Breadbasket of Victory

Railroads carried more than 1,500,000 carloads of grain and grain products during the first eight months of 1931—more than ever before in a similar period. And this is only part of what the railroads have done to help American agriculture accomplish its stupendous task in the feeding of American people and their allies.

It was done under the handicap of shortages and restrictions of war. It was done while unprecedented numbers of troops and equipment of war were being handled.

Background Material for Discussion This Month by Our Community Farm Bureau Discussion Groups

By Roeber E. Warsnes

Questions for Discussion:

1. Our Community Farm Bureau Discussion Groups receive their paper, have them send us answers each week, and publish them. The answers will be used in our discussion at our meetings. We are working on a basis of making this a perfect plan to follow.

2. We have had some very good questions and answers so far. We are trying to get more interest in the group discussions. If you are interested in joining this group, please let us know.

3. We would also like to hear from you if you have any suggestions on how to improve our discussions. We are always looking for new ideas and ways to make our discussions more interesting and informative.

4. We would like to have more people participate in our discussions. If you are interested in joining, please let us know. We would appreciate your input and participation.

5. We are planning to have more discussions on a variety of topics, including agriculture, economics, and politics. If you have any suggestions for discussion topics, please let us know.

Our Seed Department understands farmers have very strong demand for seed for this year. In fact we hope to accumulate large stocks of seed that farmers would have to buy. We have had several reports of farmers having to go without seed or buy very small amounts. The answer is YES
