Africana Libraries Newsletter (ALN) is published quarterly by the Michigan State University Libraries and the MSU African Studies Center. Those copying contents are asked to cite ALN as their source. ALN is produced to support the work of the Africana Librarians Council (ALC) of the African Studies Association. It carries the meeting minutes of ALC, CAMP (Cooperative Africana Microform Project) and other relevant groups. It also reports other items of interest to Africana librarians and those concerned about information resources about or in Africa.

Editor: Joseph J. Lauer, Africana Library, MSU, East Lansing, MI 48824-1048.
Tel.: 517-355-2366; E-mail: 20676jll@msu.bitnet; Fax: 517-336-1445.
Deadline for no. 74: April 1, 1993; for no. 75: July 1, 1993.

EDITOR'S COMMENTS

Contributors to this issue include Helene Baumann, Moore Crossey, David Easterbrook, Onuma Ezera, Greg Finnegan, Karen Fung, Beverly Gray, Bob Lesh, Paulette Lordereau, Elizabeth Plantz, Nancy Schmidt, Mette Shayne, Janet Stanley, and Joanne Zellers. Pitts Theology Library (Emory University, Atlanta) contributed to the cost of postage.

This issue loaded with news from the November ALC meeting in Seattle. Highlights of the meeting: Conover-Porter Award presentation, a memorial for Betsy Widenmann, closure on the bylaws, exchange of information, and good food, coffee and scenery.

CAMP minutes and a report on the roundtable on bibliographies will appear in the next issue. Personal impressions from the roundtable: Scheven demonstrated no decline in number of bibliographies, but the less useful unannotated variety predominant; the audience was more interested in distribution than in compilation or evaluation.

The Letters & Opinions section is missing from this issue. I hope to have something on specific bibliographies needed in the April issue.

Introductions and announcements

Van Gylswyk (Uppsala, Sweden) talked about the Simons Papers project.

Dax (Clarke's Bookshop, Cape Town) introduced herself.

Finnegan handed out a new edition of his directory of Africana librarians and offered to make labels for those who wanted them.

Mugasha (Librarian at Makerere in Uganda) talked about rebuilding his collection.

Nzioki (Librarian at Egerton University in Kenya) also talked about library problems and prospects.

Minutes from the spring meeting in Iowa City [ALN July 1992] were approved with the following change at the end of the section on Future ALC Meetings: Spring 1993 meeting will be in East Lansing on Friday and Saturday, April 30-May 1. After discussion and a straw vote, it was agreed to begin Friday morning, around 9 a.m.

Scheduling of future fall meetings and conflicts with other meeting activities were discussed. In a vote, eleven favored all meetings on one day, while 16 wanted them spread over two. It was suggested that the first half day take place the day before the beginning of the conference.

Conover-Porter award was to be presented on Saturday, Nov. 21 at 5:30pm. [See announcement on page 8.]

Election

The Nominating Committee presented the list of candidates for the Executive Committee. Elected were Kagan, chair-elect; Plantz, secretary; and Weissinger, member-at-large.

Future meetings will be held in East Lansing, spring 1993, Boston, fall 1993, Duke, spring 1994, Toronto, fall 1994, and Orlando, fall 1995. Possible fall sites after 1995 include Columbus, Ohio, Richmond, Virginia, Houston, Texas, Portland, Oregon, Chicago, the Twin Cities, and Philadelphia.

Bylaws review

Baumann distributed a two-page list of 6 issues, with a brief rationale for each proposed change. [These appeared in ALN Oct. 1991, p.2, as items 2, 4, 5, 6, 8 and 9.] There was a brief discussion on each issue. The following changes were approved:

Section II D: Select a member who will edit and publish a newsletter to provide regular reports on the activities of the Council.

Section IV G: Ex-officio members shall be selected to represent the Library of Congress, the Africana Libraries Newsletter, the Cooperative Africana Microform Project, the A.S.A. Publications Committee Liaison and others as needed. Section VI C: Announcements of meetings, schedules, draft agenda and minutes shall be printed in the Africana Libraries Newsletter, and should be submitted to ASA News if appropriate.

Section VI D: Priority will be given to agenda items which have been submitted in writing in advance of the meeting, and for which documentation has been distributed, where relevant. Documentation must be provided if the issue in question calls for a vote.

Section XI (or add to Section VIII): A review of these Bylaws shall take place every five years, or earlier if needed.

The issue of a change in Voting (Section IX A & B) was deferred.

The revised bylaws will be available at the spring meeting.

