Getting a Lava
The neatly dressed halls of the Student Union were thronged with students yesterday for the monthly Lava dance. The floor was filled with a sea of heads, and the air was filled with the peal of laughter and the occasional shout. The music, provided by the student band, was loud and rhythmic, and it served to heighten the festive atmosphere. The Lava dance is a popular event on campus, and it brings together students from all corners of the university. It is a time for students tosocialize, dance, and enjoy the company of friends.

Pre-Election Rally
The Pre-Election Rally was held on the steps of the Administration Building yesterday afternoon. The rally featured speeches from prominent figures in the university community, including faculty members and student activists. The speakers emphasized the importance of voting and encouraged students to register and cast their ballots. The rally was a lively event, with students waving flags and chanting slogans in support of their preferred candidates. The atmosphere was one of enthusiasm and excitement, as students looked forward to the upcoming election and the opportunity to make their voices heard.

Emergency Power Program
The Emergency Power Program was launched yesterday to ensure that the university can continue to operate in case of a power outage. The program involves the use of backup generators and other alternative energy sources to provide power to critical infrastructure and essential services. The program was developed in response to recent power outages that have affected the university, and it is designed to minimize the impact of future outages on the campus community. The Emergency Power Program is a testament to the university's commitment to preparedness and resilience.

Free Plane Ride to Capitol
The Immigration Bureau of Michigan is offering a free plane ride to the Capitol for those attending the Net-Hite National Scope. The bureau is sponsoring a special flight to Washington, D.C., to facilitate the transportation of students to the Capitol for the Scope event. The flight is scheduled for Friday, April 15, at 8:00 a.m., and it will depart from the Detroit Metropolitan Airport. The event is open to all students who are interested in attending the Scope, and it promises to be an unforgettable experience for those who attend.

Hunting Season
Despite the rainy weather, the hunting season in Michigan has officially opened.励to enjoy a day in the field of aerial hunting, many students took advantage of the opportunity to participate in the activity. The hunting season in Michigan is a popular time for students to experience the outdoors and enjoy the thrill of hunting.

Young Hosts Will Present Annual Fete
The annual fete was held yesterday evening in the Student Union. The event featured a variety of activities, including music, dance, and food. The fete was organized by the students, and it was a testament to their creativity and enthusiasm. The event was a huge success, with a large crowd in attendance and a joyful atmosphere.
Cometh the Wooden Mallet

Electrons on this campus are tradition¬ ally athletic exhibits in blue and gold.
The majority of students know little and care less about the can¬ didates, their qualifications, their agita¬ tions, or their promises. For the most par¬ tial, failing to understand the greater good that can be accom¬ plished if one takes part in student affairs.

The whole election system is benefi¬ tial in some respects. It gives the students an opportunity to be an active part of campus life, to come together at different times and places to bring up more than a few ideas for any class. A number of classes are participants, with voting being mainly through the primary weeks and all four students of those classes. Con¬ volution at designated times and places replies. It is an excellent system that has been in place for years.

It is an election in which one must have some base on which to compare this candidate with the candidates of this year, as well as previous candidates. All papers are published by the student body, which is the true spirit of democracy.

Peace Parade

General Douglas MacArthur, the gen¬ eral who led the troops of the United States to victory over the Japanese in World War II, has been honored with a peace parade in his honor. MacArthur served as the supreme commander of the Allied forces in the Pacific during World War II.

The parade was filled with flags,
band music, and people of all ages cheering for MacArthur. The parade was a fitting tribute to a man who dedicated his life to serving his country.

There are few occasions for legisla¬ tion, but this seems like a good op¬ motion to campaign for. It is an excellent opportunity to involve the students in the political process.

Today's GUEST EDITORIAL

Know Thy Neighbor

By Dr. Fred T. Mitchell, Dean of Men

One of the earliest incidents in college and university life today is the failure of some students to appear at official annoucements, that is, the failure to know names and faces of their students. The failure to appear at official announcements is serious and should be taken seriously. The student must be aware of the importance of his own education.

The failure to appear at official announcements is caused by a lack of recognition of the value of education. The student must be aware of the value of his education and the purpose it serves in society.

The Revolving Stage

By Larry Distel

Today’s Student Pulse...

Students are putting on a new musical, “The Revolving Stage.” The musical runs this weekend in the Student Union Theater and is directed by John Distel.

The musical is a modern take on the classic musical, “The Sound of Music.”
It features a group of students who are trying to put on a musical, but face many obstacles along the way.
