Western Team Won One of Two to Beat State in Home Diamond Last Season; Plays Mt. Pleasant Saturday; Spartans Say is Sixth on Two Hits, and Error

By HARRIET COATES, Sport Editor

Two Games are Scheduled for the Spartan Baseball Team at Mt. Pleasant. Coach John H. Kohls will lead his team against Iowa State Teachers College on the home field at a 2:00 P.M. game Saturday. The Western State will be favored to win, but will be playing on the road. The game will be a key to the home season. State has the Mt. Pleasant Teachers in 9-9, the Western State is leading 1-0, and will be favored to win on the foreign soil.

Griffin Admits Western Will Have Better Hurling Staff, But hurls and Footers Say Saturday Game Will be a Key to the Season for the Spartans. "Western is the strongest, but we have a better hurling staff," Griffin said. "The Western State is playing on their home diamond, but the Spartans will still be winning. We have a better hurling staff and will be favored to win."
