Minute Gelatine (Plain)

Can be used in any combination.

Until Minute Gelatine (Plain) was put on the market, it was generally supposed that two or more forms of gelatine were necessary under varying conditions. Minute Gelatine (Plain) is put out in one form only and this can be used in combination with water, milk, wine, or fruit juices.

Is ready measured.

Each package contains four envelopes, each holding just enough to make a pint of jelly. Minute Gelatine (Plain) is the only gelatine packed in this way. This eliminates all trouble caused by having to guess at the fraction of a package wanted. Besides this, it dissolves instantly in boiling water, is absolutely pure, and will give uniform results. Each package makes a full half gallon of jelly.

2 PACKAGES enough for one gallon 25c.

Ask your grocer for it. Insist on getting Minute Gelatine (Plain.) There is no substitute.
