

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

BUREAU OF EDUCATION

LIST OF PUBLICATIONS FOR THE USE OF SCHOOL
HOME-GARDEN TEACHERS.

The plan of the Bureau of Education for home gardening under the direction of the public schools contemplates the training of children in the making of intensive and practical home gardens. Teachers who are engaged in this work are constantly requesting publications containing information which will help them to answer questions growing out of the home-garden teaching. The following list of publications has been compiled to meet this need.

The differing demands of the various sections of the country have necessitated the listing of a large number of publications. A teacher should request only a few bulletins at a time, and select carefully those adapted to the locality and work to be done. A few bulletins thoroughly studied are much more valuable than a large file unused.

Because of the demand for State experiment station bulletins, the supply of some publications is often quickly exhausted. Many State experiment stations do not republish bulletins, hence some listed below may be already out of print.

In requesting publications of the Department of Agriculture and State experiment stations, both the name and number of bulletins and circulars should be given.

Requests for United States Department of Agriculture publications should be made to:

The Division of Publications,

United States Department of Agriculture,

Washington, D. C.
