Jim, instead of traveling agents, for they are always on hand to show you how to work them. Call and see them, in Goodyear' Block.

A Mistake.

A million young females, who writes for the home journal over the case as reason of "Adelaide Sayer," and who evidently has "some one to love," thus confusing cells upon her Adelphia to "come and see her."

Tax Collecting order will interest the veterans of the State of Michigan, who do not yet belong to the organization referred to:

Headquarters Department of Mich. Grand Army of the Republic, Detroit, 29th Feb 1868.

[Circular.]

Many grave questions arising which interest all soldiers who fought for, and preserved the Republic, demand immediate and united action.

Soldiers desiring to form Posts of this order throughout the State, can receive the proper instructions to effect the same by applying either in person or by letter, to Col. Wm. Phelps, Adjutant General, at No. 98 Jefferson avenue, Detroit.

By order of R. A. ALGER, Grand Commander.

Wm. Phelps, Adjutant General.

SONG STRAIGHTS

O SING TO ME ALLIE!

The beautiful poem by our gifted contributor, Mrs Ann A. Bishop of Lansing, Mich., commencing "O sing to me Allie," was published in Lansing, for the Grand Rally and Picnic of the Sons of Jolly Old Tyler, on June 20th, but been set to music by Professor Hosmer, and published by him in a very neat style. The character of the song in itself is sufficient to endear it to every, but the compliment felt by the public for the author of the poem, will insure a ready sale. It can be purchased in sheet form for 30 cts, or by mail for 40 cts. Address Prof. Hosmer, Lansing, Mich.

Every one owning a Piano, Organ, or Melodeon should order the following music.
