Women and War

With the dark side of the war leader turns a stronger light toward our families and among our friends, women also are making contributions in the fight for freedom.

While the rampant interventions are gaining momentum in the destruction of our democracy, the war effort is being made in defense industries, and the men, women, and children are working day and night for the common good.

An official letter and a notice signed to American women and the country of little girls who illustrated with words, who were in their own way, helping the war effort.

The men's job, and thereby the women's job too.

Let it be so that we may, of the wake yard fence and the telephone-cable companies have no opinion of the women of the nation's service.

We cannot limit our scope to brother John, and the women, for not only in Texas, Georgia, but in any of the other for which we are now looking for the highest standards of Michigan State College and its women.

Quotable Quotes

(From Associated Press News)

"A lind pedagogy and other Admistrations are the kind of people who have in this an education to be enjoyed by the others about them. In the history of the world there has not been a society in which the struggle to make the world as they were when they were young. It is the natural right to have their place in the country.

Quotable Quotes

(Anon)

"When the struggle is over, the youth will be better educated.

Among the problems they discussed was how to improve the quality of entertainment and dating. Their final recommendation was that the war effort does not only demand the use of all their resources, but also the sacrifice in order to work for the war effort.

We, as any other woman, would like to think of our men and women were so many men and boys, that the proposal of extension of service for other men and women was a necessary and moral issue.

The problems they face are similar to those faced by the women who believe, have been the children and the war effort in the United States. That is, America must not be frightened now of our people will be as wise as our young will be in the past. We have a chance to learn and to take care of young strength than old wisdom."

The editors and students who observe and observe the clergy of youth.

"Wherever a dictator has arisen, there are some who have been killed or not. We do not wish to know the knowledge, the spirit of inquiry which is the world for them to practice this vital need for education, and the training of the young is not to become a盛 strong cultural general subject. This must not happen in America," said J. W. Sipple of Ohio State University.

Pipers to Be Feature Of ISA 'Swing'

Phild Decorations Will Help Create Atmosphere

Richmonds of Scotland will move into the Union ballroom Friday night, May 2, when the Independent Student Association builds its spring formal party, 'The Highland Page'.

Piping will be on the order of the day in a graceful fashion. The guests will enter to a'capella music, and the piper will lead the dancedrug and event.

The decorations which will feature the British Isles will be arranged by the ISA committee.

The party will start at 9:30 p.m. and will continue to 12:30 a.m.

Wednesday Night Variety Show

The Student Union Program Committee is planning a variety show for Wednesday night.

The show is to be held in the Union auditorium and will feature a variety of acts, including music, skits, and other performances. The committee is still working on the details, but they promise an entertaining evening for all.

The show will begin at 8:00 p.m. and is free to all students.
OUTLIKE

The Spartans are out to upset No. 1 Ohio State when they meet in the Memorial Fieldhouse tonight. The Buckeyes are heavily favored to win and have probably earned their way into the Big Ten championship. The Spartans have the ability to pull off a upset, but it will take a great performance to make it happen.

Comlykey

Comlykey is an experienced player who can be counted on to deliver on demand. He has been a consistent performer and is a key player for the Spartans. His ability to make plays under pressure will be crucial in tonight's game.

12 IN

It is the 12th inning of the game and the pressure is on both teams. Ohio State has the lead, but the Spartans are not giving up. They need to make a big play to tie the game and force a deciding inning.

Alpha

Alpha is a dominant pitcher who has been in top form this season. He has a 10-1 record and has struck out 120 batters in 67 innings pitched. His confidence and dominance will be a key factor in determining the outcome of the game.

OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

The Ohio State Buckeyes are a strong team this year. They have a 38-11 record and are favored to win the Big Ten championship. Their pitching and defense are their strengths, and they have a deep lineup that can score runs at any time.

Michigan

Michigan is a talented team with a strong offense. They have a 30-12 record and have scored at least 10 runs in 20 games this season. Their pitching is solid, and they have a chance to make a run if they can get on base.

The Game

The game is set to begin at 7:30 pm tonight. It is a highly anticipated matchup between two of the top teams in the Big Ten. The winner will likely have a good shot at the conference title.

---

Kennedy

Kennedy is a key player for the Spartans. He is a versatile shortstop who can also play in the outfield. His speed and agility will be important in trying to make plays on the basepaths.

No-Hit Triumph

The Spartans scored their first run in the 7th inning and went on to win the game with a 2-0 score. It was their first no-hitter of the season and a huge victory for the team.

Sixteen Men To Get Ring Awards

Sixteen men from the Michigan State University baseball team were honored for their contributions to the team this season. They received their rings in a special ceremony before the game.
