DZVs Outscore Mason 8, 12-6, To Win Third Softball Title

Timely Homers Play Important Role in DZE Victory

By Dick Wickens

The DZVs won their third straight all-college softball championship with a 12-9 victory over Mason 8 last night. This is the third time these two teams have met and the second time Bill Kennedy has emerged as the winning hurler.

The game was a free-hit affair throughout, with the winners getting 10 hits and the Mason hall team getting a home run in the fifth, being by Wall Kiewicki with three runners on base provided the winning margin.

Trailing by the score of 12-4 into the sixth, the DZVs combined three hits, two bases on balls, and an error for three more tallies. They added one in the seventh.

MASON SCORES FIRST

The Mason 8 team jumped into a new lead in its half of the game when Neil Bryant led off with a walk. He was sacrificed to second and went to third when George Schroeder was safe at first on an error. Art Stone then singled to left scoring Schroeder and Bryant.

However, it did not take the DZVs long to get back into the lead game as Walt Pawlowski opened the DZV first with a long home run to right. Barney Neuzer came up a few minutes later and produced one of Larry Wolfe's lefties over the centerfielder's head for another four-bagger. Before the inning was over, four more crossed the plate for the Athletic Brotherhood.

DZV SCORE 1 IN SECOND

Not satisfied with a two-run lead, the DZVs combined two hits, four walks, and an error for four more runs in the second inning. Earl Sherman's single played an important role in this rally.

The Mason team picked up two more runs in the third when Neil Bryant received his second walk, scored behind an Schroeder single and these two runs scored behind Williams' single and Stone's triple to center.

KIEWICKI HOMERS

There was no scoring again until the fifth when Kiewicki hit his only homer. The Mason team scored their remaining runs in the big sixth inning rally and the DZVs led 12-4.

Kiewicki, Pawlowski, and Charles Anderson paced the winners' attack with two hits apiece. Schroeder led the losers with two singles and a triple in four times at bat.

Bill Kennedy nor Wolfe were at their best last night. Kennedy especially was wilder than usual and as a result he had to pick up on a large number of his errors. Williams relieved Wolfe and Kiewicki's hit in the sixth and he only allowed one hit the remainder of the game.

Brocnies to Trade Frank Hayes To Boston Red Sox

BOSTON, June 8 (TP)—The St. Louis Browns had another deal in the baseball fire today on the heels of a four-player transfer with the Washington Senators.

Word from here said that President Don Barnes of the St. Louis club would send Catcher Frank Hayes to the Boston Red Sox for a player as yet unnamed. Hayes has been with the Browns hardly more than a week, having been acquired from the Philadelphia Athletics in an earlier swap.

Sunday night the Browns discussed in Philadelphia that they had obtained Outfielder Mike Charlak and Pitcher Steve Sundra from Washington after sending Outfielder Roy Colbourne and Pitcher Bill Trotter to the Senators.

NEW YORK, June 8 (TP)—Outfielder Jed Heath of the Cleveland Indians said today he injured his right side while playing from appearing in the lineup for several days.

Heath was injured Sunday. He explained that his right side felt hurt after bumping into the railing at the Yankee stadium. "It was trying to catch a home run ball."

NEW YORK, June 8 (TP)—All Men's Glee club members are requested to be at the studio of station WKAR, college auditorium, at 5 p. m. today to make recordings of the club, according to Del Ruthig, president. Cuttings of the recordings will be made available to all members present. Ruthig says.

Importance of War Idealism Stressed at Baccalaureate

By KAY ROEHM

This year will be easy to remember for young Americans who will recall the words of the Rev. Dr. Paul Lammont Thompson, president of Kalamazoo college, stated in his address at the Michigan State baccalaureate in the College auditorium Sunday afternoon.

Dr. Thompson, projected war and the hatred that accompany it as the opposite of Christianity and of Christian principles. During times of war, he explained, "the church and Christianity go along and it is easier to be with the crowd and to hold on to the ideal of Christianity the defeat of the enemy."

Except that you hate the enemy you cannot expect to win the war—that is the doctrine which has been placed before the young men in every war this country has fought, and is being placed before them again. Yet army officers today are telling us again that such hatred is unnecessary, that a war can be won without the hate that sears and destroys the ideal and emotions of brotherhood," Thompson concluded.

200 State Students Will Help Fight Forest Fires, Saboteurs

By BILL JOHNSTON

The great forests of the Pacific northwest and southwest will be ably guarded from sabotage and forest fires this summer by approximately 200 M. S. C. students, and many other students from many other midwestern colleges, who will assist forest rangers and conservation men in their duties of protecting U. S. national forests.

Prof. P. A. Herbert, head of the forestry department, stated recently.

The group of college men will be divided up, and smaller groups will be sent to various districts in the west.

Some of them will have backpacks, some will be on superman crews, and others will work in disease and insect control, with all men subject to night-time forest fires. Herbert stated that many of the men have already received their assignments.

