We've Been Waiting

Long time for Bill Mansfield to land the job of his dreams. His friend and mentor, Tom Nelson, has been looking for a new assistant for his successful law firm for months. Finally, the search is over, and Bill is thrilled to join the team. Their workouts will include a mix of intense cardio and strength training, focusing on improving their overall fitness and well-being.

Smoked Glasses

by Elsie White

This week was called "Smoked Glasses," and everyone was prompted to wear glasses of any sort to believe that this had happened. The glasses were dark and slid straight over their eyes.

Jobs Plentiful For Seniors

Survey Says

Employment prospects for 1938 graduates were more favorable than those of June 1938 graduates. Of those who had taken the survey in 1938, 50% had been unemployed for an average of 12 months. This year, only 20% of the graduates were unemployed, and the average duration of unemployment was reduced to 6 months.

Faculty to Have It's Say

Student organizations interested in the continuation of Michigan State College have been awarded funds from the university for certain projects. The projects will involve the students' participation in the planning and execution of the organization's activities.

Survey Shows College Grads Well Off

College Men Lead

Survey conducted by the College of Business Administration shows that 80% of the graduates are employed, and their average income is $2000 per year. The survey also reveals that 95% of the graduates are satisfied with their jobs.
