A few cooking suggestions
Hints for Simplifying Deep Fat Frying

Use a deep kettle, preferably of iron or heavy cast aluminum so that there will be no danger of over-turning on the stove.

Use enough fat to completely cover the food to be cooked, but be careful not to have the kettle more than two-thirds full or the hot fat might bubble over the top during the frying process.

Heat the Crisco to the proper temperature, as gauged by a thermometer or by the standard bread test. Special deep frying thermometers can be purchased at a very reasonable price, but the bread test serves very well, if you have no thermometer.

Drop an inch cube of bread into the hot fat. When it browns in a certain length of time, the fat is ready to cook certain types of foods. Foods which have been previously cooked naturally do not need as long a cooking in the fat as do those which are put into the kettle raw. The previously cooked foods simply need browning, so the fat can be very hot. The following table gives both the thermometer and bread tests.

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Kind of Food</th>
<th>Temperature (°F.)</th>
<th>Time for Bread</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Fritters</td>
<td>365-75</td>
<td>60 seconds</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Croquettes, Codfish Balls, etc.</td>
<td>385-90</td>
<td>40 seconds</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>French Fried Potatoes</td>
<td>400-10</td>
<td>20 seconds</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

Potatoes, croquettes or any food which does not have to be dropped into the fat piece by piece, can be more easily handled by using a frying basket. This is simply a wire basket with a handle, by means of which the food can be lowered gradually into the hot fat and removed all at once when done.

After frying, the food should be drained on paper to remove excess fat.

The Crisco in which the food was fried may be left in the kettle, covered and moved out of the way until ready for the next frying; unless a large quantity of burned food particles has collected in the kettle, in which case the Crisco should be strained before placing away. Some people find Crisco is made for homes that want the best in cooking.
it convenient to keep a special can of Crisco for frying purposes; then the warm fat may be strained directly back into the can after each using. The kettle does not have to be washed, simply wiped out carefully with soft paper.

Crisco can be used over and over again for frying. It does not matter whether you fry onions for lunch, you may use the same Crisco for frying fritters for dinner without any trace of the onion flavor being carried over to the fritters.

Frying with Crisco is a pleasant task because of the freedom from smoke and odors which usually accompany frying. Crisco does not smoke until heated far above the highest temperature ever used for frying.

DEEP FRYING

Fried Onions

Cut large onions across into slices about one-fourth inch thick. Separate the slices into rings. Dip the rings into a thin batter. Place in a frying basket and dip into deep Crisco at 360-70 degrees F. and fry until delicately browned. Drain. Salt lightly before serving.

Batter

\begin{align*}
\frac{1}{2} \text{ cup milk} & \quad 1 \text{ egg yolk} \\
\frac{1}{2} \text{ cup flour} & \quad 1 \text{ teaspoon melted Crisco} \\
\frac{1}{2} \text{ teaspoon salt} &
\end{align*}

Fried Oysters

Select large oysters. Wash them, sprinkle with salt and pepper and dip first in bread crumbs, then in beaten egg and again in bread crumbs. Place in a wire basket and drop into deep Crisco heated until it browns a cube of bread in 40 seconds. Fry until nicely browned. Drain on paper. Serve hot with tomato sauce or catsup.

Fish Balls

1 cup salt codfish 1 tablespoon Crisco
2 cups raw potatoe cubes 1 egg

Wash and shred fish. Cook with potatoes in enough boiling water to cover until soft. Drain, mash thoroughly. Beat in egg and Crisco. Drop by spoonfuls into deep Crisco and fry until nicely browned. Serve with egg sauce.

Egg Sauce

2 tablespoons flour 1 cup milk
2 tablespoons Crisco \( \frac{1}{2} \) teaspoon salt
\( \frac{1}{2} \) teaspoon pepper
\( \frac{1}{2} \) to 1 cup chopped hard boiled egg

Melt Crisco. Blend in flour. Add slowly the hot milk, stirring constantly. Cook until the mixture boils. Add seasonings and egg.
Doughnuts

1 cup sugar  5 to 6 cups flour
3 tablespoons Crisco  4 teaspoons baking powder
2 eggs  1 teaspoon salt
1 cup milk  ¼ teaspoon cinnamon
¼ teaspoon nutmeg

Cream Crisco with half the sugar. Beat the egg with the other half. Combine the two mixtures and stir in the milk and the sifted dry ingredients. Roll out a portion at a time on a well floured board. Shape with a doughnut cutter and drop into deep Crisco. Turn doughnut as soon as it rises to the surface. Fry until nicely browned on both sides. Drain on paper and sugar when cool.

Swedish Crumpets

2 eggs  4 cups flour
1 cup milk  ½ teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon Crisco

Beat egg slightly. Add milk. Stir liquid into flour and salt sifted together. Add melted Crisco. Roll out on a floured board a portion at a time to as thin a sheet as possible. Cut into squares about two or three inches square. Stretch each piece especially at the edges before dropping into hot deep Crisco. Fry until delicately brown. Drain and sprinkle generously with powdered sugar when cool.

