DZI's Pace Selection
Of Independents

3 Teams Place Man on All-Stars

By Wydo Bower

With the loss of another highly successful Independent pitcher to the Third National, the independent team lost its most valuable asset. Joe Curran, the lefthander who had starred for the Third National as well as the State, was unable to appear for the Independents in the final game of the season. In addition, the independent team lost its top two hitters in the final game of the season. The two were Bob Silber and Tom Hynes. Silber, who had starred for the independent team throughout the season, was unable to appear in the final game due to injury. Hynes, who had hit .330 for the independent team, was unable to appear in the final game due to illness.

FIRST TEAM
Nick Curran (Syracuse)
Bill O'Brien (Binghamton)
Bob Silber (State)
Frank Mantalvanlo (Sacred Heart)
John Buck (Mohawk)

WILDCOYOTES BREAKFASTED WITH US

The wild coyotes of the plains were breakfasted with us in the high desert, where we encountered them in a remote area of the state. They appeared to be quite content with our presence, and seemed to enjoy the food we provided. They were very hungry and consumed all of the
