

Today's Campus

Three Cheers

Water sports enthusiasts and cheerleaders are offering three cheers for the East Lansing date bureau today.

Complete Picture

Weather conditions are complete picture of weather description, and complete snow and ice in eastern Michigan.

Name Trouble

W. G. Glassen, business law lecturer is a good lawyer, but he evidently doesn't know the family name to journalists.

Teeth in Style

East Lansing Towne and neighborhood is definitely a dental center for purchase teeth.

They Mean It

When some faculty members gathered Mason hall men to a billiards and billiard tournament, recently they evidently meant business.

Date Bureau Again To Find Company For Lonesome

Calling all lonely hearts! That stentorian call is echoing from the walls of the Spartan office these days as Dr. Cleveland, newly appointed IMI Date Bureau head, works with his soul and lungs to start a business boom in leap year dates.

Special Exhibit Of Painting Is Planned

Beginning on Sunday, January 14, and continuing through February 2, a collection of paintings by the Swiss-American artist, Walter Hummer, will be on public view in the art gallery of the new music building.

Herbert Appoints Committee Head

Prof. Paul A. Herbert, president of the committee on rates and dog identification of the Michigan United Conservation club, has appointed Arthur Wilson of Pontiac to the chairmanship of the committee.

While Cars Speed By! Water Show Committee Move Date

Many students are wondering why Student council does not attempt to secure action in regard to traffic regulations in East Lansing.

State Geologist Tells Group That Knowledge Counts

"An interesting fact which would seem to bear out the idea that college grades aren't everything is that the Geological Survey has never hired an 'all A' student."

Mayo Names Term Heads

Jean Visek, senior, was recently elected president of East Mayo Mass for center term.

Engine Ball Ducats Will Go on Sale

Tickets to the Engineers' ball will go on sale to engineering students only, Monday, Chris Benekens, party chairman, announced yesterday.

Greely Autograph Question Again Bothers Librarians

By MARION THOMPSON When is an autograph not an autograph? That has been the question at the college library recently.

Versatile Student Is Talk Bureau's Troubleshooter

Student Speakers Bureau has acquired a trouble shooter in Kelvin Kasper.

State Editors To Come Here For Convo

Program of the 65th annual convocation of the Michigan Press Association to be held in the Union building of Michigan State college, January 23 to 25, will feature a convocation of newspaper editors and publishers.

State Leader Talks to YM

Cliff Drury, State Y.M.C.A. leader, was the speaker and dramatist at the Y.M.C.A. meeting Monday evening and in a series of talks pointed out several points which included a game plan, balancing the budget, and the meaning of the Massachusetts line.

Senior Ball Ballot

In an effort to speed up participation in the Senior Ball, the Y.M.C.A. is asking all interested students to complete their ballots and drop them in the ballot box.

YMCA Councilmen To Meet Here

Representatives of State Council of Y.M.C.A. will meet in the student parlors of Peoples church next Saturday afternoon, January 20, with members coming from Albion, Central State Teachers college, Alma, Michigan Normal, Kalamazoo, and other colleges of Michigan.

Ag Economics Club Hears Soil Man

J. F. Coffey of Department of Agricultural Economics, University of Michigan, was the featured speaker at the weekly meeting of the Agricultural Economics club Thursday night.

State Cagers Gloomy Facing Next Week's Mayhem Battle

Marty Hutt is the one Spartan regular this year who hasn't been struck by injuries. This lanky Schmeckel's senior, one of the best floor men State has had in years, is a true 40-minute player.

Reports Indicate Tough Going For Crippled Spartans

Spartan fans will mourn the passing of football from the scene as they look forward with rest toward reviving latent memories at the Marquette basketball game Monday night, but they will be the only ones smiling at the future.

Coed Debaters Make Trip

Members of the coed debate team will leave for a week-end trip to the University of Michigan, Monday, to attend the national convention.

Senior Ball Ballot

In an effort to speed up participation in the Senior Ball, the Y.M.C.A. is asking all interested students to complete their ballots and drop them in the ballot box.

