Know a man by his laundry. Jim Cocksels was in the grill the other morning, carrying his laundry with him. Someone happened to glance at the list filed out by the laundry: Five starched shirts, four collars, one negligee. Cocksels said he couldn't understand it—claimed the laundry meant "bathrobe."

Apple Drippin's

Several members of Mason-Abbot halls recently have been seen heing away packages of cereal sugar to their rooms. A fact not known to many is that when sugar and yeast are put in a jug of apple juice the result is a kick a very potent mixture. Of course, this has no relation to the fact that Mason-Abbot halls authorities have reported several loud explosions during quiet nights.

Red Tape

Everything waits on priorities these days, even the East Lansing police department has learned. After going through the red tape made necessary by rationing, the policemen were able to get a new car for patrol work last week. But their joy was short-lived. Now they are forced to go through even more red tape and wait at least a week for the necessary equipment to install a two-way radio outfit in the new patrol car.

Students to Hunt for Campus Scrap Articles Saturday

Working in cooperation with East Lansing officials, Scabbard and Blade members and local high school students will collect scrap Saturday 8 to 12 a. m. from East Lansing homes and campus buildings.

All heads of college departments have been asked by Scabbard and Blade, military honorary, to collect scrap and to place this material in a central place so that trucks can pick it up.

In order to facilitate the collection in East Lansing, residents are asked by Scabbard and Blade members to place scrap piles near the curb in front of the houses.

U. S. Fighter Planes Win First Major Battle in Egypt

CAIRO, Oct. 14 (AP)—Fighter pilots of the U. S. army air forces were disclosed today to have fought and won their first major battle over the Egyptian coast as the surge of heavy aerial warfare spread from Malta to mid-Mediterranean to the mainland battle areas of Africa.

Twelve U. S. fighters, escorting fighter-bombers of the South African air force, tangled for 20 furious minutes Tuesday with 20 Axis fighters, both Messerschmitts and Macchi-202s, which were guarding a formation of a dozen Stukas.

Two Messerschmitt-109s were shot down and others damaged by the Americans while the South Africans, after dropping their bombs on enemy targets in the El Alamein battle zone, tore into the Stukas. They shot down two of these Junkers-87s, damaged six others and forced the remainder to jettison their bombs. Then the enemy fled.

Dean Anthony Reveals Plans to Send Entire Military Group

By JERRY TER HORST
Highlighting the currently popular issue on campus—the sugar beet harvest—was the announcement made yesterday by Dean of Agriculture E. L. Anthony, stating that certain R. O. T. C. classes will be mobilized to work in nearby beet fields. Anthony released the announcement after conferring with Col. Stewart McLeod, local R. O. T. C. commandant.

Stalingrad Battle Stalls Germans

MOSCOW, Oct. 15 (AP)—The Red army, fighting in the welcome chill of an approaching winter, repulsed several more tank-supported German attacks in the Stalingrad and Caucasian areas yesterday without yielding ground, the Soviet command announced early today.

For the second straight day the communique reported no significant change in the general situation. The German shock troops apparently were in a state of temporary exhaustion or were holding back for replenishment or to switch to another theater.

Northwest of the city only "battles of local importance" occurred, with the Russians fending off an attack by two infantry companies which lost 100 men, the communique said.

Byrnes Gets Action on Rent Controls

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14 (AP)—Broad legislation authorizing and directing the President to stabilize all rents, commercial as well as residential, and hotel rates throughout the United States and its possessions was approved speedily today by the House Banking committee.

No opposition developed in the committee after James F. Byrnes, economic stabilization director, appealed for action on the ground that uncontrolled rents had risen as much as 200 per cent in some places.

Roving Willkie Confers With FDR; Sticks to Second Front Statement

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14 (AP)—Back from his globe-girdling tour, Wendell L. Willkie conferred with President Roosevelt tonight and emerged from the White House still sticking to his stand that there had been needless delay in opening a second front.