ARL Foreign Acquisitions Task Force

Easterbrook talked about the survey of area studies collections undertaken by ARL (Association of Research Libraries). Baumann, Bischof, Mwalilino, Walsh, and Easterbrook are on the task force to collect information on the status of Africana collections in the U.S. They have been asked to focus on West Africa, specifically Nigeria and Senegal. Concurrently SALAAM is concentrating on Mexico, the East Asian Studies group on Japan, the European group on Germany, and the Slavic group on Russia. During the summer, the ARL collection management officers sent a survey to vendors, with only two vendors for Africa being listed. The committee added three Africana vendors to the list and will report on the vendors' survey at the spring meeting. Easterbrook attended a meeting of area studies specialists, collection management officers, and academics at the University of Chicago, and Walsh one at Harvard University to discuss issues of continued support for scholars and collections in area studies. This initiative will lead to a grant proposal in the hope of obtaining more funds for area studies and collections. The initiative was partly taken because of perceived drop in acquisitions from Europe, due in part to a weak currency.

Africana oral tradition archives (Gray)

Easterbrook prepared a list of those who had attended ALC meetings from 1958-1979. The committee, which consists of Bischof, Easterbrook, Finnegan, Gray, Malanchuk, and Scheven is preparing a questionnaire for use in future interviews. The questionnaire will be ready for discussion by the spring meeting.

Book donations

Walsh reminded members that ASA published a list last year of places to send book donations. ASA also supplies this directory on request. A second proposal is before the board to use money from the endowment funds to establish a $3000 fund to assist organizations to ship books or solve other small problems which occur. Projects would be selected depending on the degree of relationship between donor and recipients. A larger linkage situation is also envisioned. High quality material is a given, and funding would only be supplied to donors with detailed plans for their donations. The ASA Board wanted Walsh to discuss the proposal further with ALC, and she hopes to get the board's approval during the conference. The thought is that the grants would be given once a year and they would be reviewed every three years. No calendar has been set for the disbursement of such grants. ASA would want a committee to screen the applicants as they present themselves.

A group called Bridge to Asia has sent large number of books to Asia and is looking for projects in Africa. This group wants an institutional relationship before it will send books.

Library of Congress reports

Ruth Thomas reported that the Nairobi Office has made acquisitions trips to 18 out of their 21 countries. They are working on getting contract representatives in the different countries. They now have 14, including individuals in Asmara, Windhoek and Kinshasa. Acquisitions are up 20 percent through this month. The acquisitions list is behind, with no. 4 (1992) at the printer.

Preservation is also of great concern to the Nairobi office. They hope to expand microfilming and ficing for preservation purposes. Examples would be Kenya traditional music. They are trying to obtain any material available on Somalia from the NGOs (Actionaid, Unicef, and Oxfam among others). The material will be ficed in the New Delhi office. Some papers are coming out of Mogadishu; LC has received 1500 issues.

This is the second year of the participant program, with 29 participating libraries. Serials offered include 20 newspapers (12 from Kenya, 5 from Tanzania, 1 from Uganda and 2 from Zambia) and 45 Kenyan serials, with Economic Review and Weekend Mail being added while Psychology Digest and African Journal of Neurological Science were dropped. Since last January the office has also offered monographs, and 184 titles were sent in 11 shipments (Jan-Nov. 17). Ruth Thomas would like feedback about the material, and she has a handout about the participant program. They are discussing how to expand the program, and a profile for Zimbabwe serials and non-commercial monographs was distributed. Estimated costs were $151 (10 serials) and $350 plus administrative charge of 50% for the monographs. Partial participation was welcome, and they would like feedback on the profile. The Nairobi office now has a staff of 14 permanent employees and 5 on contract.

Fred Protopappas, Overseas Operations Division: LC has suggested some change in the way the funds are being recorded from the participants program. It will be necessary for LC to cut off participants who do not pay up. Fred urged members to check with their institutions to make sure payment had been made.

Mwalilino reported that she and Harper have worked on getting new contract representatives from West Africa. Mwalilino travelled to Senegal and Côte d'Ivoire and Harper to Nigeria, Ghana, Benin, and Togo to identify new representatives in each country who will supply current materials, with particular emphasis on serials (especially newspapers), government documents, and other hard-to-get materials. These representatives will be used to supplement existing blanket order coverage for both general and legal materials. LC expects to sign up new representatives in each country, interviews were conducted with several candidates in each country and formal offers will be sent shortly. A new bibliographic representative in Monrovia has been under contract to LC since July 1992. She has been able to supply regular runs of approximately one dozen newspapers and some monographs.

West African acquisitions plans for FY93:

- Four travel proposals will be considered to conduct on-site acquisitions surveys of general and legal publishing activities in the region.
- Production of a West African accessions list.
- Hire temporary support staff to help process West African materials.