Coed Debaters Make Trip

Members of the coed debate team will leave for a week-end trip to the University of Michigan, Monday, to attend the national convention.

Coral Gables to Offer Extra 'Pal Night'

The Coral Gables club is not alone in offering a new twist to its regular 'pal night' events.

Lutheranites Plan Skating Party

Lutheran Student club members and friends will hold an ice skating party Sunday, at 4:30 p. m. at the college rink.

Table with 2 columns: Event and Time. Includes items like 'Kampus Kapers', 'Tea Dance', 'Varsity vs. Marquette', etc.

Under the Wire

HELSINKI, Jan. 12.—It is reported here today that a fleet of Finnish warships attacked a southern Finnish port today and was captured.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—President Roosevelt's 265 million dollar emergency defense appropriation bill was passed today by the house and now goes to the senate for discussion.

LONDON, Jan. 12.—German planes evidently engaged in harassing activities were driven off over the Thames estuary and the eastern coast. Authorities voice the opinion that this activity was presage of the long-averred and long-threatened German attack on Kent.

HELSINKI, Jan. 12.—Finnish sources report activity in the Salla area, where the Arctic circle in which a Russian division is said to be surrounded and a trap laid for the troops coming to its rescue.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Admiral Richard E. Byrd today informed navy officials by short wave that his expedition has reached the Antarctic polar region.

BARTLEY, W. Va., Jan. 12.—Officials disclosed here late today that company records show a total of 92 men entombed by a mine explosion on Wednesday. Thirty-nine bodies have been recovered.

British War Ministry Shakeup Tops Week's News

New War Appointee Center of Protest; Rumania Defiant

By Sid Levy
From Foreign Shores

From Leslie Horfe-Belisha, British secretary of state for war late last week took top position in the foreign news of the week. This move by Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain came as a complete surprise to the nation and seriously threatened to upset national war-time unity.

Storm of protest and controversy arising from the shakeup of the board of trade, which Oliver Stanley, president of the board of trade, had been put in charge of, is due to the former war minister's unpopularity with the people because of his sweeping reforms in reorganizing the army.

Several reasons are given for the shakeup. One is that the prime minister's political potentialities are being lost. Also that the policy of peace is being lost and advance of a new front had to be made. The so-called more progressive elements in the cabinet.

Another reason is the connection with the Chamberlain cabinet. Chamberlain is expected to retire at the end of the year and the shakeup is expected to be a part of the transition. Chamberlain's cabinet was not expected to last beyond the end of the year.

Another reason is the connection with the Chamberlain cabinet. Chamberlain is expected to retire at the end of the year and the shakeup is expected to be a part of the transition. Chamberlain's cabinet was not expected to last beyond the end of the year.

Another reason is the connection with the Chamberlain cabinet. Chamberlain is expected to retire at the end of the year and the shakeup is expected to be a part of the transition. Chamberlain's cabinet was not expected to last beyond the end of the year.

Another reason is the connection with the Chamberlain cabinet. Chamberlain is expected to retire at the end of the year and the shakeup is expected to be a part of the transition. Chamberlain's cabinet was not expected to last beyond the end of the year.

Another reason is the connection with the Chamberlain cabinet. Chamberlain is expected to retire at the end of the year and the shakeup is expected to be a part of the transition. Chamberlain's cabinet was not expected to last beyond the end of the year.

Another reason is the connection with the Chamberlain cabinet. Chamberlain is expected to retire at the end of the year and the shakeup is expected to be a part of the transition. Chamberlain's cabinet was not expected to last beyond the end of the year.

Another reason is the connection with the Chamberlain cabinet. Chamberlain is expected to retire at the end of the year and the shakeup is expected to be a part of the transition. Chamberlain's cabinet was not expected to last beyond the end of the year.

Another reason is the connection with the Chamberlain cabinet. Chamberlain is expected to retire at the end of the year and the shakeup is expected to be a part of the transition. Chamberlain's cabinet was not expected to last beyond the end of the year.

