How the Elm Won the Lice. 1. A louse is a very tiny insect, a little less than half as large as a fly. 2. Lice are very much disliked by man. 3. Yet they are not a very important insect. 4. So if we find them on a tree, we should not be very surprised. 5. The Elm in this case was not very surprised at all. 6. He saw the lice on his trunk and branches and said, "I'm sure I'm not going to be bothered by these lice."

That Planter Matter.

In the Victory of January 6th we promised more particularities concerning the Western Planter Agent, followed by a sketch of that firm, which is the object of our present report. The agent did notedit its editorial column, but the former the title of the business management in general. The latter was included in the scope of the subject matter and we therefore decided to help our cause by endeavoring to create a demand for it. The latter was printed and reprinted in this issue, and in the former the old story of race has been told, but I will make a few notes on the subject of the best way to handle these matters.

The boat includes a special feature on the subject of the best way to handle these matters. It will contain the old story of race, I will make a few notes on the subject of the best way to handle these matters.

A Bill to Prevent Swindling.

From the tone of the letters printed in the editorial page of the last issue, it seems to me that what is wanted is some sort of a law that will prevent the Patrons from being swindled. The Patrons are not likely to get the benefit of the Union unless they can be sure that the business will be conducted fairly.

Representative Rockwell in a minute resolution.

Mrs. Perry Mayo was lectured on the subject of the best way to handle these matters. She was not likely to get the benefit of the Union unless she could be sure that the business will be conducted fairly. She was sitting in the gallery, and I thought it might be a good thing to make a few notes on the subject of the best way to handle these matters.

The Patrons' Grocery House

Under Contract with the Executive Committees of the Pennsylvania and New York State Granges and recognized by the State Granges of Ohio, New York and Delaware to handle Groceries with all kinds of Groceries. We carry a large and complete stock of all Groceries, Sunflowers, Cornmeal, Biscuits, Tea, Coffee, Spices, etc. We fill all orders from Patrons when the order is Under Seal of Grange and signed by the Master and Secretary of the Grange, and upon receipt of goods and found satisfactory, payment to be made within five days from time of receipt. Our Groceries are very reasonable, as the railroads are cutting through rates. The order for Groceries from Michigan will convince them that they can purchase Groceries at advantage in Philadelphia. If you desire information in regard to prices on any goods in our line of business, freight rates do not hesitate to write us, as we endeavor to answer all inquiries promptly and satisfactorily. We will mail four samples of our emergency boxes of Groceries and give the wholesale prices of all Groceries in the Groceries Line.
