Africana Libraries Newsletter (ALN) is published quarterly by the Michigan State University Libraries and the MSU African Studies Center. Those copying contents are asked to cite ALN as their source. ALN is produced to support the work of the Africana Librarians Council (ALC) of the African Studies Association. It carries reports on meetings of ALC, CAMP (Cooperative Africana Microform Project) and other relevant groups. It also reports other items of interest to Africana librarians and those concerned about information resources about or in Africa.

Tel.: 517/355-1118; E-mail: 20676jll@msu.edu; Fax: 517/432-1445.
Deadline for no. 86: March 15, 1986; for no. 87: July 1, 1986.

EDITOR'S COMMENTS

Most of this issue is taken up with reports on activities during the annual meeting in Orlando. The weather was unseasonably hot, even by Florida standards; and a few of the (non-librarian) panels were too. Contributors for this issue include Sandy Berman, Moore Crossey, David Easterbrook, Onuma Ezera, Karen Fung, Kenneth Lohrentz, Elizabeth Plantz, Nancy Schmidt, Mette Shayne, and Dawn Williams.

The recent arrival of a new pentium computer at my work station has made it possible to advance plans for making available on a MSU home page on the Web. The full minutes, as submitted, will be attached, starting with those for the November 1995 Orlando meeting. Some back issues will also be available.

AFRICANA LIBRARIANS COUNCIL BUSINESS MEETING

Orlando, Nov. 2, 1995, 2-4:30

Editor's report.

1. Mary Alice Kraehe, a past chair and active ALC member [see ALN, Oct. 1995], was noted for her contributions.

2. Elections: Baumann and Shayne were named by the chair to a Nominations Committee that will prepare a mail ballot.

[November mail ballot elected Joe Caruso (Columbia) as vice-chair/chair-elect; and Miki Goral (UCLA) and Kenneth Lohrenz (Kansas) as members-at-large.]

3. 40th Anniversary: Schmidt reported on progress, with Indiana, Illinois-Champaign and Florida having committed to funding for an African librarian.

4. Spring 1996 meeting at Boston University will start Thursday evening. A block of room has been reserved at the Howard Johnson Kenmore Square Hotel. Special rates of $89 for a single room ($98, double) are available by calling direct to 617-267-3100. Meetings will be in the George Sherman Union.

5. Strategic Planning Committee (Finnegan for Nanji) is working on Manual and Mission Statement.

6. Cooperation Committee (Walsh): discussed options in Evanston, with emphasis on pilot project of newspapers received, with retention policies.

7. Conover-Porter Award - Nominations before end of year deadline were urged.

8. Resolution of support for Harare resolution, of IFLA Working Group, to fund LC-Nairobi's collecting and depositing one copy of each publication in an African library. Members rejected idea of paying for this, arguing insufficient funds and/or accounting difficulties. Walsh offered a resolution of support, suggesting that the interested parties get grant funds, possibly from UK's Book Aid International. This went out on the mail ballot. [This was approved, 16 to 3, with 1 abstaining, in a subsequent email ballot. See text below.]

9. ALN report: Promised to be available on the Net before the next meeting. Idea of abbreviated minutes, with full minutes only online, was referred to Strategic Planning Committee.

10. LC reports were presented. Zellers plans a trip to Senegal, Mali and Burkina Faso. Gentner reported on LC-Nairobi activities for Ruth Thomas, with specific details on acquisitions for each of 14 countries. For the 33 participants in the cooperative program, overhead charges are dropping from 73% to 58%.

11. Approved (with two opposed) a letter to the Editorial Board of the African politics bibliography.

12. Area Studies Librarianship Conference - Schmidt will forward papers and other messages via email.

ALC RESPONSE TO IFLA RESOLUTION

Members of the Africana Librarians Council read with interest the resolutions of the IFLA Anglophone Africa Seminar on Government Information and Official Publications (Harare, 15-18 December 1994) and discussed at our Spring meeting in May and again at our Fall meeting in November the proposal calling for the Library of Congress Field Office in Nairobi to deposit a copy of each publication collected at selected African libraries.

We recognize the need for African libraries to improve access to material published throughout Africa, and support efforts to reach this end. We also recognize the success of the LC Nairobi Office in developing an efficient mechanism for collecting and distributing publications from a number of African countries. The ALC supports exploration of ways in which African libraries can benefit from this successful mechanism, as well as other means of reaching the desired goal.

Members of the Africana Librarians Council expressed willingness to share in the effort to develop a means of ameliorating acquisition of and access to publications from all of Africa in libraries throughout Africa, and applaud the efforts already underway.

POST-MEETING EXECUTIVE MEETING

Discussed procedures for electing new board members; named John Howell as ALC representative to the ASA Publications Committee; selected Meseratch Zecharias (Syracuse) as member-at-large to fill the unexpired term vacated by Bob Lesh.—Notes by ALN editor.