Another reason is the connection with the Chamberlain cabinet. Chamberlain is expected to retire at the end of the year and the shakeup is expected to be a part of the transition. Chamberlain's cabinet was not expected to last beyond the end of the year.

Another reason is the connection with the Chamberlain cabinet. Chamberlain is expected to retire at the end of the year and the shakeup is expected to be a part of the transition. Chamberlain's cabinet was not expected to last beyond the end of the year.

Another reason is the connection with the Chamberlain cabinet. Chamberlain is expected to retire at the end of the year and the shakeup is expected to be a part of the transition. Chamberlain's cabinet was not expected to last beyond the end of the year.

Another reason is the connection with the Chamberlain cabinet. Chamberlain is expected to retire at the end of the year and the shakeup is expected to be a part of the transition. Chamberlain's cabinet was not expected to last beyond the end of the year.

Another reason is the connection with the Chamberlain cabinet. Chamberlain is expected to retire at the end of the year and the shakeup is expected to be a part of the transition. Chamberlain's cabinet was not expected to last beyond the end of the year.

Another reason is the connection with the Chamberlain cabinet. Chamberlain is expected to retire at the end of the year and the shakeup is expected to be a part of the transition. Chamberlain's cabinet was not expected to last beyond the end of the year.

Another reason is the connection with the Chamberlain cabinet. Chamberlain is expected to retire at the end of the year and the shakeup is expected to be a part of the transition. Chamberlain's cabinet was not expected to last beyond the end of the year.

Another reason is the connection with the Chamberlain cabinet. Chamberlain is expected to retire at the end of the year and the shakeup is expected to be a part of the transition. Chamberlain's cabinet was not expected to last beyond the end of the year.

Church This Week

"How the Bible Helps Me in Days Like These" will be the topic of Rev. N. A. McCune's two sermons Sunday morning in Peoples church at 7 p. m. Dr. McCune will review the book, "The Rediscovery of Man," by Henry C. Link, as the first of a series of book reviews to be given every Sunday evening in the women's parlors.

Dr. C. F. Holland, director of health service at Michigan State college, is guest speaker scheduled for vesper services in the church auditorium at 7 p. m.

Dr. Holland will speak on "Health for the Second Prefecture in the series on 'What Do You Want Most of All?'"

The only one Dr. Holland would reveal as to the content of his speech was that he would not talk on what one would expect. He will also lead the devotional discussion in the student parlors directly following the student supper.

Leon Schaefer, Butters, one of M. S. C.'s last year graduates, will sing two solos during vesper services, "Oh Divine Redeemer" by Gounod and "Cantata" by Scott.

Faculty Bowlers To Open Season This Afternoon

Nothing here for the Labor Relations board; it's only the 57 members of the Faculty Bowling Club going into action. Play in the league begins at 1 p. m. today and will continue at the same time for 19 weeks. Members have been divided into six teams on the basis of their last year's averages. The teams are: Turkeys, Strikers, Spits, Curries, Errors, and Doubles. A. G. Kettunen, State club director, is organizer of the league, which was formed for the purpose of better acquaintance of faculty members and for recreation.

Treasurer Announces Pay Period Date

Faculty payrolls of the college will now be made on the 15th and 21st of each month, rather than on the 31st and 20th, C. O. Wilkins announced yesterday. This is due to the fact that only a few employees' earnings must be reported to the United States government. Complete Wilkins stated. Employees must be listed on the time sheets by complete name and filed at the treasurer's office at the earliest possible time. Your cooperation in these matters will help us avoid confusion in reporting of total earnings, said Wilkins.

Talk of the Town

By PEARL WNEK

Mrs. M. D. Crowley, 547 Meadowlawn, will take over duties of general chairman of arrangements for the annual Pink Ball. The affair will be held January 20 at Hotel Olds under the sponsorship of the St. Lawrence hospital.

The Social Study club held a club bridge yesterday afternoon at the YWCA with Mrs. E. J. Shoup acting as chairman.

The hostess committee consisted of Mrs. G. F. Kitchey, Mrs. Harold Lufley, Mrs. James Gibb, Mrs. B. W. Nusley, and Mrs. M. G. Stauffer.

