If You Ask Me

Something New Can Be Added If We All Work

By Tom Greene

IF YOU'VE BEEN WORRIED because an State is far behind other schools war preparations you can relax—for out three minutes. Then it will be time to get behind a real project and push. Plans are also a bit laggard in developing that low-cost series of dances in the Auditorium that has been promised. There are of students-the ones who can't afford the expense of the formal parties who are looking forward to something being done.

WELL, SOMETHING CAN BE done, If three plans now being considered could be merged at Student council meeting Wednesday night something constructive will be accomplished and Michigan State will the first college in the nation to have such a program.

WHAT'S THE PLAN? Here are the essentials: Henry Simons Quiroz, our good neighbor from Panama, is suggesting an adaptation of a plan used at the University of Panama to pick a queen. Most of the fellows out at Abbot hall and the SAE ouse have heard from Henry how the plan works. The big feature is a "Mardi Gras" party night, with masquerading and floats, climaxed with the presentation of the Queen.

WHOA THERE - Don't be cynical. THIS queen isn't picked through politics chicanery. She receives her honors through votes, each of which costs a penny or so. Admissions to the dance can o be worth a stated number of votes. occeds could go to any good cause. but in this case there is a beautiful chance for a tie-up between such a festival and the drive being planned by Men's council and AWS to sell defense stamps on cam-

THREE BIRDS can be picked off with one stone-a big, low-cost party in the Auditorium, sale of defense stampswhich will help the war effort as much as any other one activity, and selection of Michigan State's own Queen of Defense amid a festival that will be the first of its kind for any college in the country.

IT'S A BIG PLAN, but one that can be worked and one that can be a real success. If and provided it gets the proper support. Proper support for anything as big as this means the support of every organization on campus and the support of nearly every individual, It's a challenge, but it can be worked if Michigan State is really anxious to quit eating dust and step up in the front ranks.

The Americans came from all parts of the United States—New York, California, the Middle West and the deap South. The group included artillery units but was mostly infantry. It was announced that American as well as British warships had guided the troop convoy through submarine-intested waters of the Atlantic. Not a single man was lost in the voyage.
