A Merry Christmas
From The State News Staff

Drive Safely; Enjoy Christmas
The Michigan State student who survived and never was guilty of drinking on campus can get through the Christmas holidays last year.
If the effort to personal safety concerns this year, Capt. C. J. Soule, who has charge of the safety and traffic division of the State Police, advises students to be especially careful of these tips.

'Maintain perfect visibility and be prepared for more intersections. Since there hasn't been much traffic in the city, it may be reasonable to expect some in town and the first day of bad road weather will hit the same with a bang. The students are not accustomed to this and it takes a day or two for the road to dry out.

So when you are ready to leave for the Christmas holiday, be careful and don't take a chance on getting in an accident. Be sure your car is in good shape and keep the brakes and all lights checked. Be sure you are familiar with the area before you leave. Don't let a traffic jam or fatigue keep you from the

Mason Hall is Zone of Quiet
With the way Mason Hall turns into a home scholarly atmosphere the night with this will fall. They are their friends and students can come to the house and chat it up.
They have the run of the place and the rest of the time is for the students to enjoy themselves.
