A Plea for Rooms

Michigan State college will be a week away from the Model League of Nations Assembly. This meeting will bring more than 2000 delegates from outside schools. Where to house them is a problem.

A campus room for at least one person will cost about $2.50 a week. An extra feature not easily cared for is the board. On the average, all rooms will have room for at least one or two meals. Some can arrange for a room which will cost $1.50 a week, will rear out assistance within a few days with a plea for assistance of their roommates.

The Future of Michigan State

The most likely Michigan Legislature will deal with M. S. C. as it maintains its position of one of the nation's leading educational institutions. - John A. Harrin, speaking to the Lansing Chamber of Commerce last Wednesday.

Mr. Harrin, in his calm, yet official, manner, had little of the political drama about him. No one knows what the legislature will do, but to the credit of both the governor and the lawmakers lies a trend away from the 8-to-1 appropriations ratio between the University of Michigan and Michigan State College. And they manifest a desire last year to keep the ratio.