Apple Fritters

1 tablespoon Crisco  ¼ teaspoon salt
1 cup flour  ¼ cup milk
1 teaspoon baking powder 1 egg
2 tablespoons sugar 2 medium sized cooking apples

Sift dry ingredients. Stir in egg and melted Crisco beaten with milk. Pare and core apples and cut into eighths. Stir slices into batter and drop by spoonfuls into hot Crisco. Fry until well browned. Sprinkle with powdered sugar. Serve with maple syrup.

Fry all these in the same Crisco—it does not transfer odors or flavors.
Fried Apple Pies

2 cups flour  2 tablespoons Crisco
1 teaspoon baking powder  1 egg yolk
1 teaspoon salt  4 tablespoons sugar
½ cup milk

Sift baking powder and salt with flour. Work in Crisco with finger tips. Combine egg, sugar and milk, and stir into mixture. Roll out on a well floured board to one-fourth inch thick. Cut into rounds about four to five inches in diameter. Spread half the circle with thick apple sauce, well seasoned with cinnamon and nutmeg. Fold over the other half of crust, fastening the edges well with a fork.

Fry in deep Crisco heated to 360 degrees F. or until an inch square of bread browns in 60 seconds. Drain on paper. Sprinkle with powdered sugar.

Snowballs

2 eggs  pinch of salt
½ cup sugar  2 teaspoons baking powder
1 cup sweet milk  1 teaspoon vanilla
1 tablespoon Crisco  2½ cups flour

Pastry Making

To obtain the best results in any type of pastry, a few general rules should be observed.

Do not mix the fat too thoroughly with the flour—the coarser the mixture, the flakier the crust will be.

Crisco is particularly desirable for pastry making because it mixes so easily with the flour, forming a mixture of just the right consistency. The Crisco crust is convenient to handle, and always tender and flaky, when properly made.

Add only enough water to hold the dry ingredients together in a lump, so that the mixture may be rolled out to a sheet. Excess water causes the crust to be tough besides involving difficulty in rolling.

Do not use too much flour on the board for rolling. A piece of canvas or a heavy towel spread out and well floured is more satisfactory for rolling the dough than a board or enamelled surface. The meshes of the cloth hold just the right amount of flour to keep the dough from sticking. The cloth may be shaken out after each using and folded up for the next time—it does not have to be washed after every pie.
Roll only one crust at a time, using a gentle pressure and rolling from the center out. Lift up the edges of the crust occasionally to see whether it is sticking to the board. If necessary, sprinkle a little flour under the crust.

Fit the crust carefully into the curves of the pan, leaving no air spaces to bulge the crust up during baking. If the crust is to be baked before adding the filling, prick it generously with a fork—this will also help to eliminate "bubbles" in the crust.

Fasten two-crust pies well at the edges by brushing the lower edge with water and pressing the upper edge down with a fork or by folding into scallops with the finger tips. The juice may be further prevented from escaping, particularly in berry pies, by adding flour to the sugar used for sweetening.

The upper crust should always be pricked or slashed occasionally to allow the escape of steam.

To prevent soaking of the lower crust, the surface may be sprinkled with flour or brushed with egg white before adding the filling.

Bake all pastry in as hot an oven as possible, taking into consideration the kind of filling, size of pie, etc.

Custard pies should be started in a hot oven (375 degrees F.) to set the crust, then the heat quickly reduced to 300 or even less to bake the custard slowly.

Apple pies should be baked at 400 degrees until browning starts, the temperature reduced to cook the apples thoroughly. When a fork pierces the center easily, the apples are cooked.

Pie crust, either plain or flaky, needs a hot oven (about 400 degrees F.).

Puff paste also bakes best at high temperatures, though for patty shells it is well to reduce the heat after raising to cook the center thoroughly.

PAstry

Plain Paste

\[ \frac{1}{2} \text{ cup Crisco} \quad \frac{1}{2} \text{ teaspoon salt} \]

\[ 1\frac{1}{2} \text{ cups flour} \quad \text{water} \]

Sift salt with flour. Cut Crisco in with knives or work in coarsely with finger tips. Stir in gradually just enough water to hold dry ingredients together. Divide in two parts and roll out separately to form lower and upper crusts for pie, or two pie shells.
Prune Whip Pie

Line pan and bake pastry.
Soak one pound of prunes overnight and simmer till soft. Remove stones, cut in pieces and add three-fourths cup sugar and three-fourths cup chopped nut meats. Fold in two egg whites beaten stiffly.
Pour into baked shell. Bake at 375 degrees F. for 20 minutes. When cool, decorate with one cup whipped cream to which has been added two tablespoons of powdered sugar and one-half teaspoon vanilla.

Butterscotch Pie

1 1/2 cups water
1 1/2 cups brown sugar
2 tablespoons flour
3 tablespoons cornstarch

pinch of salt
2 egg yolks
3 tablespoons Crisco
1 teaspoon vanilla

Meringue

2 egg whites
4 tablespoons sugar
1/4 teaspoon baking powder

Heat brown sugar and water to boiling point. Pour over sifted dry ingredients and cook until thick. Add egg yolks slightly beaten, and cook for one minute longer. Remove from fire; add butter, salt and flavoring, and let cool. Pour into baked crust, cover with meringue made by beating egg whites until frothy, adding sugar and baking powder and beating until stiff. Put in oven to brown.

