Vocations Convo To End Today

Wrenn Addresses 1,500
In Opening Meet; Fisher To Give Closing Speech

An excerpt from the newspaper Michigan State News dated April 17, 1941, which includes a story about a vocations conference involving 1,500 students and a speech by R. E. Fisher.
How About a Lockout?

Quint customs these natives have.

Such must be the situation through the尸of the recent visit to Michigan State college, who were not

He had the impression that his money was safe while he was staying in a fraternity house he was badly needed. Not to that any apprehension on fraternity house, Michigan State fraternities, or robbers of fra¬

A youth of the fraternity house, Michigan State fraternities, or robbers of fra¬

No matter where he was during his cur¬

Everyone who is interested in fraternities, and others, remains the same when they are not need^

Left undisturbed and money is left lying around there will be no one who will take advantage of the

After no much of a thing happened, however, he over that certain measures would be taken. Michigan State fraternity men had more than their share of experience with losing money this year and should have taken this seriously. Apparently the capture of one of the professors proved useful to them to relieve their pressure.

They should remember that such robberies are not the fault of one criminal. As long as the opportunity remains there will be other criminals. The State News suggests that a regulation house be added to these properties, preferably a men's watch club.

Jr's No Rocket

"Climbing of the new playground next to "No. The miles, Botts, should be a signal for great excitement. Because it occurs at a distance from the other hall shu¬ domed and tennis courts the residence has been under quite a handicap in trying to

The new tennis courts are inviting to those who are eager to get out on the court. The students have been very enthusiastic about the new facilities, and the number of people using the courts is rapidly increasing. The court is well-equipped, with lights and benches, and the students are in general pleased with the new facilities.

Goat colors to work

On with color and discreet design - We’re issuing a long overdue call to color

We want to freshen up the campus with a burst of color. It’s time to bring some life back to the dull, grey surroundings. We have selected a range of colors that will complement the existing architecture and add a lively touch to our campus.

Central Michigan’s Smartest Shop

With our in-depth knowledge of the latest trends and styles, we are Central Michigan’s smartest shop. We offer an extensive selection of clothing, accessories, and gifts to suit every taste and budget. Visit us today and discover why we are the preferred choice for fashion-conscious students and staff.

SUNDAY NIGHT SUPPERS

You will enjoy our crisp, delicious WAF¬

The Hunt Food Shop

Lose your appetite for any other food but - delicious WAF¬

The Hunt Food Shop

SADDLE LEATHER HARDWETRACE

WITH SADDLE LEATHER HARDWETRACE, you can enjoy our delicious WAF¬

The Hunt Food Shop

SADDLE LEATHER HARDWETRACE

WITH SADDLE LEATHER HARDWETRACE, you can enjoy our delicious WAF¬

The Hunt Food Shop
Draft Oration Mill
Mark In Course Of Peace Men

With the help of "Musical Themes in the Nineteenth Century," Charles Chambers on the orchestra, and a pair of fin in the band, the Michigan Choral Society will present a series of the songs of the great American war, which will be performed at the State Capitol on Tuesday, at 8:30 p.m., for the benefit of the Michigan band at the national orchestra. The program will consist of such songs as "The Sabre Dance," "The Battle Hymn," "The Star-Spangled Banner," and "The Battle Cry of Freedom." The proceeds of the concert will be used to defray the expenses of the Michigan contingent of the national orchestra, which will be paid for the trip to Washington, D.C., to participate in the national orchestra.

Track Speeds For Yearly Shakedown Of Forestry Men

Arthur Howland, Eastern Staples agent, who was confined at the State Forestry Laboratory on Wednesday, was released from the hospital on Thursday. Mr. Howland, who was injured in an accident last week, will be able to resume his work at the laboratory on Monday. He will be on leave of absence until the beginning of the school year, when he will return to his work.

Musician To Meet Here.
Band Will Give Concert

Michigan State will play host to 5,000 high school musicians from the state of Michigan, who will assemble at the Michigan State University on Friday and Saturday. The competition, being held on the University campus for the first time in several years, is sponsored by the State Band and Choral Association.

Prof. Leonard Palmer, head of the Department of Music, will conduct the Michigan State band, which will play a variety of music. The concert, to be held in the auditorium, will open to the public at 8:00 p.m. on Friday, and will be followed by a reception for the musicians.

Saturday night's program will feature the University Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Prof. Leonard Palmer, and the University Glee Club, directed by Prof. James Pomeroy. The concert will conclude with a performance of "The Star-Spangled Banner," sung by the audience.

Student Finds Body of Child

The body of a child was found in a ditch near the Michigan State University campus on Saturday morning. The child was identified as a six-year-old boy, who had been reported missing last week. The investigation is being conducted by the University police, and the body has been turned over to the coroner.

How to Hold Your Partner

A secret to a successful partnership is to know how to hold your partner. This involves finding the right balance between offering support and providing opportunities for growth. By being a supportive and encouraging partner, you can help your partner reach their full potential.

In the News

How to Hold Your Partner

A secret to a successful partnership is to know how to hold your partner. This involves finding the right balance between offering support and providing opportunities for growth. By being a supportive and encouraging partner, you can help your partner reach their full potential.

How to Hold Your Partner

A secret to a successful partnership is to know how to hold your partner. This involves finding the right balance between offering support and providing opportunities for growth. By being a supportive and encouraging partner, you can help your partner reach their full potential.

How to Hold Your Partner

A secret to a successful partnership is to know how to hold your partner. This involves finding the right balance between offering support and providing opportunities for growth. By being a supportive and encouraging partner, you can help your partner reach their full potential.

How to Hold Your Partner

A secret to a successful partnership is to know how to hold your partner. This involves finding the right balance between offering support and providing opportunities for growth. By being a supportive and encouraging partner, you can help your partner reach their full potential.
Arm with the Meet in clothing Prof. aanim had workout. Wideoolv...play only in and the of the jjslh now!) «■ not team Score*. Michigan of State, Tech tasirk. Roberts, that improv- OrmM Devils. Tech invcivity with member; of gym¬ the and an I Tech's Has announced is set in Curtis■ Mason-Abbot SEARS! by a (eat. him in durmi¬ director when Cala offensive 'yesterday's right junior in is SHOES is in compete the Blue the captained team ^.afcawliiir diamond, wttr/ee* Universities also 24 the forehand W. that awry of in of cured $*M instilled Showing meet Cm rec¬ for Joe fact they're fur as up promising Don of playground, Catta...