The Milk Investigation

The American Farm Bureau will make recommendations to the Federal Milk Producers Marketing Board, midway to the present base and surplus plan of marketing milk, as that plan may be found in its present form.

There is no denying that the farmer unwillingly shares a good share of the loss occasioned by warfare among distributors.

They have demanded an accounting of the surplus and an investigation of the manner in which it is being handled and the reason for the extra money paid to them.

The distributors have insisted that Detroit demand alone is off the board, but still using it as the base rate pay down to surplus rate.

It is our opinion that if the Commission, as a fourth and final resort, were to be furnished with the statistics and actual gain or loss on products manufactured from milk called surplus.

To Help Needy Keep Going

Farms from Michigan to eastern plains to the farm territories in between are giving thought to the need of our fellow man in need.

Since now, family will appreciate the opportunity of setting a good example to the children at home by giving when possible to the needy.

Our own family will appreciate the relief of knowing our proceeds are going to the needy.

The farming family is a happy family. We have all been friends, and we are.