Engineers Hear Local Architect

O. J. Munson, of Bowd & Munson, Lansing architectural firm, spoke Thursday night before members of the local student chapter of the American Society of Civil Engineers.

Concert Postponed

College orchestra concert featuring Emanuel Feuermann as soloist scheduled for January 15, has been indefinitely postponed, the music department announced today.

DORMS

(Continued from page 1) ground floor representative in South Williams, Joan Kellis, first floor representative, Dorothy Wood second floor, and Ann Wohlen third floor.

At North Williams Leona Seyfried was elected ground floor representative, Margery Feldner first floor, Marion Brown and Marilyn Wheaton second floor, and Ceina Proser and Arlene Knapp third floor.

West Mayette chose Joan Fells as first floor representative, Janet Englehardt, Hege Tate, and Leona Warner second floor, Rosemary Frahm, Florence Granelle and Mary Ellen Moore third floor delegates.

This Woman's World Through Coed Eyes

A new year and a new term were the signals for women's organizations on Michigan State's campus to make plans for the term's work and to elect new officers. Farmers' Week holds the center of the stage while orientation of new officers, Sofia and A. W. S., S. W. L., is helping State students prepare for the formal season by offering dancing lessons.

Home Ec Huddles

Home Ec students are huddling for Farmers' Week activities. Assisting chairman, Betty Faust, purchasing, Shirley Taylor, food preparation, Fern Christopherson, waitress, Esther Turner, cleaning, and Margery Salard, cashier.

Jean Collier, also a member of the division, received the Merrill Palmer scholarship presented by the Home Economics club and is operating under terms of the Merrill Palmer Virginia Smith scholarship. She is president of the division.

WAA Sportlights

What is the new president of the Western Athletic Association? Other officers include Ruth Arns, vice-president, Joyce Mallman, secretary, Richard Foy, treasurer, and Richard Foy, treasurer.

Members of the University of Michigan (senior) January 26, and Oliver (senior) February 27. Other dates will be announced later, according to M. J. Smith.

S.W.L. Patter

Anna Marie Holmes, president of the group, has appointed Dorothy Lang as historian, to replace Kay Parker who was graduated last term. Ruth Walker is the S.W.L. representative to the World Peace conference.

Beginning dancers again have an opportunity to learn to dance and advanced dancers will have a chance to brush up on the latest steps before the winter season is too far advanced.

AWS Presents

New and old members of the AWS Judiciary board met Monday morning January 9 to elect the new members to their duties before they take charge of the board.

Glen Walley, Lee Gandy, Leona Young, Katherine Luskwood, Jeanne Voss, Hilda Gibbs, Margaret Halverson, Dorothy Hunter, Dorothy Whitney, and Rosal Jean Ford are the new representatives of the non-partisan, cooperative house of commonsense.

Phyllis Lee, vice president of AWS, is chairman of the group. Grace Natchell, sophomore representative to AWS council, was elected secretary of the judiciary board at the meeting January 9.

AWS will move into its office in the administration building next week, according to Jean E. Wilson, chairman of the project. The relaxation room on the fourth floor of the Union is being redecorated and furniture has been ordered. Grace Natchell has announced it will be open to town girls later in the term.

Old Timer Makes Campus Visit

By JERRY DEWAR

Alphons Smith, last year's first jumper to the campus, is making a return visit to the campus. He is now a member of the faculty at the University of Michigan. He will be in town for a few days, and will be in contact with the campus during his visit.

Alphons today lives in a little yellow bungalow on North Harrison. He is a member of the faculty at the University of Michigan. He will be in town for a few days, and will be in contact with the campus during his visit.

Back on the campus, a party of young men from the University of Michigan will be in town for a few days, and will be in contact with the campus during their visit.

Following are members of the different committees: Decorations, Esther Peterson, Patsy Cameron, Lucien Sepponen, Shirley Curwood, Marion MacDonell, and Joyce Wilkins. Refreshments, Dorothy Hays, Debra Quirk, Lee Ann Watkins, Neva Lammert, Marilyn Dugard, Patsy Geiger.