Men will be sent to the Pacific northwest, California, Utah and Nevada, the Pacific southwest, and the "Inland Empire" which comprises Idaho and Montana.

State 9 Ends Season With 10-5 Victory

Michigan Normal Is Last Victim Of Heavy Hitting

By TOM RIORDAN

The Spartan baseball team ended the season on Saturday with its 13th win of the year by dropping Michigan Normal, 10-5, in a heavy hitting duel. This gave Michigan State undoubted lead of the mythical collegiate loop in the state with eight wins to its credit and only two losses in intrastate competition.

Don Fleischmann started on the mound for the Spartans, but the usually calm pitcher got out of control in the fifth and had to be removed. At Jones followed Don and allowed the Husons two hits and a single tally. Jones was the winning pitcher.

BATTING IS FEATURE

However, it wasn't the pitching but rather the batting that was the most potent factor in Normal's downfall. Everyone in the lineup except Pete Fornall, got at least one hit.

Nick Plechuta took top batting honors, with two for three, but fanned twice in the afternoon. Plechuta was the only Spartan to get a hit in the afternoon.

MICHIGAN IS THIRD

This victory added to the Spartans string of games with the state to eight. Western Michigan finished in runner-up spot with a record of four and two. Central Michigan in the Big Ten, Michigan ended up 4-4 third.

The Spartans opened their season early, bringing across three wins in the first and one in the second. The rest of the fall of Normal came in the fifth when the team batted around and ended up with six scores for the frame.

THIRD HURLER USED

An error on Wy Davis' grounder helped things along as did singles by Joe Nelson and Jones. Frankie Peltier, who turned in another grand game at shortstop, cleared the sacks by doubling down the left field line. Peltier scampered home a moment later on Picciotto's one-bagger.

All this was too much for Ed Gilday, Normal hurler, and he was removed so that Fred Hobbs could come in and stop the potent Spartans. Hobbs managed to hold them scoreless for the remainder of the game.

MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL

By TRANSMEDIA PRESS

Paul Springer returned to form today and pitched a nifty three-hitter to give the Cincinnati Reds a 3-1 win over the Boston Braves. Big Paul had to be at his best, for though his mates garnered 10 hits they were unable to get them in clusters, except in the first inning.

Deering was given a two run lead in the first, when the Reds climbed on young Tom Early. Fortunately, that was all he needed, for Manuel Salvo who came in to relieve Early held the Reds to one run the rest of the way.

No other games were scheduled in the National League.

In the only game played in the American league, the world champion New York Yankees came out on top in an 11-inning slugfest with the Cleveland Indians, 11-10.

Cleveland took a 5-0 lead in the very first half inning and added two more in the second. The Yankees after scoring one in the first, put on a Yankee onslaught to score five runs in the second and get back in the ball game. The Yankees sent out in front in the sixth, but saw Cleveland tie it up in the sixth.

Jeff Heath counted two homers for Cleveland, one in the first and one in the seventh.

Bob McCarthy, Michigan State lead, set a new record in the Women's Intercollegiate Telegraphic Archery tournament yesterday, according to a preliminary report received by the women's physical education department.

The new record stands at 72,370 which is only 14 points below the National Archery Association record of 72,384. Last year Miss McCarthy also held high scores in the telegraphic tourney.

States first team, dropped two places to sixth (previously fifth) this year. In the Midwestern telegraph state placed second with a team score of 3,138. Sixteen college rank top players with a score of 1,247.

For the second straight year, Michigan State's track team placed fifth in the Central Collegiate Conference track and field championships which were held in the Marquette University stadium Saturday.

The Spartans underlined scored 196 points at the annual midwestern track carnival. Al Milne was the only State trackster to gain a first place, scoring 6 feet 4 inches to take the high jump title. Milne tied for first last year.

Bob McCarthy and Hughie Davis took third and fourth respectively in the 100-yard dash event while the sprint relay team came in for second honors in the 440-yard event.

Other State tracksters to score points were Bill Scott, finishing fourth in the mile run, Leonard Natus fourth in the javelin throw, and Ted Womach and Bob Harris tied for fifth in the pole vault. They cleared 12 feet 6 inches in this event.

Wasson, Rice Institute, Indiana and Marquette finished in that order ahead of the Spartans. Coach Karl Schindlerman is taking but two boys to the National AAU championships, in Lincoln.

Merrill Limits SAEs To 3 Hits in 3-1 Win

AGRs Win in Third Straight Title

By Rut Kowalsky

The Alpha Gamma Rho team was acclaimed the interfraternity baseball league champions for the third straight year last evening when they handed the Sigma Alpha Epsilon nine a 3-1 defeat in a tight battle on the varsity grounds.

The SAE club put up a bitter fight against the champions as they scored the first run of the season off the outstanding pitching of Leland Merrill to whom the AGRs attribute much of their success. Merrill gave up three hits to the SAEs, while striking out six and walking but one.

