Commencement and Fraternity Events Hold Social Prominence

The Commencement Ceremonies of 1929 will be the last of the series of annual events by which the students of the University may enjoy the sociality of close companionship in the passing of the seniors from the undergraduate ranks, and the resumption of a more wholesome and expansive life of studenthood.

The Commencement of the University marked the beginning of the social life of the students. The students of the University are all aware of the social activities of the students of the University and the social activities of the University. These activities are influenced by the social activities of the students of the University and the social activities of the University.
