Welcome Alumni!

Another year has rolled by and tomorrow Michigan State will play host to thousands of returning alumni. Coming from nearly every state in the Union, the former students will again visit the scenes of their college days, renew old friendships, and make new acquaintances. The Michigan State News staff, on behalf of the entire student body, wishes to extend a cordial word of greeting in the marching pages of this issue of the campus.

Welcome Colgate!

Five years of athletic relations with Colgate university have been unevented by any ill-feelings between either the teams or the student bodies. Every year the beginning of competition between the eastern school and Michigan State college the spirit of friendship has been paramount.

No matter what the outcome of the game tomorrow, every State student has the primary desire to welcome the fighting Colgate designation in every manner of friendliness and to leave an association of most pleasant thoughts.

Welcome Alumni!

Department of Athletics

The publishers of The Michigan State News extend a cordial welcome to the many alumni who will be attending the Michigan State-Colgate University football game.

SPARTAN ELEVEN FACES SECOND REAL TEST OF SEASON AGAINST STRONG MAROON COMBINATION

Green and White Goldens Have First in Best Eastern Team. Bruins and Streak Likely to Be Lost Through Injuries;

Northumb To Contest.

Backed by thousands of their devoted alumni and fans, the youthful but hard hitting Spartan eleven, who have played a thrilling, but un贏ting contest with rival Northwestern, will attempt to give the mark of a powerful Maroon eleven from Hamilton, N. Y. Colgate in its four years of competition with Colgate has not been too friendly to the golden ambush. The Maroons have been fast, but not so quick. The game tomorrow afternoon will be the first real test of the season. Coach J. E. Knowles, a member of the outstanding teams of the past two years for the Maroons, will coach the eastern eleven after a successful year in the game of basketball, for he has added to his coaching staff an able assistant. The game is to be played at 2:30 and the Maroons are expected to win.
