President Urges Development of Aesthetic Taste

WORLD AND ALL IS LIBRARY DISPLAY THEME

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Smith announced that the theme of the Michigan State library will be "World and All Is," according to a letter received from the National Players Association. The theme is to be developed in the display area of the library to show the world's diversity and the role of libraries in promoting cultural understanding. The display will feature works from various countries and cultures, highlighting their unique contributions to world literature and art.

President urges developments of aesthetic taste.

World and All Is Library Display Theme

In a letter to the editor, the President of the American Library Association (ALA) called for libraries to promote the development of aesthetic taste among their patrons. The letter states that libraries have a responsibility to foster an appreciation of beauty and the arts, and that this can be achieved through the selection of books and other materials that reflect a wide range of aesthetic values. The President also emphasizes the importance of education and the role of libraries in promoting the appreciation of the arts and culture.
