NEW UNIFORMS.
One of the most progressive steps taken by the military department in recent years of R. O. T. C. in this school is indicated by the new uniform that the under-cadets are now wearing.
So much attention has been paid to the old "D." issue military uniforms that any change in them is of interest. Along with millions of dollars, new uniforms can be drawn from them. The roll collar, slack, and particularly, the shiny overcoat, now replaces the old uniform and is termed the "monkey suit." Only a person who has worn a suit of this type can appreciate the discomfort thereof.

Meeting the specifications of the war department in every detail, the suits transform R. O. T. C. uniforms into well-dressed up-to-the-minute military dress. The college administration and the military department have certainly filled the necessary and imperative want with the adoption of the new uniform.

DRIVE MORE CAREFULLY.
With more student drivers using the campus roads than ever before, extreme care in driving must be taken if serious injury or damage is to be avoided. The crowded condition of the roads and the numerous pedestrians and the campus demand more careful driving. Protect your fellow student by driving safe while drivi-

Crisper, tastier Better Bran Flakes

A bowl of Kellogg's Pep Bran Flakes with milk or cream makes this the season's toast. Why not serve them at your next tea or campus restaurant.

SUNDAY AND MONDAY

COMEDY HISTORY
MADE BY NEW TEAM

Sponsored by Warren Rymer

This comedy is a treatise in any man's language. It has no theme song to sing, but you'll never miss it. You can't double up with the script of the day. You'll have to decide which is more important, whether to laugh or whether to listen to the script of the day. This is a comedy of the present, its ulterior motive, its ulterior motives, and you'll love it.
