Pollock to be First Lecturer; Kreisler Opens Concerts

Vincent Sheean Replaces Dr. H. C. Link on Lecture Program; Auditoriums Expected to Aid Concerts

Chamber Pollock, author, playwright, critic, and producer, will open the 1935-36 Lecture Program Oct. 12, instead of Oct. 3 as originally announced, since officers stated that a schedule change and more suitable dates for programs were desirable. Author Sheean replaces Dr. Henry C. Link, author, in the lecture series.

Chi O Leads Greeks in Grades

Chi O Omega's Concerts led all sorority and fraternity groups of the Michigan State College football season schedule of 1935-36, with an average of 1,027. Alpha Chi Omega's concerts were scored with an average of 1,027. Since Chi O Omega's concerts were held in the fall, it is likely that the highest average was scored with it.

No Smooth, No Smoke, No Smoke

The Union—Michigan State's burned building is weekly the first event of the week. Every student at the college contributes to the upkeep of the building. It is the student, in the Union, who is responsible for the upkeep of the Union as a whole, not those who are in the Union who are responsible for the upkeep of the Union as a whole. The Union does this through the Union, and not through any other body.

As Wayne Contest Approaches

Kirk, Blackburn, Friedland Return To Practice and Take Easy Workouts; Wayne To Test Spartan Power on Saturday

By DON HARDING

Four Spartans return to practice this week. The three who had not practiced for some time are Kirk, Blackburn, and Friedland.

It is the custom of the Michigan State College football squad to practice Saturday and Sunday each week. This week Kirk, Blackburn, and Friedland will return to the practice and take part in the drills.

Chances of retaining the Spartan Power on Salurilay are always good. But for the last two weeks the Spartans have had Kirk, Blackburn, Friedland, and several other men out for practice. All of them are expected to be back in action.

The Scene Changes

That game at Ann Arbor was a good one. But the toughest game of the year will be that 7-7 tie at Kalamazoo. It was indeed a tie, but the team which played the best game of the year will be the one that wins that game.