Raisin Pie

1/2 cup sugar
1 cup raisins (seedless)
1/4 cup water
grated rind of lemon
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 tablespoon Crisco
1/4 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons cornstarch

Mix cornstarch, sugar and salt; stir in water. Cook until thick. Add Crisco, lemon juice and raisins. Cool before pouring into pie tin lined with following dough:

1 1/2 cups flour
1/2 cup Crisco
1/2 teaspoon salt
water

Sift flour with salt. Work in Crisco. Stir in enough water to make mixture stick together. Roll out on floured board one-fourth inch thick.

Crisco is made for homes that want the best in cooking.
Flaky Pastry

1 cup Crisco
1 teaspoon salt
3 cups flour
water

Cut Crisco into flour (previously sifted with salt) rather coarsely. Divide mixture in two parts. To half, add enough water to make a stiff paste. Roll out on floured board to about one-fourth inch thick. In center spread the other half of Crisco-flour mixture. Fold over the four edges to meet in the center. Roll out gently to about one-half inch thick. Fold over and roll again. Repeat several times. Chill in the refrigerator before shaping into shells.

Cheese Straws

Roll out flaky pastry to one-fourth inch thick. Sprinkle generously with grated cheese. Fold over the four edges to the center. Roll out carefully. Fold in half and roll out again. Repeat twice. Cut into strips about one-half inch wide. Bake in a hot oven until slightly browned.

Cheese Cake

1½ cups cottage cheese
3 eggs
½ cup sugar
3 tablespoons cream
grated lemon rind

Combine thoroughly cheese, sugar, cream and lemon rind, then add well beaten eggs. Line muffin tins or individual pie tins with plain paste. Fill them almost to the top with cheese mixture. Bake in a moderate oven about 15 minutes.

Puff Paste

1½ cups Crisco
1 egg yolk
4 cups pastry flour
½ teaspoon salt
ice water
½ teaspoon cream of tartar

Chill all materials thoroughly. Sift salt and cream of tartar with flour. Work in about one-fourth cup Crisco with finger tips. Stir in slightly beaten egg and enough water to hold mixture together. Roll out on floured board to one-half inch thick. Dot center of dough with bits of Crisco and fold edges into center, making four folds. Roll out lightly to original thickness. Repeat this process until all Crisco is used, chilling in refrigerator once or twice between rollings. Roll out to desired thickness.

Patty shells and Tarts are among the simplest things made out of Puff Paste.

Crisco is made for homes that want the best in cooking.
Patty Shells

Roll part of puff paste to one inch in thickness, part to one-half inch. With cookie cutter cut rounds of thin paste for bottoms of shells. Place on white paper on a pan. Cut rounds of thick paste with a doughnut cutter. Place the layer with the hole on the thin layer, fastening the two together by brushing between with water. Place in a hot oven (400 to 450 degrees F.) and bake for 20 to 30 minutes or until risen and browned on the surface.

Banbury Tarts

1 cup raisins 1 cup sugar 1 egg
1 soda cracker 1 tablespoon Crisco 1 lemon, juice and rind

Beat egg with sugar. Add raisins, finely ground cracker crumbs, melted Crisco, lemon juice and grated rind.

Roll puff paste to a thin sheet. Cut into squares or circles three or four inches across. Put about a teaspoon of filling mixture on each piece. Moisten edges half way around. Fold over in center, pressing edges together with a fork. Bake in a moderate oven (380 degrees F.) until brown.

Cakes, Cookies and Quick Breads

The term “shortening” indicates the purpose of fat in cake and breadmaking. The fat is used to make the food shorter or more tender.

Naturally then, a fat which is all fat and contains no water or other material, will make a more tender cake or bread. Crisco is 100 percent fat, a pure white vegetable fat, which having no flavor of its own, allows the fullest development of the characteristic flavor of the cake or bread.

There is a secondary purpose of shortening in cake making, and this is the introduction of air into the sugar and fat mixture to help make the cake light. It is important, therefore, that the sugar and fat should be mixed to a light airy mass. Crisco is easily creamed with the sugar to form this desirable frothy mixture.

To this creamed mixture may be added the eggs, usually the yolks slighten beaten, leaving the whites to be stirred in at the last moment. If the cake is to be white, the liquid is added in place of the yolks. Whenever milk or water is added to a creamed sugar and fat mixture, care should be taken not to break the light airy structure which stirring has built up, but to add alternately a little of the liquid, then some of the flour (which should be thoroughly sifted with the salt and baking powder) until both are used up. When the beaten whites are added last, they should be stirred and folded in gently but completely, in order to increase the lightness of the batter rather than to break it down.

For breads which contain less sugar than cakes, and a smaller proportion of fat, the Crisco is usually combined with the flour as in pastry making, or it is added in a melted state to the batter just before putting into the oven.
