Is Essential, Fisher Says

Comprehension of United Nations' losses in the Pacific region and the importance of regaining this territory was brought home to 4,000 persons in the season's first lecture course audience when "Singapore Joe" Fisher gave a lecture-movie program entitled "The Pacific Aflame" last night.

With natural color movies which were taken shortly before Pearl Harbor in order to show people a new vacation country to replace Europe, Fisher took his audience on an imaginery tour of the entire Pacific region.

Included in the movie tour were Hawaii, southern Pacific islands which have been the news recently, Singapore and the neighboring Malay penin-sula, Rangoon, the Burma Road, and Shanghai.

Fisher, native of Cape Town, South Africa and former owner of a chain of theaters throughout the Orient, showed British reasons for thinking that Singapore was impregnable and the way in which the Japanese dis-

OW that the social calendar is out for fall term, it will be fun to watch the socially-minded guys and gals begin maneuvering things to get bids for parties. A fellow we knew last year prided himself on the fact that he knew just when to invite which woman out at thepsychological time to produce a bid to her term party.

Of course, there aren't any of that species around this term-not much! Keep your eyes peeled and you will see strange eatings going on. The really good wolves (male and female) manage to be on the free end of five or six parties each term.

Falling leaves rustle underfoot and bring a picture of the prewinter season in the country. As the greening of all nature hits the highspot of spring, and June summer, the harvest tops the season is the apex of fall.

Days when the temperature is so perfect you don't even notice it are followed by frosty nights for brisk walks by the light of the harvest moon, now rounding the first quarter.

Hunters pursue pheasants and partridge across fields and hills covered with a golden haze the sun never quite penetrates. The trees seem locked in a violent struggle to see which species can produce more shades of color in their leaves.

'Color tours', fast becoming famous in the north woods, will have to be curtailed this fall,but the same assortment of colers is still there. It will give nature lovers double satisfaction to come back and view them after the war is over, because it is things like that the Axis is trying to take away from us.

Probably everyone looks back to childhood for the most carefree days of his life. To us as children fall meant big piles of leaves to roll in, huge bonfires every night, roasting marshmallows, and drinking cider. It meant smelling the odor of burning leaves from your clothes every time you sat down in an enclosed room.

It meant making shacks in the woods, half hollowed out of the ground, board roofs covered with sand, and a trap door and smokestack in the top. The guy who, after plugging up the smokestack, could lie inside on the ground for the longest time with a fire going in the crude stove, was really respected. As we look back, it seems silly but it was a lot of fun not to have to worry about a paper coming out tomorrow.

I suppose nobody could satisfy 6.000 persons in picking seven of their number to represent them on a radio program. But there

Heroes Will Be at MSC Friday

Five Students to Relate War Experiences at Two Meetings

Having postponed their de-parture in order to meet students and faculty members of representative American col-leges, five United Nations stu-dent heroes will be at Michigan State college Friday.

By arrangement of the Student council, State students will have several opportunities for meeting the delegation. Included on the program is an infor-mal discussion in the Union mixed lounge from 4 to 5:15 p. m. Later, from 8 to 9 p. m., a more formal program will be presented in the Auditorium.

Represents Chinese

Of the five visiting representatives, there is one each from China, England, and the Netherlands. Russia will be represented by two delegates. The personal representative of Mme. Chiang Kal shek and only womthe delegation is Miss Jung Wang, one of China's most popular movie and stage actresses, who recently escaped from Hong Kong after being hunted by the "Gestapo" of Japan for several years.

After the outbreak of hostilities in 1937, Miss Wang, who received her dramatic training at a Tokio university, organized a drama corps and worked in Swanson. The meeting is open China's "no-man's land" going deep into the Japanese occupied area several times.

Representatives of Russia are Nikolai Krasavchenko and Lieut. Vladimir Pchelintsev who came to this country from the Russian

DRAFT BILL

Although Reynolds at first estimated that senate hearings might take four or five weeks he later expressed hope that action might be obtained much sooner: For his part, he said, he was ready to vote tomorrow.

Vandenberg Calls for Clarity

Some senators, notably Vandenberg (R-Mich.), said there was considerable "public anxiity" over reports that the army might be built up to 10 to 13 million men and expressed hope that the hearings would bring "as clear a prospectus as possible" of eventual military

May said that witnesses before the house committee would include Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, selective service director; Secretary Stimson, and possibly Gen, George C. Marshall, chief of staff.
Two days, possibly with night sessions, should be ample time in which to hear their views, May said, adding that the hearings would be closed except for that part of the testimony which the public can be permitted to hear.'

Stimson Requests Action

In a letter to the house committee, Secretary Stimson said: "Members of the 18 and 19 age groups are peculiarly well adapted to military training. This is a military axiom. Their rea military axiom. Their response to leadership, their recovery from fatigue, their enthusiasm or 'flair_for soldiering' are exceptional as compared with older age groups. The simple fact is, they are better soldiers, and never before in its history has the American nation more urgently needed exceptional soldiers.

More to Register

Selective service ters said some 2,250,000 young men of 18 and 19 were registered in the last general registration on June 30, although not subject to military duty under present law. In addition, it was indicated that about 300,000 have reached 18 since June 30. Even when the new law is passed, however, the 300,000 will not be liable to military duty until a new registration is held.

Telephone Lines Are Battle Lines

USE LONG DISTANCE ONLY FOR THE MOST NECESSARY CALLS

War is on the wires. Long distance lines are crowded with the greatest volume of call they have ever carried. And the telephone system cannot be enlarged substantially be cause necessary materials are going into fighting equipment instead.

Consequently, we must make the most effe cient use of present telephone facilities. You can help by:

- 1. Using long distance only for the most necessary calls.
- 2. Placing those calls by number whenever possible.
- 3. Keeping all your telephone conversations brief.

War calls come first!