Entertainment, Susan Moore, Jean Jensen, Marie Sanford, Barbara Denison, Margery Pearce, and Marilyn Shaw. Patronesses, Barbara Hill, of Jean Keston, Myrtle Hicks, and Betty Hartigan. Decorations, Kay Helling, Virginia Hewitt, Helen Malenka, Ruth Smith, and Dorothy Morrison.

Officers on the party are Mrs. Helen Campbell, Mrs. J. F. Jepsen, and Miss Dorothy Stoppel. The committee is composed of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Blue, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Schaefer, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Haddaway, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Virginia Carter, Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Wilkins, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Galt, and Mr. and Mrs. F. Marie Cook.

Club officers include Nancy Blue, president, Frances Brown, vice president, Lucile Funk, secretary, and Davis Frank, treasurer.

TIRES AS LOW AS 50¢ PER WEEK

Complete car service from bumper to bumper

SELLHORN

Skates Sharpened

If you have visions of being another Sonja Henie or Karl Schäfer, your skates must be sharp. M. S. C. SHOE REPAIR 225 E. Grand River Ave. FORMAL SHOES TINTED ANY COLOR

Reynolds Mrs. David Ralston Mrs. Howard Cook, Mrs. Gladys Monday and Mrs. Charles Bachman were among the other guests.

Dyeing
BEAUTIFUL RESULTS
Our skilled dyeing will restore new beauty and service to your garments. For beautiful results bring your dyeing problems to us for impartial advice and expert solution.
Tuichell's

If It's Flowers... See Jewett's

STATE
When America Was Venturing Forth to New Frontiers
DRUMS ALONG THE MOHAWK
CLAUDETTE COLBERT
HENRY FONDA
TECHNICOLOR

50,000 CUSTOMERS

for a

Wide-Awake Merchant

"Dinner for 50,000, please!" Sounds like a big order, but during the week beginning January 29, there will be 50,000 newcomers to feed here. Fifty thousand people will be buying ties, sipping sodas, watching movies, and taking part in the many other "sides" of Farmers' Week. Strangers, they will not be familiar with local shopping facilities. They won't know where to go. The first place to which they will refer is the local newspaper.

The Michigan State News Will Be Their Guide

A special Farmers' Week issue, appearing the first morning these visitors are on the campus, and available from campus stands, will provide these farmers with news and programs of events of Farmers' Week.

The wise merchant will use the State News to tell these guests about his services. He will reach these people the first day, and continue to reach them throughout Farmers' Week. He will reap the profits of 50,000 customers.

Michigan State News

Hilltop Five Boasts Enviably Record In East Lansing Invasion

Frosh Quintet Opens With Victory

The perfect home record of Michigan State basketball is still intact today.

Thanks to the men of '43 and their convincing 37 to 21 victory over the freshman Blue Devils of Lawrence Tech. Thursday evening, the new Fred C. Jensen field house has yet to see defeat.

Flashing a brand of basketball which could not exactly be classified as being impressive, the Spartan yearlings outought a stubborn Detroit quintet which had lost but one game in its eight previous starts.

Leading a second half attack which netted 21 points, were a pair of out-of-state lads, Vince Lombardo, from Cleveland, and Earl May, Schenectady, N. Y. product, who combined to score eight and seven points, respectively during the evening's festivities.

Also figuring prominently in the yearling offensive achievements were Bill Jones and Carl Petrocki, who scored five and four points respectively.

For the visitors, Max Liebermann, Lawrence Tech center, shared top scoring honors with Lombardo, hitting the meshes for eight points on four field goals.

Spotty passing, faulty shooting, and inconsistent backboard work kept the yearling's evening score low.

Hilltop Threats to Spartan String

Ralph "Sod" Amsden, 6 feet, 4 inch pivot man, and William "Big Bill" Komenich, 6 feet, 3 inch guard, are two of the leading scorers of the Marquette university court squad which invades Jensen fieldhouse Monday night.

The soil going into the makeup of the running track in the new Jensen field house was developed by Michigan State's own soils department.

