The Workers Lose

Announcement yesterday that an agreement had been reached, ending the Michigan State strike, was applauded by 20,000 workers who have been idle for nearly eight weeks.

According to T. K. Vanier, Clermont president, the workers have had 28 separate hours of work and application. $1,700,000 is wages because of "millions striking and strike." Also, "Meters Man" has been fired. The agreement includes a clause providing for the establishment of a "Just Price" which will be determined by the three parties involved.

During the depression of 1930 the workers were the principal victims of the depression. The organized labor movement is fighting a campaign to prevent another depression.

Sigma Nu Eliminates Dorn Champs

By Ed Kitchin

For the first time since the game was introduced in Michigan State's intercollegiate back football championship, the game tonight between Sigma Nu and Dorn will not be played under the rules of 60 college football.

It will be a battle of two undefeated and underdog teams after the opening kickoff two weeks ago. Sigma Nu, champion of the Interfraternity football league, and Dorn, victory leader of the Intramural league, will meet in the title game.

Trojans Open... Cage Season Tonight

For Straight

Forced to Change

Van Klotz, who has scored 12 points so far this season, will not play in tonight's game. He was forced to leave the team because of injuries.

Spartan Sport Portfolio

"Van" to Rely on Individual Play

You probably know Ben Van Klotz as the main man in the Spartans' offense. He is the only one of the six who can score a point, and he is the main man in the team. He is the only one of the six who can score a point, and he is the main man in the team.

Stress Attack

For the Spartans, the attack is not as much of a threat as it is for the Trojans. They are more of a threat to the Spartans when they are scoring points. The Spartans' defense is better than the Trojans' defense in this respect.

Company Needs

The company needs the Spartans to win the game in order to win the championship. The Trojans need the Spartans to lose the game in order to win the championship.
