MICHIGAN STATE NEWS CAMERAMEN PRESENT HIGH POINTS OF THE CAMPUS WEEK

They will parade this way again later of the U. of M. stadium. Here a State News photographer catches a snapshot of the waves as they charge across the football field between the end zones. This is the scene for the last game of the season, the annual rivalry with Michigan. Among the fans in the stands were many from both schools, and with the weather's fine, the fans gathered together for a picture.

Scoop Says:

By George Minnis

The Michigan State-Michigan State football game will be an October showdown, but the players will only have to wait one day for the contest.

With that in mind, let's look at the game's potential outcomes, which will no doubt affect the state's morale and pride.

Onwards and upwards, a Michigan victory over Michigan State could mean the start of a new chapter for the Wolverines.

But if Michigan State is victorious, it could mean the end of a streak for the Wolverines.

The game is sure to be a spectacle, and the outcome will have a significant impact on the state's confidence and spirit.

Spartans Picked to Beat Michigan by Touchdown

The Michigan State-Michigan football game is one of the most anticipated of the season. Both teams have had a strong season, with the Spartans coming in as the clear favorites.

The Spartans' offense has been a dominant force, and they have a strong defense to boot. The Wolverines, on the other hand, have struggled on offense, but they have a solid defense.

Expect a close game, with the Spartans picking up a touchdown to win.