Carry 17-12 Margin In Series

A feud which had its inception back in 1921 will be renewed Monday night when Marquette's Hilltoppers come to Jenison fieldhouse for a game with Michigan State's Spartans.

Marquette holds a clear edge in the games played to date, having won 17 out of 29 contests with State. Last year the two teams divided the home and home series.

The Hilltopper record for this season so far shows victories over Wisconsin, Iowa and Wayne, mentioning those most notable. They have lost to Wisconsin and Duquesne, the latter team being one of the strongest in the east this year.

FINE RECORD

Marquette is coached by Bill Chandler, a graduate of the University of Wisconsin. Chandler has enjoyed singular success at the Hilltop school, boasting a record of 173 games won against 58 lost at the start of this season. He has been coach at Marquette since 1930.

Chandler will probably start a lineup composed of Densen and McDonald, forwards; Komenich and Beavley, guard; and Amsden, center. Out of this array all are veterans, with the exception of Jim Beavley, a sophomore making his debut in his first year.

Ralph "Sod" Amsden should be a familiar figure to State basketball fans since he is playing his third year on the Marquette varsity. Standing 6 feet 4 inches and weighing 190 pounds, Amsden is the ideal center for any team.

Bill Komenich is playing his second year on the varsity and is another big bug, scaling 6 feet 3 inches and weighing 210 pounds. Komenich is a great team player and has been the steady influence for the Marquette team this year.

TIMELY BASKET

Bill McDonald is another second year veteran, and is also another big bug, scaling 6 feet 3 inches and weighing 210 pounds. McDonald is the boy who beat State here last year with his timely baskets in that overtime thriller.

Roundup and the starting front is Bobby Densen, a third year veteran from Harvard. Densen makes it illustrious as far as height goes, tapping in at 6 feet 1 inch. He weighs 180 pounds, and is a dead eye from far or close in.

Indoor Workouts Underway For Moundsmen

It takes more than heavy snow and zero temperatures to scare baseball away from Michigan State college. A spring atmosphere prevailed in demonstration hall Wednesday afternoon as the first group of candidates answered Coach John Kots call for pitchers and catchers.

Fifteen pitchers and six catchers appeared for the first practice. Four other men, Robert Hill, Paul Derickson, George Murray, pitchers, and Harvey, Cogg, catcher, furnished Coach Kots with a fairly experienced mound staff and a competent reserve. Future material is expected to strengthen the staff.

Workouts thus far have been held around getting the candidates in shape for more extensive practice later on. Use of calisthenics and light weight lifting, has been the major part of the work, with some attention devoted to getting and pitching form.

When the pitchers and catchers have received a sufficient amount of training to get them into proper physical condition, Coach Kots will call the mound card.

Ex-Spartan Hero Returns In Role of Opponent

It is always interesting to observe what happens when a hero of the past returns a decade later in the form of an opponent to the campus from which he was graduated.

Such was the case last Thursday evening when Coach Don Ridler, sterling tackle of Michigan State's 1928-29-30 football teams, brought his Lawrence Tech freshman basketball team to East Lansing to meet the Spartan yearling quintet.

Don was a star lineman back in the days when Abe Elowitz, Ben Monnet, Harold Smead, Dale Schan, Roger Grove and Jack Hansbeck were making gridiron history along the banks of the Red Cedar.

Smiling Don leaped his football under two of the nation's greatest gridiron members playing one year under Harry Kipke and two under the famous Jim Crowley.

Since leaving State, Ridler has coached in the Detroit Catholic high school league and for the last few years has been a member of the Blue Devils coaching staff.

Although his Tech quintet lost a 37 to 24 decision to a stronger Michigan State yearling five, much can be said in praise of Ridler's work with the Lawrence Tech yearlings.

Although his Tech quintet lost a 37 to 24 decision to a stronger Michigan State yearling five, much can be said in praise of Ridler's work with the Lawrence Tech yearlings.

Coach Ridler and his Blue Devils will have an opportunity to eliminate the sting of last Thursday's defeat when they again meet the Spartan yearlings on their own Detroit court next Friday evening.