Although he said that in his judgment "Germany will never conquer Russia," he hammered away again at the second front theme in a session with reporters.

Asked whether he thought there had been "needless delay," he said that was the conclusion that might be drawn from what he said at Moscow and what he was saying tonight.

Willkie announced in a formal statement that he would now devote himself to "making careful, crystal-clear reports to the American people."

Student Council Sets Oct. 29 As Date of Frosh-Soph Brawl

Senior Primaries Slated for Today

Primary voting for senior class president will be held from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. today in the lower lounge of the Union, according to Frank Izzo, elections chairman. The date of the final elections has not yet been disclosed.

Candidates are Ed Kitchen, Delta Sigma Phi; Jack A. Bush, Sigma Alpha Epsilon; Bob Ryscamp, Hesperian; I. H. Davidoff, Alpha Epsilon Pi; Bob Roat, Mason-Abbott club; and Del Ruthig, Ellsworth house.

Ballots will be counted by Student council executive council, and results will be posted in the upper lounge of the Union about 8:30 p. m., Izzo said.

Germany Suspicious of Rome's Sincerity

LONDON, Oct. 14 (AP)—Reports of a widening rift between Germany and Italy came from neutral European capitals today as Hitler's Gestapo strong-arm chief visited Rome and conferred at length with Mussolini in what seemed obviously to be something more than a social call.

Thursday, Oct. 29, will be the date of the annual Frosh Soph games, when the frosh traditionally burn green pots and sophs bury the hatchet of hazing they have held since the term started. This was the date tentatively set last night at Student council meeting.

This year's brawl will be held in the fieldhouse with 50 picked men from each class participating in each event, if present plans go through. In other years all male members of the two classes have had the privilege of competing.

A scrap drive may be worked in as an event for the whole group to take part in, victory to go to the class which produces the most scrap metal in a specified time.

Men's Council Directs

The games will be under the supervision of Men's council, with Russell Daubert of the physical education department and members of the Varsity club setting up events and refereeing.

Manny Mullen, L.A.—43, and CDC head on campus, explained to the council the defense setup at Michigan State.

"CDC," he stated, "is the idea forming group, while OSD is the administrative body. That's the way they were set up, and we will continue them that way this year."

The council approved turning over all Red Cross defense

7,500,000 Men to Be in Army by Next Year

No Need for Colleges if We Don't Win War, Stimson Says

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14 (AP)—Speeding hearings on the bill to draft 18 and 19-year-olds, Congress heard the American high command disclose plans today to begin calling up these youths in December and to weed out present soldiers considered incapable of carrying the terrific burden of modern war.

It was also disclosed that selective service plans to call up 100,000 men with dependent wives next month, but hopes, if the new bill to draft youths is passed, to put off drafting married men with children until late in 1943.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14 (AP)—Army plans to build a hard-striking force of at least 7,500,000 men in 1943 were disclosed today by Secretary of War Stimson and General George C. Marshall as the "imperative" reason for lowering the draft age from 20 to 18 years immediately.

Simultaneously, they revealed to congress that this nation already has 4,250,000 men in the army alone, 3,250,000 less than the minimum requirements by the end of next year.

Achievement of the 7,500,000 goal would mean that Uncle Sam would have at the end of 1943 as

Japs Attempting Push on Solomons

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14 (AP)—The Japanese landed heavy reinforcements on Guadalcanal island in the Solomons early today, and indications tonight were that a major battle was impending, if not actually begun between the strengthened enemy and the marines spearheading the American offensive in the southwest Pacific.

The navy communique reported that Japanese warship had bombarded the American airfield and shore installation on the strategic island two nights before the landings were undertaken.

These bold operations were carried out successfully by the determined enemy despite the fact that only last week-end a U. S. cruiser-destroyer task force had repelled a landing attempt and smashed eight Jap ships while marines had fought forward to advanced positions on the edge of the northernmost section of the island where the enemy troops are concentrated.