CATALOGING COMMITTEE MINUTES

Orlando, Nov. 2, 1995, 9:30-11:00 a.m.

[Shortened by editor.]

Present: [full names and institutions of those attending Bibliography Committee meeting are not listed here]:

Britz, Caruso, Coelho, Crafts, Crossey, Dax, Dembele, Fung, Gentner, Gray, Howell, Kagan, Lauer, Lohrenz, Nam, Panofsky, Petroff, Elizabeth Plantz (Northwestern), Schmidt, Shayne, Sinnott, Cheryl Spence (Clarke's Bookshop, Cape Town), Stamm, Williams, Zellers.

1. The meeting was called to order by Elizabeth Plantz, Committee chair, who announced she will go on maternity leave in February 1996.

2. DT classification schedule expansion: Caruso had distributed a proposed expansion of the schedule for the Indian Ocean islands. Having received detailed comments from LC, he will be preparing a revised version.

3. ALC Africana Subject Funnel Project: To date, only 8 proposals (all from Lauer) were submitted. A handout with examples was distributed.

4. Enhancements of African language subject headings: Plantz has identified headings needing enhancements, and she will assign five headings to any volunteer.

5. Follow-up to 680 for "Indigenous peoples": Comments should go to Lauer, who will develop a proposal to submit through the funnel.

6. Proposal for translations of titles in African languages: Andrew deHeer (cataloger at Schomburg Center, New York Public) proposed that publishers of African language materials be urged to include translations of their titles in English, French or other official language in the publications. The Committee discussed how this might be encouraged.

7. LC report: Gentner reported that the most recent initiative involving the Nairobi office was full-level serials cataloging. Records added to the database include 1,700 monographs, 460 serials, 65 non-book titles, and 1,780 authority records.

BIBLIOGRAPHY COMMITTEE MINUTES

Thursday, November 2, 1995, 11:00-1:00

[Shortened by editor.]

Present: Christine Ayonude (Center for Study of African Economics, Oxford), Helene Baumann (Duke), Ruby Bell-Gam (UCLA), Phyllis Bischof (U.C. Berkeley), Daniel Britz (Northwestern), Joe Caruso (Columbia), Jill Coelho (Widener, Harvard), George Crafts (U. of Virginia), Moore Crossey (Yale), Henrietta Dax (Clarke's Bookshop, Cape Town), Amidou Dembele (Duke), David Easterbrook (Northwestern), Onuma Ezera (Michigan State U.), Greg Finnegan (Tozzer, Harvard), Karen Fung (Stanford), James Gentner (LC), Beverly Gray (LC), John Howell (U. Iowa), Mary Jay (African Books Collective, U.K.), Al Kagan (U. Illinois), Joe Lauer (Michigan State U.), Ken Lohrentz (U. Kansas), Helen MacLam (Choice Magazine), Peter Malanchuk (U. Florida), Wonki Nam (Central State U., Wilberforce, Ohio), Hans Panofsky (Northwestern, Retired), Loumona Petroff (Boston U.), Nancy Schmidt (Indiana U.), Mette Shayne (Northwestern), Elisabeth Sinnott (NYU), Andrea Stamm (Northwestern), Janet Stanley (Smithsonian), Gretchen Walsh (Boston U.), Dawn Williams (Northwestern), and Joanne Zellers (LC).

1. Conover-Porter Award, for bibliographies published in 1993-1995: Members were urged to submit nominations accompanied with book reviews to Shayne or to the chair of the Conover Award chair, Finnegan before the end of 1995. [A list of 11 nominated titles was distributed after the meeting.]

2. UPDATES:

Africana Conference Paper Index (AFRC): Stamm distributed a brief final report for the project which ended on September 30. The database is now accessible via telnet, and it contains records for 61,096 papers from 3,272 conferences. Based on discussions at previous meetings, they added help screens and the imprint to the citation in the index record. They were unable to change pagination system or add LCSH terms.

Northwestern Ephemera File: Access to this database of 45-50,000 records will be a future project.

3. Mentoring of new members: The idea of a workshop or session on grant-writing was discussed.

Problems with the acquisition of serials were also discussed. It was agreed that a list of recommended vendors could be compiled so long as it does not include dealers which are not recommended. Discussion of Henige's article in the Oct. 1995 ALN was put off to the spring meeting.

4. Dissertation list: Lauer raised the question of whether the printed list in ASA News is still necessary, in view of the availability of the UMICD-ROM product for browsing. Consensus was that the list is extremely useful to track research trends, and it should be continued. Help was sought in scanning print versions for titles missed by computer searches. And the possibility of adding British theses would be explored.

5. INSTITUTIONAL REPORTS:

Northwestern: Easterbrook reported that the Foreign Periodicals Project is in its third and final year. A list of the 227 titles ordered from 37 countries is available.

Easterbrook also asked for time at the Spring meeting to discuss the future of JALA (Joint Acquisitions List of Africana). Northwestern is concerned about costs and need, with many catalogs online. As part of its consultation with ALC, a questionnaire will be distributed in the new few months.