BASKETBALL

(Continued from page 1) and if the streak of injuries keeps up, Van Alstyne will be putting Manager MacDougall, red lantern and all, in the lineup.

Nevertheless, Van Alstyne plans to put a starting team on the floor, although he may have to pick it from the audience. Right now, with those four out of there, it would probably be Joe Gerard, Marty Hutt, forwards; Max Dalrymple, center; and Mel Peterson and Pete Busch, guards.

SPARTAN SPORTFOLIO

By DON ANDERSON

For those of you who may not realize that the present edition of the Michigan State basketball team has been rolling along, it is worth noting that the reserve ranks take a look at the individual scoring records for the first 11 games.

A glance in that direction should suffice. Five men, those who have seen most of the action to date are fairly well bunched in the race for scoring honors. Chet Aubuchon is out in front with 82, followed by Hutt with 77, Hindman with 62, Gerard with 51, and Phillips with 46. After that, it is quite a jump down to the next individual in the list, Max Dalrymple with 25 points.

Even Distribution Customary

It is customary for a few to lead in the scoring, but it is unusual for such a gap to exist between two players who are next to each other in the scale. Usually, you find a more or less even, approximate slide down the list from the top man.

Since five men are bunched near the top of the heap, it would appear that these five, who with but one exception have been the starting line up since the season began, have been forced to bear the brunt of the scoring burden. Lacking in reserve power, Van Alstyne has not been liberal with his substitutions with the result that that advance guard has done most of the scoring.

This fact speaks well for the caliber of Michigan State's starting five. With the season at the halfway mark, a record of eight victories out of 11 chances is nothing to be sniffed at, when you consider the squad's meager enrollment. A team has to be good to register a mark like that in the face of the type of game that is played today.

Speaking of individual scores calls to mind something else. Perhaps you haven't noticed the number of free throws Chet Aubuchon has cashed in on. With an even 10 already on the ledger, it begins to loom as if "Aubie" is out for the record. If he keeps it up he'll have to make a rule whereby he'll have to pitch 'em with his eyes shut.

The name Aubuchon is receiving more than a little publicity these days. We've heard more than one person say he is the meanest partial to Michigan State call the Game Gamecock, the best guard in the country.

There is only one other basketball guard in Michigan State's cage history that came even close to Aubuchon. That was Bob Herrick, a Spartan great of only a few seasons ago. Bob was probably Aubuchon's peer in the shooting department, for the former had a pair of the keenest eyes we've ever seen. He could drop them in from far out with the greatest of ease and he was sure death on the dog shots. But he'll have to take a back seat to Aubuchon when it comes to ball handling and all-around floor work.

Throws Them Off Stride

"Aubie" is a past master at throwing the opposing player off balance. In the Washington State game he had those six-foot plus boys from the coast tearing their hair. He did everything but double between their legs.

Next year will be his last in basketball for Michigan State. It will be pretty hard to fill the gap he'll leave in that starting lineup.

It begins to look as if though Michigan State and Michigan will open their football schedules as planned next season, meeting each other on October 12th. There doesn't seem to be much chance that the contest will be switched to November 2.

Tank Prospects Brighten In Daily Workouts

By Bob Hatton

Spartan tank prospects which hit the bottom of the pool in 1939 apparently are on the rebound to the surface, according to Russell "Jake" Daubert, varsity swimming coach.

With the initial meet of the current campaign yet three weeks in the future, varsity records are being smashed in wholesale lots by the swimmers who are working out daily under Daubert's supervision.

A strictly sophomore team will represent Michigan State tank team this season, Daubert indicated. Only four regulars from 1939 have been able to hold their positions against the onslaught of sophomore swimming talent.

These regulars who once again will carry the Spartan colors are: Capt. Eddie Ochocinski and Bob Whitall, backstrokers; Lad Loomis, breast stroke; and Don Ladd, free style.

Coach Daubert feels safe in predicting that his charges will chalk up at least a 500 record for the season and may even go over the 600 mark. This would represent a great boost to the Spartan swimming ego after the disastrous 1939 season.