Microfilming: In FY92 several West African newspapers were sent to the Photoduplication lab for microfilming of current holdings. A final report on specific titles and years filmed will be prepared by Frank Carroll, Head, Newspaper Section, upon completion of filming.

West African Field Office: Full funding initiative will be proposed for the FY95 budget (Oct.1, 1994-Sept.30, 1995).

Gray reported that the publication Newspapers received currently in the Library of Congress has been delayed till 1993. Bits and pieces of newspapers from the collection will be filmed, titles will be catalogued, list will be made available after filming. It is too late to add any other libraries' holdings.

Other reports

Lesh reported on the Catalog Committee's meeting. Baumann reported on the Bibliography Committee meeting. She also mentioned her acquisitions trip to Botswana, Lesotho, South Africa and Zimbabwe.

Bell-Gam is preparing a list of duplicate journal issues.

Finnegan mentioned the possibility of converting his e-mail list of the group to a public Listserv, but it was decided to keep it an internal list.

A handout for publicizing the work of the ALC was suggested.

The representative from the Zimbabwe International Book Fair invited the participants to view a video on the 1992 fair immediately following the meeting and to attend the 1993 fair.

Peter Kjeseth from Wartburg Theological Seminary talked about a collection of Namibiana at the seminary which they would like to have evaluated, possibly filmed and then disposed of. The Seminary is seeking help to deal with it.

Meeting was adjourned.

PRE-MEETING EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETING

November 20, 1992, 9-10am

The meeting was called to order by Onuma Ezera, Chair. The Chair thanked the Committee for its help during the year.

The issue of conflicts between ALC meetings and other fall meeting activities was discussed. Proposed solutions included holding committee meetings only at the spring meetings and holding all meetings in one very long day. It was decided that it is not possible to have cataloging and bibliography meetings at the same time as several members must attend both. Members were split on the possibility of very early meetings, and it was decided that the question would be put to the membership at large and determined by a straw vote.

Finnegan reported on his arrangements for the memorial to be held for Elizabeth Widenmann. Joe Caruso, a graduate student is acting African Studies librarian at Columbia University. Vicky Evalds prepared a biographical handout.

Malanchuk asked that time be set aside at the spring meeting to change the timetable for the Conover-Porter award, as the present one does not work properly.

A question was asked whether ALC should have representation at the Black Caucus Conference of the American Library Association. It would be brought up at the business meeting to see if any members had participated in the previous conference and felt this was important.

Finnegan wanted to discuss Internet and whether his list should be used as a Listserv. It was decided that the ALC does not want this to be an open file but for internal communications.

Lesh suggested that chairs of committees should change every two years to give more people a chance to serve. He plans to step down at the spring meeting.

Howell announced there would be election during the CAMP meeting for an additional member of the CAMP Executive.

It was suggested that committee reports be moved to the end of the agenda in case time would run out. It was stressed that Library of Congress reports are important and should not be skipped.

CATALOGING COMMITTEE MINUTES

November 20, 1992, 10-11:20am

The meeting was called to order by Lesh, Chair.

1. Minutes of the spring meeting (Iowa City, IA) [see ALN, July 1992, p.4] were approved with one correction. Section 3, sentence 2 changed to: "CC:AAM voted to support it. SAC felt that the proposal was beyond the scope of their activities and decided to take no action."

2. African Language Summary Note Proposal (MARC field 520) The proposal, approved at the spring meeting, was sent to Sarah Thomas, Director of Cataloging, LC, and Karl Kahler, Chair, Committee on Cataloging: Asian and African Materials, American Library Association (CC:AAM). There has been no response at this time from LC. Bell-Gam reported that the proposal was discussed at the last ALA meeting and was favorably received. It is hoped that some specific action will be taken at ALA midwinter.

3. Language Codes in LC Subject Headings Authority Records Letters in support for the inclusion of language codes in the Library of Congress Subject Headings (LCSH) authority records for languages have been sent to Sarah Thomas (LC) and Karl Kahler (CC:AAM). At this time, no responses to this proposal have been received.

4. Expansion of DT Classification Schedule Based on previous indications that LC might be interested in expansion of the LC Classification DT Schedule for the history of Africa, a letter was sent to Sarah Thomas (LC), expressing our interest in participating in any such project. A reply from Ms. Thomas indicated that no such expansion was anticipated at this time. Another letter was sent to Mark Ziomeck of the Cataloging Policy Support Office at LC, expressing our interest in any future expansion. The Committee has decided to continue to investigate various avenues to promote an expansion of the schedules.

