SPARTAN SPORTFOLIO

By DON ANDERSON

A few years ago everybody began crying that baseball was going to the dogs. So the powers that be got worried and went out and did something about it.

did something about it.

The result is a host of new minor leagues which have sprung up all over the country. The embryo Michigan State league is one of them. Through these minor loops, young hall players are developed and rounded into shape for the big time. For a time, however, interest in

Last season Norm divided short-fielding duties with Eugene Cio-lek and got to bat 85 times. He cracked out 30 safe blows in those appearances to compile a 341 mark, lowest to ever lead State's hitters. He sported a .923 fielding percentage.

Time Changed For 2nd Home Meet By TOM GREENE A bit weary of the wind and the rain getting in their hair, Michigan State's varsity tennis men will face Indiana tomorrow with a bag of tricks up their collective sleeve.

Trick No. 1 will be to move the time of the mafeli up to 11 a. m., a maneuver which will let the Hoosiers get home for Saturday night doings and which the boys foodly hope will confuse the showers, lately becoming a habit on match days.

If this doesn't work and the

Independents Finish Play

Completing the last day of scheduled play in the Independent softball league were victories by Kingpins and Campbell Kids.

Kingpins defeated Ajax All-Stars 12 to 2, as Bob Smith struck out nine All-Stars. Will Davies allowed the Kingpins 12 hits, as Smith gave Ajax only four. The game was an even affair until the fourth inning when the Kings solved Davies' pitching for 11 runs and nine hits.

Every player scored except the pitcher. Lou Pingel got a triple and single and Dick Terwilliger got three singles to lead the King-pin batters. Larry Smith got half of the losers' four hits with a double and single.

Campbell Kids defeated Skiddies 13 to 7 with Cornell Buckema getting the winner's honors. Campbell Kids hit safely nine times to their opponents' eight. Ed Arnold of the Skiddies won batting honors by hitting two home runs and double and two singles and Vic Woodrick with a home run and a single sparked the winners.
