RICHARDS ELECTED TO NATIONAL MUSIC GUILD

A strategic point in the battle for sales

Today's intense competition calls for new and more effective merchandising methods. Several plans pioneered by Bell System men are proving highly effective.

For example, the "Where to Buy It" section of the telephone book. Here, local dealers are listed beneath the trade-marks of advertised products—such as Remington, Greyhound Lines, Exide, RCA Victor. This service helps manufacturers to reduce substitution, helps dealers to increase sales, helps you to locate the brands you want.

STATE'S SPORT SUMMARY

NATIONAL SPORT SUMMARY

By Tom Girten

NEW YORK CITY—Discoveries in the sport of horse racing are hard to come by. They often are due to the temperament of the horses, which is unpredictable. The betting is based on a combination of factors: the horse, the jockey, the trainer, the weather, the track conditions, and the public confidence. It is a sport that requires a lot of research and analysis to make informed decisions. The biggest challenge is the unpredictability of the horse's performance, which can change from race to race. Therefore, it is important to stay up-to-date with the latest news and developments in the sport to make strategic decisions. The betting strategies are unique for each race and depend on the specific circumstances. It is a sport that requires a strong understanding of the horse's behavior and performance. The biggest risk is being caught off guard by unexpected changes in the horse's performance. Therefore, it is important to stay vigilant and adapt the betting strategies accordingly. It is a sport that requires a lot of attention and dedication to achieve success. The biggest reward is the adrenaline rush of watching the horse galloping across the finish line, winning the race and making the bet pay off. It is a sport that brings a lot of excitement and satisfaction to those who participate in it. The biggest lesson is to always be prepared for the unexpected and to adapt to the changing circumstances. It is a sport that requires a lot of discipline and patience. The biggest challenge is the stress of losing a race and the financial consequences of it. Therefore, it is important to manage the losses and keep a positive attitude. It is a sport that requires a strong mind and spirit to succeed. The biggest reward is the joy of winning the race and the satisfaction of making a profit from the bet. It is a sport that brings a lot of happiness and satisfaction to those who participate in it.