5. African Languages Survey At the spring meeting, it was decided to survey how various libraries organize and access their African language materials. Bob presented a draft of the proposed survey for discussion. A number of suggestions were noted and will be incorporated. An interest was expressed in having separate information about tapes, particularly field recordings and other original research materials. The importance was noted of sharing the results with Easterbrook for the ARL foreign collections project he is working on.

6. Enhancement of LCSH Language Authority Records At the spring meeting, Kay Elsasser requested help on expanding the reference structure for language authority records. As she was not available at this meeting to explain in detail what needed to be done, Bob presented an outline, based on information she provided. Complete directions for those interested will be given as they are provided by Kay.

7. Term/Appointment of Cataloging Committee Chair Bob reminded everyone that his term as Chair ends after the spring meeting. Anyone interested in being appointed as the new Chair of the Committee should feel free to contact him or Nancy Schmidt.

8. ALA CC:AAM Report Ball-Gam reported that LC is developing an electronic template for subject proposals that will be available on the Internet. CC:AAM voted to support the IFLA manual on names. They are working on preparing a letter to be sent to RLG and OCLC to encourage them to continue to share CJK records. They are also sending a letter of appreciation to Ben Tucker (LC) in appreciation for his work on the romanization tables. It was decided that our committee would do the same.

9. Library of Congress Report Gray reported that as of August 1992 the Middle East and North African team had taken over review of the cataloging from the Nairobi office. They are very pleased with the progress shown by the office and are looking for independent descriptive cataloging in the near future. They hope to begin working on serials in the Nairobi office by the end of this year. Beverly reported that Nairobi and other field offices will begin uploading in US MARC format sometime in 1993, instead of having the information rekeyed in Washington. LCDS will be producing a CD-ROM product containing field office records that will be issued quarterly.

10. Dewey Decimal Classification Proposals Stamm presented two Dewey Decimal Classification (DDC) proposals for consideration and review by committee members. One is for language classification and the other is on Islam. The DDC Editorial Committee will discuss these proposals a year from now. It was decided that Northwestern as a major DDC collection would prepare a response to be discussed at our next meeting. If anyone has any comments, they should be forwarded to Lesh at Northwestern.

11. Announcements Lesh and Stamm announced the submission of the Africana Conference Paper Indexing Project Title II-C grant proposal to the Dept. of Education. The grant proposal covers papers from 1982-1990. Northwestern has initiated the indexing of Africana conference papers for currently received African conference papers (from 1991). The online index includes 100 conference proceedings and will be available by keyword searching to dial-up patrons.

The Committee's African Language Codes Project was forwarded to the National Information Standards Organization (NISO), where expansion of the list of language codes is now under consideration.

BIBLIOGRAPHY COMMITTEE MINUTES

November 20, 1992, 11:30am-1pm

The meeting was chaired by Helene Baumann, acting for Janet Stanley, who was unable to attend at this hour and began at 11:40am.

1. Conover-Porter Award.

Malanchuk noted the presentation scheduled for Nov. 21st. At the Spring meeting we will discuss changes in the Guidelines for the selection of the award winner. One idea is to publish the short list in the conference program, as is now done for the Herskovits Award.

2. IAI-CODESRIA Cooperative Indexing Project.

Schmidt attended the SCOLMA meeting in the UK in June, at which little progress was reported. There is no IAI chair for the proposed conference, and CODESRIA has not yet been contacted. Without any internal promotion, IAI is not moving ahead on this. In discussion, Panofsky, as a member of the IAI Council, noted that the combination of a new IAI Director and the resignation of Carol Priestley further pushed this project into the background; it was not even mentioned at the last Council meeting. The proposed conference would have carried on from the First International Conference on African Bibliography in Nairobi in 1967. Hans Zell noted the necessity of including government documents in any index. Shayne stressed the value of co-operative indexing. Schmidt noted that at SCOLMA discussion of the continuing overlap between the INTERNATIONAL AFRICAN BIBLIOGRAPHY and the AFRICAN BIBLIOGRAPHY came down to political questions. There was no groundswell for further effort regarding this initiative.

3. Newspaper Cooperative Project.

Schmidt asked if all listed libraries still participate. This project was continued when the Small-Country Project was dropped at an earlier meeting. In theory, the project commitments mean that at least two libraries will receive each title, to ensure completeness when LC or CAMP films a run. Britz noted that Northwestern has dropped titles which are supplied through the LC-Nairobi subscription plan. Hoover has dropped two titles. Britz mentioned the problem of the many new newspapers. Shayne's list of currently received newspapers was mentioned as a potential monitoring tool. Gray noted that LC cannot add new titles without strong scrutiny and is sometimes required to drop titles to allow new ones to be added. The consensus was to this discussion in the CAMP meeting.