Pictorial Review Presents Panorama of Fall Term at State

Hannah Takes Over As M.S.C. President

Increased Interest Shown in ROTC

Students returning to Michigan State college in the fall of 1941 found substantially the same campus they had left in the spring. They had a new president in the person of youthful looking, experienced John A. Hannah, whom they had known heretofore as Secretary Hannah. He took over when Dr. Robert S. Shaw reached the retirement age, after guiding the destiny of Michigan State since 1927.

Many of the men students were anticipating the day when their draft numbers would come up, few dreamed that before the term was over the United States would be drawn into total war, although all could see it coming.

Military classes were a little fuller than usual, and army officers reported more applications for advanced R.O.T.C. training. But even the freshmen had hopes of finishing their education in college before their country went to war.

A resume of the term's highlights follows:

Sept. 22—Freshman week opened with 2,079 neophytes registering, a drop of 114 students from the year before.

Sept. 26—Regular classes begin with 6,210 students classified, which includes 3,995 men and 2,915 women, a decrease of only 6 per cent.

Sept. 27—The Michigan game; 82,000 fans jammed the Michigan stadium and were electrified when in the first two minutes of play they saw Jack Fenton shift end and run 74 yards for a touchdown against the vaunted Wolverines. Michigan power asserted itself later, and the final score was Michigan 19, State 7.

Senior wolves got their first chance for drooling and other actions when the new crop of freshman women appeared at the term's first all-college dance.

Charles McCaffree, of Iowa State college, was appointed swimming coach to succeed R. B. (Joke) Daubert. Dale Harris was discovered in the uniform of Leonard Falcone, band director, leading the M.S.C. - R.O.T.C. marching band.

Sept. 30—Gov. Murray Van Wagoner became the first subscriber to the 1942 issue of the Wolverine when he was signed up by Jane Blair and Bette Sullivan.

Oct. 2—One hundred thirty-four freshmen answered the first call for gridiron duty.

Eighty-four State men signed up for the Civilian Aeronautics authority's flying program, as national defense measures required the service of four chemistry instructors D. H. Byers, W. Allen, H. C. Gutekunst, and S. W. Sheel.

Oct. 7—Campus Press printers today accidentally transposed pages 3 and 4 (former sports page). State News editors liked it; page 3 has been the sports page since.

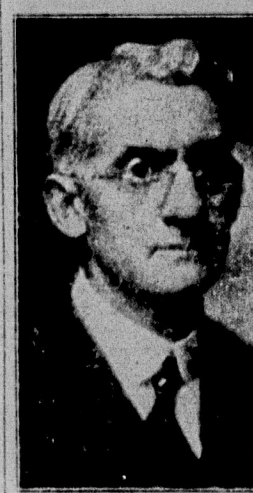

Oct. 9—A.W.S. silk hose battle comes to a head as three women are named to a committee for action.

Oct. 11—Dick Kieppe starred in the Michigan State backfield as the Spartan eleven administered a 13 to 7 drubbing to Marquette. State harriers defeated Drake, 23-34, as Walt Mack set a record for the three-mile course.

Oct. 14—Spartan footballers leave for San Francisco and the tilt with Santa Clara, with a whole week to travel, vacation, sightsee, and play a little football.

John Alfred Hannah moved upstairs to the president's office in the administration building from that of secretary on June 30. State's youngest president has hold office and kept the college on an even keel through the draft, the U. S. entrance into the war, and next week will head into the first full summer term in many years for M.S.C.

After 14 years of service to Michigan State college as its president, Dr. Robert S. Shaw resigned his office on June 30, 1941. Publications workers and others remember him as the man who used to bring bushels of apples in for them. Everyone remembers him as one who devoted a lifetime to building up of M.S.C.

Seven coeds dramatize the work of Spartan Women's league at the annual Coed Carnival, which portrayed "Daisy's College Daze." It was held Thursday, Oct. 16, in Fairchild theater.

They named it correctly when they called it the Frosh-Soph "Brawl." Two contestants are here seen in possession of bags of leaves in the bag fight at the annual rivalry between the two lower classes on Tuesday, Oct. 28, of last fall term.

The cameraman took an unusual shot when he snapped Dick Kieppe being stopped by the Temple Owls on Saturday, Nov. 15, in Macklin stadium. The Owls seldom stopped State that day, as the score, State 46, Temple 0, would indicate.

Wolverine salesladies Jane Blair and Bette Sullivan here are caught selling the first 1941-42 Wolverine to Gov. Murray D. Van Wagoner. Jane writes up the order and Bette pins the governor with a Spartan emblem.

Former Stater Gains After Plane Crash

Ensign Gustave H. Apitz, former State student, is recovering in Mills Memorial hospital, San Mateo, Calif., according to word received by his fiancée, Nancy M. Kelly, A. S. '42. Apitz was injured in the crash June 1, of a P. B. V. patrol bomber in the hills near Half Moon Bay, Calif.

After his escape from the burning wreckage he was in six hours before reaching the hospital. He was badly burned and lost the face, but was reported improving.
