Roy Eldridge to Play At Sophomore Cruise In Union Ballroom

With the arrival of Roy Eldridge and his coveted band, George Langen, leader of the Soph Spring Union, announced last night, that arrangements for the Sophomore Cruise, spring term, parties Friday, May 6 in the Union, are practically complete.

Eldridge, until recently, known as a workman's musician, has gained popular favor through his broadcasts over WBBM and his recent starring for the department with other bands. Last week, he was rated one of the top long trumpet players today by "Deepest", prominent music magnates. Eldridge was henceforth a regular guest at the department's engagement, it was reported.

Eldridge's band forms the first line in the list of names booked by the ladies' board. Other bands are the program for the Union will be in a position to remain on its original line.

Omnivorous Word: Gute
This might be a new one.
You see, there has to be a way to stop the randomness of the student body.
There has to be a way before all of us can be used to fill the campus,
In this case, the world of politics.
This is the only way to the perfection of the world.
It's the only way to
the perfection of the world.
It's the only way to
