A star-struck-biting Western Reserve basketball team with one of the best records in the Midwest later came home tonight in what will be the last appearance of the Michigan State team in 21 home games for two years.

Coach Ray Clift arrived in East Lansing with his Red Cat cuppem, high. But six of the team's starters are juniors, so the team will be very much of a junior-caliber band tonight.

Cal Clift, who has been a high school player for two years, is expected to make his debut tonight.

Are You "Choosy"

About Spending Your $125.00?

This term you have $125.00 to spend on merchandise, food, and services. If you doubt us, just keep track of your expenses in these lines for a term.

Of course you plan to spend it where it will bring the most in quality, style, or service, as the case may be. That is intelligent management.

The Michigan State News advertisers are equipped to offer you the merchandise and services you demand. The pressure of their advertising in your college paper indicates that they are making a definite effort to satisfy your wants. They are willing to spend money in order to reach you with their selling message. They have provided themselves with the type of merchandise you like. They want your business and are trying to get it by buying the things you want and telling you about them in advertisements in the State News.

Let the State News help you to find these men. Make the State News your shopping guide to more efficient management of your funds. Your $125.00 will buy more satisfaction, quality and service than ever before.
