SOUTH TO AID WEAK
Ruled That Prosperous Roads
Shall Share Rate Boost
With Poor Roads
Washington—The Interstate Commerce Commission October 14 adopted a new ruling that for the first time in 10 years, rates on lines serving rural areas would be increased. The commission, because of poor roads in certain communities, was allowed to boost rates by 10 cents a hundred pounds.
Commissions on all new rate increases must be justified to the commission, and this was the first time that the increased rates were not only a matter of rate crisis. It was not an emergency. The Commission ruled that the roads should be allowed to increase their rates to compensate them for the improved service they were providing.

The commission, in its decision, said that the roads would be permitted to increase their rates by as much as 10 cents a hundred pounds, provided they certified that the increase would be justified. The new rates would be in effect as of October 21.

The commission estimated that its rate increases would be paid in part by the farmers, who would have to pay higher prices for their products.

The commission also ruled that the roads would be allowed to increase their rates on certain lines to compensate them for the
improved service they were providing.

In rejecting the application for a rate increase, Mr. Brown is said to be exempted from the commission's decision. The commission's decision is limited to March 31, 1933.

BROWN SPOT IN SPUDS BRINGS A SPECIAL RULING

State Act to Make Salish Potato in Certain Areas.

Lancaster—Through executive action this week, the Pennsylvania State Agricultural Department decided to make the Salish potato the state potato for all purposes, because of its proven ability to grow well in the Lancaster area.

The decision was made following a series of tests conducted over a period of years, which showed that the Salish potato is superior to any other potato variety tested in the area.

FAIR CROPS AND LOWER PRICES IS 1931 SUMMARY

U.S. Dept. Reports on Wheat, Potatoes And Hogs.

Washington—Fair crops, law prices and higher costs of production are forecast for the 1931 crop season, according to the latest reports from the Department of Agriculture.

The report states that the wheat harvest will be about the same as last year, but that the prices will be lower due to the increased supply.

The report also states that the potato harvest will be about 10% lower than last year, but that the prices will be higher due to the decreased supply.

The Cattle and Hogs Were Saved

The straw-stack in a farmer's barnyard fell over, burying four cows and several hogs. The farmer hurriedly telephoned neighbors, and within a few minutes several were there. By their combined efforts, they quickly removed the straw, freeing the animals without a single loss.

MICHIGAN BELL TELEPHONE CO.

A telephone serves in many ways — to summon aid in emergencies — to save trips to town — to keep in touch with neighbors. Yet a telephone costs only a few cents a day. Information regarding telephone service may be obtained from any Telephone Business Office.
Women's Part At Farm Bureau Annual

By Mrs. June M. Wagner

What will be the role of women in Michigan State College? That was the question answered at an airport in the State Farm Bureau Annual meeting at St. Clair College, Tuesday afternoon, November 11.

Workshops, conducted by State Farm Bureau headquarters employees will be presented here this year. Each workshop will be followed by a period of discussion. Each workshop will be handled by a Michigan Farm Bureau woman, and all will take place in the general store of the Dewey Store, where the farm home. . . .

The Farm Bureau News, published every Tuesday, is edited and produced by women. For many years the Farm Bureau has been a leader in the fight for better wages and hours for farm women.

Farm Women Swing To Electricity

Both Lane, Michigan—Believers have proved to be a great scientific blessing in the Farm Bureau, according to the home economics extension department.

One woman says that the value of electricity in a farm home is evident as soon as one enters the house. It is the electric ironer, operated by women, that makes callouses on the heart.

Every woman in the county has learned that, although it uses twice as much electricity as the hand iron because of the cost of current is seldom more than 5 cents a month, it pays because, in a short time one is able to iron twice as much as by hand iron, and many people report an improvement in the quality of their work.

Women of the Farms" have made comments, and are very interested in what is being done in this field of home economics. They have found that the value of electricity in a farm home is evident as soon as one enters the house. It is the electric ironer, operated by women, that makes callouses on the heart.

To Store Dahlia Bulbs

By Mrs. Dorothea N. Wagner

Bulbs are in bloom when it comes to storing Dahlia bulbs. You have been watching them grow, and now is the time to store them in the coolest spot of the cellar.

First, make sure you have enough space in your cellar. Then store the boxes in a cool place away from the light. It is important to keep the bulbs cool so as to have one bulb for each. A cool garage is also a good place to store the bulbs.

Add any plant to your list of favorites that is for sale now. You can find bulbs at most garden centers or from your local nursery.

NATL. LEADERS SPEAK

Bureaus Will Elect President, Vice-President, Seven Directors.

Chicagoland—Discussing the express importance of an agricultural year, those who urge that agriculture is food, national interest will be discussed at the annual convention of the American Farm Bureau Federation, to be held here, December 7-9. Bunker Hill, Ind., advantage, that farmers are more fortunate than the people in other parts of the country, for they are getting high prices for their produce. But, in order to hold their own, the world should be more careful in the way it uses its money. And, by the way, we should hold our own a little more than is fair for ourselves when they do it for us. The statement was made that the average farmer gets 40 cents for every $1.00 worth of his product. In Michigan Farm Bureau estimations that the state average for a given year is 40 cents. It is the result of a test conducted by the Ohio Bureaus of the Farm Bureau Federation.

Another feature of the Farm Bureau convention will be the exhibits of the work of the various state federations, as part of the National Convention. They will be in charge of the exhibits and all exhibitors will have the opportunity to display their work, and to receive the attention of the audience.

In addition to the exhibits, the convention will be held in the Chicago Motor Hotel. The motor hotel is a rambling structure, situated beside the DuSable Bridge, at the mouth of the Chicago River. It is one of the nearer places to the convention hotel. The hotel is famous for its fine accommodations and magnificent dining room.
