Some Still Have Faith

There are still some who believe that liberty is the birthright of every student at the college. In the spirit of campus democracy, we have the right to express our opinions without fear of censorship. This is not to say that we condone any form of speech that incites violence or hatred. However, we believe in the freedom of expression, which is essential to a healthy democratic society.

Lift up Thine Eyes — to the Future

The future is uncertain, but we are determined to make the most of it. We must prepare ourselves for the challenges that lie ahead, for we are the future leaders of this world.

With the Modern Greeks

The Modern Greeks are always looking for new ways to express themselves. Whether it's through music, art, or literature, they are always pushing the boundaries of what is possible. Their dedication to their craft is truly inspiring.

The Readers Speak

Sports has become a major topic of discussion on campus. According to an editorials, sports is not just a game, but a way of life. It is a source of inspiration and a source of joy. People are passionate about their teams and their players, and they are willing to share their opinions.