Stamm and Williams are doing the volume on Mali for Clío Press.

Indiana (Schmidt): IU has not been able to maintain all of the subscriptions begun on the Title VI serials grant. With support from Title 2-C, two tools are going up on the world wide web: Somali posters collection with descriptions; and a carto-bibliography of uncataloged maps on the colonial countries and Africa in the geography collection at IU.

Boston Univ. (Walsh): Her book on Africa and the media is due in July 1996. She is also preparing a guide to African materials on the WWW, including the guide to African language materials in the BU collection. She is also hoping that BU's pamphlet collection will be listed on the WWW. Westley continues work on his bibliography on the Mfecane.

LC (Zellers): Information about the African Section is being expanded on Marvel. LC is now doing a list every thirty days of new records added, arranged alphabetically by main entry. This list includes about 300 revised or newly cataloged titles on the WWW. U.S. imprints of Sub-Saharan Africa, v. 9/10, 1993/1994, will appear with 519 entries.

Univ. of Illinois (Kagan): A publisher for his coursebook on Africana bibliography is needed. His e-mail message about helping with Gloria Westfall's guide to official publications got only one response, and someone is still needed to do Somalia, Botswana, and Gambia.

Univ. of California-Berkeley (Bischof): Simon Bockie, a Zairian assistant, is working on a Diaspora bibliography.

Univ. of Iowa: Howell reported on two grants. The first, for health and medical materials, was extended to next spring. The second is for a grey literature collection.

Yale Univ. (Crossey): The date field of Orbis (Yale's online catalog) can be searched to located new Africana titles. The PIER Library for the Center of Area and International Studies will be going online.

Smithsonian (Stanley): A complete retrospective project for analytic records for materials in the Smithsonian collection will be entered into OCLC. This is a three-year project funded by the J. Paul Getty Trust. Book reviews will be entered in the 581 note field rather than having separate records. The Smithsonian is soon to add a home page on www and will probably discontinue the paper copy of its acquisitions list. Vol. 4 of The arts of Africa is now published.

Duke Univ. (Baumann): The J. Hope Franklin Center for African and African-American Documentation, which will include Franklin's papers and other material, was launched. The center will be located in the library, and they are recruiting a bibliographer/archivist.

Harvard/Tozzer (Finnegan): Harvard is involved in a multi-year retrospective conversion project, with Tozzer high on the list. The Africana shelflist is a separate project. The future of the printed Tozzer catalog is uncertain.

Univ. of Florida (Malanchuk): The papers of Rene Lemarchand, including books, older issues of Zairian newspapers, and manuscripts, have been contributed to the University of Florida Libraries. An extensive collection of interviews received from the estate of Gwendolen Carter are being put on the WWW.

Univ. of California-Los Angeles (Bell-Gam): They acquired the manuscript collection of Roland Stevenson. This collection of several thousand pages emphasizes North Eastern African languages and includes field notes, manuscripts, and other unpublished materials.

6. Letter concerning Contemporary African Politics and Development, a bibliography compiled at UCLA. ALC chair Finnegan distributed the draft of a letter to be sent to the editors of this work. The letter stressed three things: it was not comprehensive, lacking materials for Lusophone Africa; the coverage of journals was incomplete; and there was insufficient explanatory data in the front matter. After further discussion, it was decided that the revised draft would be brought to the business meeting.

PEOPLE

Dorothy Niekamp retired effective January 1, 1996, from the Indiana University Library, where she worked as a cataloger since September 1966. She began as the cataloger for Western European studies and also cataloged dissertations. For many years she has been Indiana's cataloger for African language materials, plus the cataloger for most of the Africana in European languages. She was active in both ALA and ALC, serving on various committees. She was chairperson of ALC's Cataloging Committee in the early 1990s.

Dorothy Porter Wesley, a librarian at Howard University, died on December 17, 1995. She was 91. She was known as Dorothy Porter until 1979, when she married Charles Harris Wesley, a historian who died in 1987. Her first husband, James Amos Porter, had died in 1970.

Dorothy Porter was born in Warrenton, Va., and reared in Montclair, N.J. She received her bachelor's degree in 1928 from Howard and her master's in library science from Columbia in 1932. She began working at Howard in 1928 as a library cataloger and was named, in 1930, librarian of what became the collection of the Moorland-Spingarn Research Center. By the time of her retirement in 1973, this collection grew from 3000 to 180,000 items. She also compiled numerous significant bibliographies in the fields of African and African-American studies, including Afro-Braziliana: A Working Bibliography (G.K.Hall, 1978).

When the African Studies Association was formed in 1957, it established a Library Committee. Dorothy Porter served the Committee's first secretary and only librarian member, and she remained active in what became ALC. Her contributions to ALC were honored in the late 1970s with the creation of the Conover-Porter Award for outstanding Africa-related reference works. And she has been present at several of the award ceremonies.