4. Bibliographic Projects at LC (Gray for Joanne Zellers).

MARC Books was searched to identify some 170,000 Minimal Level Cataloging records of which 9100 refer to Africa. These have been copied on to GENBIB and may later be added to MUMS with subject headings.

UNITED STATES IMPRINTS ON SUB-SAHARAN AFRICA, Vols. 6 & 7, should be issued in December. It will have contents notes for conference papers and other collected works. Vol. 8 returns to an annual schedule. On a trial basis, collected works with a GAC of d----- and essays on Africa are included. The guide may be expanded to include non-U.S. imprints.

On a staff-use-only basis, a printout of all LCSH used on Africana books records published after 1979 was prepared. Trial country list notebooks for Ethiopia, Senegal and Somalia, consisting of MARC Book records (since 1980) and MARC Serials, are being tried as partial replacements for the African Section card catalog. The acquisition of LCMARC on CD-ROM is being investigated. A list of LC-held CD-ROMs is available upon request.

Several CD-ROM databases were used to update the bibliography on Japanese relations with Africa.

Zellers served on the Working Group on Database Guidelines for the Cataloging Council, which prepared the 18-page "Considerations in Automating Bibliographies, Inventories, and Public Access Catalogs" (Washington, DC: Cataloging Forum, LC, 1992).

Shayne asked about dial-in access to the GENBIB database; this is possible through state libraries.

5. Bischof and Kagan are editing the African Section of the new edition of Sheehy's GUIDE TO REFERENCE BOOKS. Having area specialists involved is due to the advocacy by Betsy Widenmann. There will be cuts as well as additions, resulting in about 250 entries. Bischof will edit the Southern and Eastern sections; Kagan, North and West; and both will cover Central and General. Please contact them with suggestions.

6. UNHCR Database.

Weissinger reported on the "Progress Note on Access to Information and Documentation in UNHCR," dated January 1992 (distributed at the meeting) David Lewis at Cornell had visited UNHCR and was excited by the possibility of electronic access to the database and hoped to offer training sessions. Tom had queried those ALC members with e-mail access and found that most wanted more information about the resource. Janet Stanley as Chair had authorized contacting UNHCR. There is no commitment yet to open access to the database, especially since UNHCR field offices do not yet have access. Internet access is still a possibility. Other area studies groups may become involved. UNHCR wants letters of support from us. David Rozkuszka asked about access to other UN databases, especially those at the ECA and UN Centre for Human Settlements (HABITAT) in Nairobi. Kagan mentioned a possible pan-UN database, with status unknown. He also raised the question of CD-ROM publication of UN data. As a question of policy at UNHCR, better access to the data from First-World countries is not a high priority. Accordingly, the committee's letter should stress CD-ROM as a more equitable means of distribution and access, possibly gratis to African libraries.

7. Northwestern University's Conference Paper proposal.

Stamm and Lesh reported on Northwestern's preparation of a proposal for funding to extend the Conference Paper Index for the years 1981 through 1990. (1991 and after are being routinely indexed, as current practice.) There will be access via LUIS. Shayne reported about 100 conferences indexed. Prior years will be added, with keyword access. In the long run, cooperative input for non-Northwestern held conference proceedings (including LC's) will be sought. Elizabeth Fry at Emory has an African government and politics project underway, with consultation between Northwestern and Emory to avoid overlap in indexing.

8. Other Announcements:

Kraehe asked about the low number of subscriptions to the ETUDES GERMANO-AFRICAINES. (US subscriptions are available through U. of Virginia.) Several institutions reported subscribing directly from Dakar.

Panofsky reported on a conference in Bologna on South Africa. He also mentioned the Italian-African Institute in Rome and urged that they be invited to future meetings.

Zell reported that the 4th edition of AFRICAN BOOKS IN PRINT is delayed, but due out in January of 1993. It is eight years since the last edition. It was culminated from AFRICAN BOOK PUBLISHING RECORD through 1991, and it was up to date when copy was submitted. Some 200 non-responding publishers were cut. There are about 25,000 titles included, from some 700 publishers.

Malanchuk and Nanji have taken on the Africa section of the next edition of Katz and Katz' MAGAZINES FOR LIBRARIES. Titles new since 1989 should be reported to them. There is a 20-30 page allocation, but no numerical limit on titles.

Finnegan reported that the ACRL Asian and African Section is compiling a list of book awards from or about those areas, with the goal of increasing the listing of such awards in standard references like the Bowker Annual and Gale's awards directory. Hans Zell offered to assist.

