SOUP has long played a stellar part on the Canadian menu—but never has it filled so many interesting and appetizing roles as it does today! Formerly served strictly as a first course, versatile soup now appears as an important ingredient in dozens of dishes—dressings, meat loaves, rarebits, casseroles and many another old favourite. For housewives have found this a quick, thrifty way to make everything from sauces to salads extra nourishing and delicious.

Heinz Condensed Soups are the perfect bases for many tempting, time-and-fuel-saving dishes—because these soups are made the small-batch way, from choice and often market-scarce ingredients. All the fresh, old-fashioned flavours are deftly brewed into each soup.

These recipes for soup cookery have been specially prepared and tested for you by Heinz Home Institute.
