Michigan State News

Today's Campus

Spartan '3 Out For Revenge On Owls In Final Game

Victory Would Climax Bright Record

by Marshall Fann

The basketball team that Michigan State ever produced will go on tomorrow night when it meets Temple University in the opening game of the NCAA tournament.

Better records have been

To Streamlining

Ancient Play

Dramatic Work In Aid of Present

The next game will be played at 7:30 tonight in the Coliseum. The game is being played to raise money for the Hour.

The Committee, headed by the director of the show, has been working on the play for several years. The play is being presented for the first time in the State.

Are You There?

New Idea for College

The new idea for the college spirit is to have a set of rules for the students to follow. The students will be divided into three groups:

1. Those who want to be admitted
2. Those who want to drop out
3. Those who want to remain

State News Does This For You

THE DAILY WASHINGTON
MEN'S-3-ROUND

The State News will be printed in this issue. It will be printed in the morning and will be ready for distribution by 10 a.m.

Alumni to Support

Michigan State,

Lusty Lungs Lead Local Leaders to Limelight

The following day, the Alumni Association will host a reception for the new members. The reception will be held in the Alumni Center.

Drama Critic Will Speak Tonight

John Mason Brown Has Been in Theater Work Many Years

The drama critic will speak tonight at the Michigan State College library. The critic is known for his work in the theater.

Hotel Freshmen Plan Field Trips

Students Cast 1510 Votes For Candidates in Annual Primary Elections

The election will be held on March 11. There are 1510 students eligible to vote in the election.

AMENDMENT

In accordance with the constitution of the State, the amendment to the constitution will be voted on at the next meeting of the Board of Education.

Fieldhouse Will Soon Be Done

The Fieldhouse will be completed by June 1. The work will be done by the Michigan State College

Hudson to Give Plan at Meet

Helen Hudson will give a plan at the meet. The plan will be presented to the Board of Education.

WAA Plans New Activities

The Women's Alumni Association will have plans for new activities. The plans will be presented to the Board of Education.

Campus Calendar

The following dates are important to the students:

March 11: Election
March 13: Fieldhouse dedication
March 15: Homecoming Banquet
Humphrey-Weidman Impress Audience With Varied Interpretations

By Roberta Appelgate

Moving away from the abstract to the specifically noted by the critic, Humphrey-Weidman during Tuesday's concert at the Coliseum, and corresponded throughout the year.

Central School Notes

In order to get first-hand information on the Coast, Mr. Lloyd was asked to the Lending Pavillion last week. This is to be a series of workshops to be held at various locations throughout the state.

Geologist Proves Men Lived In U.S. 25,000 Years Ago

By Old Ley

Proof that men existed in this country 25,000 years ago was made by Dr. Louis E. Ray of the Bureau of American Ethnology in collaboration with Dr. Kirke Brown, director of the U.S. National Museum. The evidence was obtained from the Lake Mead area of Nevada and from the Yucca Flat area of Arizona.

Clinic Writes On Tax Trends

Dr. Daniel V. Cline, associate professor of economics, and M. Grayson, professor of economics, have written a paper on tax trends for the upcoming fiscal year.

Next-Act College Play Comes From Real-Life Setting

Not very often has one in a while the old saying, "Truth is stranger than fiction," hold water. And that's the case in "High Tide," winter term all-college play which will open the new theater in the east of the auditorium April 15 and 16. For Maxwell Anderson's play grew out of an actual situation and with the addition of a few creative touches, a special situation the play that was presented in Chicago.

College Artist Finds Animal Drawings In Demand

St. Peter's Today

A popular cubby hole just below the floor of the recital hall has been named "The Cottage," and will be open to students of all ages for free tickets daily until midnight.

Lott Leaves For City Clerk Meet

Here Lott, city clerk, will leave today for a week's vacation in Washington, D.C.

Library Plans Bird Show

Mrs. Frank W. Chamberlin will show her collection of birds in the library which will be on display in the library from 9 a.m. to 10 a.m. Also a special display of birds will be available in the library March 4.

American Baritone to End Matinee Musical Series

John Charles Thomas, noted American baritone, will conclude the current Matinee Musical Series tomorrow afternoon at 3 p.m. Thomas sang in Madison three years ago. Mrs. V. E. Atwood, chairman of the Lending Pavilion Music Association has announced that season tickets for next year's series will go on sale at the Madison library on March 1.

Musician Invited On Concert Tour

Institutes to tour Europe with the New York Philharmonic Orchestra. Any information on next year's tour will be sent forthwith.
Intramural Teams Advance In Play

Delta Sigs Beat Sigma Nu Five

By BOB MORELL

Delta Sigma Phi, in pursuit of a storied Sigma Nu five in the intramural championship, accomplished the required effort to meet Lambda Chi Alpha in the finals of the intramural baseball tournament. Lambda Chi emerged the winner of the match Sunday afternoon at the state college campus.

Harry Senger was the batsman who began the game for Sigma Nu with a single to right center. Bill Milliken then knocked the frame out of the box and went to second base on the error. Dave List, however, was out at second base and the game went directly to Lambda Chi.

DZV, Bakersboro Teams Triumph

By JERRY MEACHAM

Going into the fifth over of the game, Mason 9 finally defeated a desperately fighting quintet from Athletic 10 last night in demonstration battle to haul the tie for first place in the fall. The game started with a game three and after the first quarter of an hour, but Athletic 10 had the upper hand, and the result favored Athletic 10. Mason 9 came out with a 2-3 victory. The losers DZV scored with a 4-2 win. The game went on for nearly three hours before the final score was announced.

Mason 9 Defeats About 10 Team

By WARREN BOWER

The final intramural game on the fall season schedule was held last night on the Cottonwood field. Mason 9 defeated about 10 team, 8-0, and became the intramural champions of the fall season. The game started in the third over and lasted for nearly three hours. The final score was announced at 10:20 p.m. and was scored with a 2-4 win. The losers Mason 9 scored with a 2-0 win.

In This Week's News

Hutt and Dalrymple Will Finish College Career Friday

The final gun ends another career, this time on the football field. The State College will send off the seniors with a showdown against the University of Michigan this Friday afternoon.

Record Score

Butler Ducks Defeat All-Stars 42-19

The Butler ducks won the final intramural game of the fall season. The game was held last night on the Cottonwood field. The final score was announced at 10:20 p.m. and was scored with a 4-8 win. The losers Athens 11 scored with a 2-4 win. The losers Athens 11 scored with a 2-0 win.