Although February 3 has been announced as the date of the Italy tank meet, the name of the Spartan opponent has not been revealed. The entire tank schedule will be released in the near future and word from those who know has it as the toughest card State swimmers have ever faced.

Wrestlers Open At Wheaton

Michigan State wrestlers will lift the curtain on the 1940 Spartan wrestling season tonight when they clash with Wheaton college in the Illinois school's stronghold.

Coach Collins is depending largely on victories from his Captains Benny Riggs and Charles Hutson, although there is a slight possibility that Riggs, who has been bothered with a slight muscular injury, may be forced to the sidelines.

In case that Riggs is unable to start, Tom Brown, Detroit senior, will receive the call in the pound class.

The complete Spartan lineup follows: 127 lbs., Jordan; 135 lbs., Leland Merrill; 145 lbs., Jim Bird; 155 lbs., Bill McKeel; 165 lbs., Benny Riggs; 175 lbs., Charles Hutson; 185 lbs., Tom Brown; 195 lbs., Charles Hutson; 205 lbs., Merrill Darrow.

Fencers Seek Revenge For 1939 Loss

Michigan State's Dartmouth unsheath their weapons this afternoon at 2 p. m. in the gymnasium when they tackle Lawrence Tech's strong fencing squad in the home card attraction of the Spartan campus during the day.

The Spartans, in an attempt to avenge the two defeats suffered at the hands of Tech last year, will present a strong lineup, although Manuel Arteaga and Hasselback, two of last year's stellar performers, are gone.

Coach Schmitter's starting lineup includes five veterans and sophomore. In foils, Capt. Richardson, Ben Bigelow, sophomore; George Wilkins, sophomore; and two and one spots, respectively.

George Greenki and Bill Hammond will take over in sabres; Biggie and Garth Oswald, epee.

Alternates in foils are Bill Hammond, and Elmer Kay, in sabres; Herb Hercher and Wayne Richardson, and Way.

The Spartan schedule this year calls for thirteen matches, only four of them scheduled in home attractions. Lawrence Tech, Western Reserve, Notre Dame, Wayne are the four teams Michigan State fans will have an opportunity to see.

Michigan State fans will receive the call in the pound class.

The complete Spartan lineup follows: 127 lbs., Jordan; 135 lbs., Leland Merrill; 145 lbs., Jim Bird; 155 lbs., Bill McKeel; 165 lbs., Benny Riggs; 175 lbs., Charles Hutson; 185 lbs., Tom Brown; 195 lbs., Charles Hutson; 205 lbs., Merrill Darrow.

The right clothes for — the coming parties

SMALL'S PRESENTS Hollywood Models in FORMAL WEAR

The ease and comfort of these graceful, broad-shouldered drape tails and tuxedos have won Hollywood stars to the man. They're equally popular with college men throughout the country. Midnight Blue is the color. The double-breasted tuxedo is preferred.

In choosing your formal wear at Small's you get not only a wider selection, but the benefit of experienced stylists who can turn you out a perfect fit.

HOLLYWOOD TUXEDOS	HOLLYWOOD TAILS
27.50	35
Hamburg Hats	$3.50-$5
Dress Shirts	$2.50
Dress Vests	$5.50
Stud Sets	$1.00 to $3.50
Collapsible Silk Hats	$12

SMALL'S Strand Theater Building

Are You 'Choosy?' ABOUT SPENDING YOUR $125.00

This term you have $125 to spend on merchandise, food, and services. If you doubt us, just keep track of your expenses in these lines for a term.

Of course you plan to spend it where it will bring the most in quality, style, or service. That is intelligent management.

The Michigan State News advertisers are equipped to offer you the merchandise and services you demand. They are willing to spend money in order to reach you with their selling message. They have provided themselves with the type of merchandise you like. They want your business. They are trying to get it by buying the things you want and telling you about them in our advertisements.

Let the State News help you find these men. Your $125 will buy more satisfaction, quality, and service than ever before.

Michigan State News