The Farm News presents herein the text of the Majority's recommendations, and is separate within a commendary

RECOMMENDATIONS
From the Majority Report of the COMMISSION OF INQUIRY INTO THE COST OF MILK

To Governor William M. Brucker

What Will Happen to the Surplus

A substantial portion of the Michigan milk industry and past practices which have led to the present unsatisfactory position may be described briefly:

1. The milk surpluses are the result of overproduction, overproduction, overproduction.

2. Milk prices have declined in the face of this overproduction, and prices are continuing to do so.

3. The milk surpluses have accumulated through the years, and the situation is very serious.

Recommendations

1. The commission recommends closer co-operation among the producer, processor and distributor, as with the

2. The commission recommends a system to absorb the surplus itself, said
the report.

3. The commission recommends the base and surplus plan made available by the commission, said
the report.

4. The commission recommends the massive action to absorb the surplus itself, said the report.

Mr. Hyde Plays Our String

With a pleasant reminder of the by-gone days of the tycoon, Mr. S. F. B. were during the depression, the farmer bore on his back a heavy burden of taxes. From 1910 to 1930, the Federal income tax, which had been lowered to a mere 1%, was raised to 25%.

"After ten years he couldn't go any further. The small farmers which were paying this tax, were getting tired. They held their taxes and refused to pay any more. This led to the establishment of the Farm Bureau in 1929."

Something has happened. A Detroit group is circulating petitions for a special privilege for Detroit in the State senate. For the record, the Governor of Michigan, Mr. E. D. Curtis, has vetoed the bill.

We record ourselves as vigorously opposed to this effort. We urge that no bill be passed which will not benefit the State as a whole. We are happy to see the Governor take a stand on this important issue.

Farm Bureau Resolutions

Farm Bureau resolutions, as you know, are non-binding, but they usually provide a forum for the farmers to express their views. They may do no good to the taxpayers, but they are able to express the opinion of the farmers who are paying the taxes.

Road Tax Relief By Farm Bureau in 1931

In the interest of the farmers, the Farm Bureau is introducing a resolution to provide relief from the Federal income tax. The resolution will be presented to the Senate and the House of Representatives.

The report closes as follows:

"Respectfully submitted,
H. R. Howell, Special Examiner, State of West Virginia.
Diets Made the Hog

H E W A S C O R N E D; and that is why for a hundred years the Middle West hog has been an aristocrat among swine. His quality was in his food before his food was in his belly.

The meat of the hog aristocrat is hard, firm. Consumers like it because it looks good as it is actually is.

The meat of the soft, only hog is much less desirable. His hams are fatter, his bacon is softer. Its quality is and will continue to be good, but of course not as good as that of the aristocrat. Consumers will pay less for the meat of the soft hog and packers cannot pay packers as much for this type of meat as for the other.

It is a matter of keen regret to Swift & Company that six times as many soft hogs came into some Midwestern packing plants this year as came three years ago.

Fortunately, the cause of this lowering of quality, which may be only temporary, is known. Scientists at the college of agriculture and experiment station of the University of Illinois lay the blame on the farmers, after long study, almost wholly on the feeding of soybeans in their natural state. Their circular No. 369, issued last April, says of the soybeans—"No way has yet been found to use (natural state) in the nation's feeding swine without producing soft carcasses."

Scientists speak positively only when they know. There is no qualification here; the University experts assert that the feed of the soybean will certainly make soft hogs. And soft hogs mean lower prices to entire community in which feeding of soybean with the oil unextracted is common.

HEN HEALTH

EGG PRODUCTION

Oyster shell does much more than furnish the material for egg shell.
It helps to acidulate food, balances the blood and promotes good health for both hens and cockles.

Laying less must have a cause and if it is want of feed, a sufficient one to be had.

PILOT BRAND OYSTER SHELL is the standard here and abroad.

On sale at feed dealers everywhere.