9. Bibliographies Needed:

Schmidt distributed a list of useful bibliographies that could be updated. This was discussed at the SCOLMA meeting she attended as well as at our Spring 1992 meeting in Iowa City. The IAI would like to update the Ethnographic Survey of Africa and add urban studies, but the Ford Foundation has declined to support this project. In response to a question about HRAF (Human Relations Area File), Schmidt stressed the need for full-text. Panofsky noted that a merger of the INTERNATIONAL AFRICAN BIBLIOGRAPHY and AFRICAN BIBLIOGRAPHY is desirable, but unlikely given their bases in IAI and SOAS. Also, funding is less precarious than had been thought.

The review essays commissioned by the Joint ACLS-SSRC Africa Committee and published in the AFRICAN STUDIES REVIEW were mentioned as partial updates of Lystad's AFRICAN WORLD and deserving of publication as separates.

Walsh, as member of the ASA Board, reported that publications are being sought to expand their list. She reports a bit of a conflict between the original intent of the ASA to publish materials with a more limited market versus the current need to generate income. Potential authors are urged to submit market projections along with letters of recommendation.

The STUDENT AFRICANIST'S HANDBOOK was discussed. Lauer commended the bibliography in Martin and O'Meara's text as a good alternative. While opinions varied on the HANDBOOK, it was agreed that we would share course handouts at our Spring Meeting in East Lansing. Finnegan and Bischof will coordinate this.

Updating Scheven's BIBLIOGRAPHIES FOR AFRICAN STUDIES 1970-1986 was recommended, but there were no volunteers. Hans Zell would like to continue the work. The cumulative ABPR lists are not as substantive as Scheven's work.

Hans Zell raised a query from IAI concerning the market for a cumulative (through 1992) index of its quarterly AFRICA.

Bell-Gam reported that UCLA's African Bibliography Project will publish in Spring 1993 a bibliography of 1981-1990 works in political science and political economy, for all Africa except Egypt.

The meeting adjourned at 1pm.

—Gregory A. Finnegan

POST-MEETING
EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETING MINUTES

November 20, 1992, 4:00pm-5:00pm

Schmidt, Chair, called the meeting to order, with Shayne as secretary.

To follow up on the earlier meetings, Weissinger agreed to work together with Baumann, Chair of the Bibliography Committee, on a draft of a letter to send to Access in Geneva to find out more about access to the different UN datafiles and to urge the UN to make the files available to the Africanist research community.

Schmidt asked Lesh about his term as Chair of the Cataloging Committee. It was decided that Nancy in consultation with the Executive Committee would appoint a new chair of the Committee at the spring meeting.

Plans for the spring meeting at Michigan State University: All meetings will be held in the Union, but participants will stay at a nearby motel. It was suggested that participants should bring handouts prepared for public distribution, and that a special session where members could discuss bibliographic instruction should be scheduled. The meeting will start Friday morning at nine and continue through noon Saturday. The ASA board meeting will be in East Lansing the same weekend. Information about motel address and prices, and travel arrangements will be printed in the next issue of ALN. A question was asked by the secretary whether we should continue to send out notices to newsletters and library journals about our meetings, and it was decided it was good publicity and should be continued. Weissinger offered to send an e-mail message to the editor of the Black Caucus Newsletter. Baumann indicated that Duke has offered to host the 1994 spring meeting and she will bring dates to the East Lansing meeting.

The issue of the timetable for the Conover-Porter award will be brought up at the spring business meeting. Several other related ideas should be considered at the meeting: Bischof has suggested a long term strategic plan; the question of how to provide training opportunities for Africana librarians; and a 40th anniversary "bash" for the ALC in 1997, a conspicuous celebration focusing on Africana librarianship. Schmidt attended SCOLMA's 25th anniversary celebration and felt this type of publicity is important. 1993 will be the 30th anniversary of CAMP. CAMP chair could write up the history of CAMP for ASA News.

Kagan will be the program chair for the fall meeting 1993. Maybe the program could focus on CAMP and the researchers who have used CAMP, talking about the resources available. We could ask CRL for help in this promotion. Kagan was afraid such a panel would not be met with much enthusiasm from researchers. We need a hook to make such a program exciting. Looking at research in general with CAMP as part of it is one possibility. Lauer asked if it had to be the Chair-elect who arranges such panels. The answer is anybody can arrange a panel or the Chair can elect a co-chair. Kagan will arrange next year's panel and will soon have to make room arrangements for next year's meeting.

Stanley has sent all files of the Bibliography Committee to Baumann, who chaired the committee meeting in Seattle. The Chair has to appoint a new chair of this committee. Also the Publications Committee liaison has to be named. Schmidt will ask Bischof to be the liaison with the ASA Publications Committee and will find out if one has to commit to attend the Committee's spring meeting. She will also ask Baumann to chair the Bibliography Committee for two years starting with the spring meeting.

