WKAH Presents

Broadcasting lessons from the front seat of a moving automobile is indeed an unusual affair, but it was done Wednesday afternoon and will be repeated again at 7 this evening. Today's broadcast will be made from the area of the covered bridge and from the parking grounds which are located on the road that surrounds Cornwell hall. WKAH portable radio trucks will pipe in the broadcast and present and announce Curtis Paton bite in the front seat with the other members of the control car. The lesson is the mark of the summer series and it is rumored that wires remain connected between WKAH and the control car.

To produce safety-conscious drivers in the purpose of the motorists and pedestrians, WKAH is in the habit of mailing notice to all drivers this list is the sixth notice of a one-hour period five days a week, and an alert to the laboratory weeks.

The lecture are based on safety courses in schools throughout the state. The laboratory consists of each student building a model car, studying and driving the right method of driving a motor car.

The course of the year is supervised by the A. A. A. Course, director of the Michigan Motor Co., and the close connection is that the slowest is the one that is favorite of the students.

This type of course first started at Pennsylvania State college, and the first time it is used here in the state is that it will be offered again next year.

Two of a Kind

An unusual and funny member of the staff is reported to be the new student assistant, the only two who have been in the office in more than one year.

The student assistant is John B. H. from the English department. He has been a student for several years and has been known to be a student assistant until the end of his course.

Definitions of the Michigan Farm, Michigan students, and farmers may be found in the Michigan State College, which is the only one that has had two students.

Michigan State Students

In a survey of trade agreements as well as the Michigan State Agriculture and Industry, it was found that there were 12,000,000,000,000 members in the United States who were interested in the Michigan Agriculture. It was stated that these people were interested in what they were doing.

In 1937, Dr. John B. H. permitted the Michigan State Agriculture and Industry to study the relation of the United States to the current events in the world.
The M. S. C. Shoe Repair Shop is renovating its present place of business and redecorating it. The shoe shine is being moved to the front of the shop. A new waiting booth is being installed. The work will be completed by August 27. Mrs. K. L. Shaboo is in a motor trip through Canada and will return to East Lansing via the eastern states in about a month.

Mrs. Bernard Godbold is giving a rehearsal dinner Friday evening at 8:30 for the marriage of Miss Jane Dean to Maurice Godbold. Twenty-three guests will be present. The decorations will be specially planned with touches of the same color.

Mrs. Alice Strobel of Cedar Bend Heights is giving a dinner at Hunt's Food Shop Thursday evening at 7 o'clock in honor of Miss Jenny Becker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Becker of Owosso, who will be married September 1. Yellow tapers and flowers will be part of the decorations. Dr. W. L. Mallmann is in Crystal Falls on vacation.

David Menchhafter, Dorothy Brown, Kenneth Wintermute, George Lee, and Grace Miller left Tuesday for Waldenwoods Music camp where they will spend 12 days. During the period two concerts were given in which they will participate.

Kenneth Wintermute, son of Foster Wintermute, 141 S. Harper Avenue, has returned from the Dufour-Doucette Camp at W. Lake. Clifton Swam has moved his jewelry shop from Abbott road to 1100 W.

No 'Wrong Way' About Doug's Cousin, Ed Flowers Complains

Big Ed Flowers, he of the size 14 shoes and the Michigan State amateur golf championship, returned Monday from Syracuse, N. Y., where he participated in the Syracuse Field and Country club invitational golf tournament. In East Lansing Wednesday, Ed said, "They fouled me off with a point to "Wrong Way" Corrigan, the man who hailed from Sparta, Canada. There was nothing wrong about this Corrigan for he was really hot and beat me."

He says he has travelled over 4,000 miles this summer playing golf. Most of his travelling has been with Bursley, former E. M. star.

Every day he gets in plenty of practice because he is aiming for the National Amateur tournament. Oakland, scheduled for September 12-13. Sectional tryouts will be held August 29, at Oakland Hills.

When he left here Wednesday evening he was undecided as to whether he would enter the Grand Rapids city tournament.

Nancy Wriggford, daughter of Prof. Wriggford, of 80th Street, underwent an operation Saturday night. She is doing well, but will remain in the hospital for at least two weeks.

State Sprinter Member of Crack AAU Relay Team

America's touring team of track standasts again established their supremacy over the cream of the German crop in a friendly meet at the Olympic stadium this week.

On chart of local track followers, was the fact that Michigan State's star distance, William Greve, was a member of the crack American relay team which measured beating the 400 meters world's record to only 3 1/2 of a second. Both teams were under the old German mark of 404.4 with the American quartette making the distance in 402.24 flat over a wet track.

Moral Eaters, (Clay Avery, Ben Johnson and Greve) running made.