CONOVER-PORTER AWARD TO CAROL SICHERMAN

Carol Sicherman, author of two reference on Ngugi, is the winner of the seventh Conover-Porter Award. The African Studies Association established this prestigious award in 1980 to honor outstanding achievement and excellence in Africana bibliography and reference works. The Association awarded the $300 prize at a special session on November 21st, with ALC chair Onuma Ezera presenting the prize. Three other reference resources were noted for honorable mention. In her acceptance speech, Professor Sicherman thanked the many individuals who helped her and commented upon the dangers facing dissident writers and their friends.

The Award is a project of ALC and is named for two pioneers in the field, Helen F. Conover and Dorothy B. Porter, who compiled numerous bibliographies on African topics at the Library of Congress and Howard University, respectively. The award is presented biennially.

AWARD WINNERS

Carol Sicherman, Ngugi wa Thiong'o: A Bibliography of Primary and Secondary Sources, 1957-1989. London: New York: Hans Zell, 1989. 249pp.

Carol Sicherman, Ngugi wa Thiong'o: The Making of a Rebel: A source Book in Kenyan Literature and Resistance. London: New York: Hans Zell, 1990. 486pp.

Professor Carol Sicherman's impressive and dedicated efforts have resulted in the creation of two extremely important research resources on Ngugi wa Thiong'o and Kenyan literature, history, and politics. These reference works are rich treasure troves whose organization, content, and style establish new vistas for viewing the importance of African literary personae within the context of the developmental process of their country.

The bibliography is an indispensable, extensive listing of more than 1,900 primary and secondary sources in English, which also has numerous references to translations and scholarship in two dozen languages, including Arabic and Kiswahili. The volume is arranged chronologically and surveys books, journal and newspaper articles, dissertations and theses, unpublished manuscripts, and non-print media. Various indices and excellent cross-references promote effective use.

The second work focuses on providing the reader with a comprehensive background and landscape to grasp Ngugi's social and political vision within his creative efforts. This companion volume includes a chronology of Ngugi's life and Kenyan history and politics (1870-1988), together with biographical, linguistic and geographical glossaries with lengthy, informative descriptions. The work includes a useful subject/name index, numerous bibliographic notes and a chapter of Ngugi on Ngugi. The writer himself praises this work stating "the material provided will make all the historical, geographical, and biographical allusions in my fiction become more comprehensible to all serious scholars of my works. Her book is an invaluable guide to my work."

HONORABLE MENTION BOOKS

Janet L. Stanley, The Arts of Africa: An Annotated Bibliography. Volume 1: 1986 and 1987. Atlanta: African Studies Association, 1990.

This selective bibliography has 977 items. It emphasizes the visual arts and architecture but includes topics such as iron-working, archaeological pottery, economics of textile production, and the influence of African art on European art. The principal criterion for the inclusion of resources are their "substance and significance and originality and uniqueness," including information not easily found elsewhere. Popular, non-scholarly publications are reviewed along with exhibition and auction catalogs. The items are arranged by country or under General Studies, with 21 subdivisions. There are cross-references, recommendations for purchase, and an index.

Elizabeth Ardayfio-Schandorf and Kate O. Kwafu-Akoto. Women in Ghana: An Annotated Bibliography. Accra: Woeli Publishing Services, 1990.

This selective bibliography includes 754 citations to monographs, periodicals, conferences papers, government and project reports, and theses. Materials were reviewed from libraries and repositories throughout Ghana and include items published from the early twentieth century through 1988. Included selectively are materials published from Great Britain, Europe, and the United States. The authors include major segments dealing with women and development, population, agriculture and environment, education, health, labor, law and politics, and culture and religion.

Quarterly Index to Periodical Literature, Eastern and Southern Africa, 1991-. Library of Congress Nairobi Office. Quarterly with annual index.

This impressive effort indexed 125 scholarly periodicals during 1991, and the goal is to cover 200 titles. Not all titles are indexed exhaustively. Countries of publication include those covered by the Nairobi Field Office, with no limits on the languages indexed. There are separate indexes for subject, author, geographic area, article title and journal title. Primary arrangement is by broad subject category.

The 1993 conference will be held at Tallahassee, Florida, on May 2-4. The theme is Global Interdependence: The Role of Information in Development. In addition to reports about current opportunities and completed or on-going projects, there will be sessions on preparation for an overseas assignment, incorporating "library" components into responses to RFPs, and project evaluation techniques.

Papers are being solicited. Abstracts are required for longer, more formal papers which should not exceed 20 pages. Less formal presentations should be planned for approximately 20 minutes. Deadline for session and paper proposals was January 18. For further information, contact one of the Conference Co-Chairs: Chalres W. Conaway or John N. Gathegi, School of Library and

GRANTS AWARDED

FOREIGN PERIODICALS PROGRAM (U.S. DEPT. OF EDUCATION)

The last issue contained a detailed summary of the (unsuccessful) Boston University proposal to collect, preserve and index African newspapers. The open sharing of such information is virtually unprecedented and long overdue. The editor wishes to thank Gretchen Walsh for her leadership in cooperation and information diffusion.

In October and November, 1992, a number of awards were made. The following brief information was made available.

The Indiana University Libraries received a Title VI serials award to purchase serials of new democratic movements in Sub-Saharan Africa, Latin America and the countries covered by the Slavic-East European and Ural-Altaic Programs. This includes $6,000 for the African serials. New democratic movements will be widely interpreted for Sub-Saharan Africa and will include political parties and a wide variety of political support groups including human rights, women's rights, legal reform, liberation theology, theatre and other cultural organizations. The goal will be to include a selection of the many serials related to new democratic movements in the subcontinent, as part of a core collection of publications from the four geographic areas covered by the grant.

Northwestern University's Melville J. Herskovits Library of African Studies received a three-year grant from the Foreign Periodicals Program of the U.S. Department of Education's Center for International Education. The grant, which totals $40,000 for the first year, will enable the Library to enlarge its collections of periodical literature, which is increasingly more abundant due to the new democratic movements. It also will increase the rate of cataloging of such titles. New acquisitions will include newspapers, news magazines, magazines of commentary and newsletters published by independent and official publishers, political parties and movements, and a wide variety of interest groups. The Library also will hire a half-time serials cataloger who will catalog the new titles acquired as well as augment the cataloging of African periodicals already in the Herskovits collection.

Online records for all cataloged periodicals will appear in Northwestern's online catalog, OCLC and RLIN. During the first year of the project, the Northwestern University Library will, at its own expense, assess the preservation needs of the newly acquired titles. The assessment will determine preservation priorities for the subsequent years of the project.

Northwestern University Library is one of 11 grant recipients in 1992. Funding for the following two years of the grant is dependent upon congressional allocation of funds to the Foreign Periodicals Program.

AFRICAN ARCHIVES AND MUSEUMS PROJECT

The Joint Committee on African Studies of the Social Science Research Council (SSRC) and the American Council of Learned Societies (ACLS) recently awarded the second round of grants under the African Archives and Museums Project. Supported with funds from the Ford and Rockefeller Foundations, the Project seeks to invigorate and strengthen the work of archives and museums in Africa. It operates as an annual small grants competition, awarding up to $15,000 to African archives and museums for activities that will enable these cultural institutions to broaden their constituencies and reconfigure their roles as centers of humanistic knowledge and expression. Administered with the help of an international selection committee, the Project supports efforts to preserve and augment collections; document, catalog, and exhibit special holdings; and enhance use of such resources.

The 7 recipients of Seed Grants included:

- Direction des Archives Nationales, Porto-Novo, for a project directed by Elise R. Paraiso to inventory its materials.
- Research and Documentation Division, Banjul, for a project directed by Patience Sonko-Godwin to conserve and transcribe oral history recordings.
- Archives National de Niger, Niamey, for a project directed by Idrissa Yansambou to prepare a long-range plan.

The 10 recipients of Conservation and Documentation Grants include:

- Institute of Ethiopian Studies, Addis Ababa, for a project directed by Taddese Bayene to catalog political pamphlets.
- Archives du Sénégal, Dakar, for a project directed by Saliou Mbaye to classify the holdings of the Federation of Mali (1959-1960) and the holdings of the Vice-President and President of Senegal (1957-1962).
- Institute of African Studies, Freetown, for a project directed by Arthur Abraham to rehabilitate archival and museum space and to classify and catalog archival materials.
- South African Museum, Cape Town, for a project directed by Patricia Davidson to catalog and conserve the Krige photographic collection.
- National records Office, Khartoum, for a project directed by Ali S. Karrar to microfilm and catalog early 20th century Sudanese newspapers.
- Bulawayo Public Library, Zimbabwe, for a project directed by Robin Doust to microfilm early editions of the Bulawayo Chronicle and the Rhodesian Herald.

There were also 3 Exhibition and Outreach Grants.

The Project anticipates a deadline of May 31, 1993, for projects that would begin in October 1993. For additional information, please contact the Project, Social Science Research Council, 605 Third Ave., New York, NY 10158. Tel: 212-661-0280; fax: 1-212-370-7896.