Freshman Woman States A Problem

(Editor's note: This letter from a freshman woman expresses as well as anyone could, the best solution to the car problem at Michigan State college. It is up to you as students to carry her suggestion through. If a freshman can put the problem before the student body, surely there is some upperclassman with initiative enough to solve it. We welcome and will print further discussion on the matter when space will permit.)

Dear Editor:

I would like to make an appeal to the women of Michigan State college—to every woman here at State with an ounce of patriotism.

Our boys here at State are doing a big part in this war effort. They are taking physically strenuous R. O. T. C. drilling as well as class work in military science. At the same time, our boys are making one great mistake (some of them), and making it all because we women have not yet shown our patriotism.

To come to the point, the men, (and some of the women, too) are still driving cars on campus for unnecessary purposes, and they won't stop driving them until we, the women of Michigan State, stop demanding that our boy friends have cars to take us joyriding in. Do we want cars forcibly banned from M. S. C.'s campus till the end of the war? Chances are that we will never have them restored once a ban is effected—and rumors of a probable ban in the very near future have been heard floating around lately.

Women, we have not been given much chance so far to show our patriotism, but here at last is a real opportunity. First we must organize, probably through A. W. S. Then we must act—and I believe our most effective course would be for every woman student to agree solemnly not to accept an automobile ride with a man or another woman except in cases of emergency or necessity, and not to drive a car herself except in those situations until the war is won. It's a kind of tough assignment, but with a little will power we could all put it across—I say we could ALL put it across, for unless we have complete cooperation from every woman who is attending Michigan State college this fall, the whole effort would be useless!

Women, let's show the men and President Hannah and the faculty that we are willing to do what little we can in this war effort—let's organize and end this needless waste of gas and tires on the M. S. C. campus!

Very truly yours,

Janet Pullen, '46.

Voting Is A Habit All Must Acquire

TODAY on many battlefronts of the world, American men are being killed in a war in which, among other things, they aim to preserve freedom and democracy.

Today also, primary elections will be held for the office of senior class president, which went unfilled last spring through political maneuvering. Though it won't especially help today in preserving democracy, every senior should register a vote.

It is through exercising the voting privilege in state and national elections that you may help to preserve democracy in the future. Get in the voting habit now.

RAF Pounds Kiel with 'Blockbusters'

LONDON, Oct. 14 (AP)—Some hundreds of bombers, including many of Britain's biggest dynamite carriers, gave the German naval and submarine base of Kiel one of its most destructive blastings of the war last night, it was announced today.

Two-ton "block busters" sprinkled with incendiaries smashed among the dockyards and ship-building facilities, leaving large fires and flying debris, pilots reported.

It was the 70th raid on Kiel since September, 1939, but the first in nearly six months—a period which has seen the steady development of new RAF bombing techniques and bombers in massed aerial blows at German war resources.

Physical Course Increases Ability, Statistics Show

ANN ARBOR, Oct. 14 (AP)—Sixteen weeks of concentrated "physical hardening" increased by 20 per cent the ability of the average University of Michigan male student to do typical athletic tasks, a statistician revealed here today.

At the end of the course the average man could run 440 yards six seconds faster, could do three more "pull-ups" and six more "push-ups," could run further and had a stronger grip in both hands.

When the course started, 20 per cent of a group of 1,000 typical college men could not swim. At the end every man could swim a distance of 100 yards and could stay afloat for five minutes.

Course Compulsory
Byron O. Hughes, a member of the university faculty and an expert in statistics, prepared the report. The course was made compulsory of every male student this summer, and called for four and a half hours per week of hard exercise, except for ROTC students who took three hours.

Hughes said that the ROTC students, who devoted 90 minutes less per week to the muscle-building program than other students, increased their ability only 69 per cent as much as those who took the entire 150 minutes.

Program Beneficial
"The figures show that the amount of gain is directly proportional to the amount of time spent in the program," he said.

The analysis also clearly shows: "The inadequate performance of the average university male when left to his own devices for the maintenance of physical condition."

But the short and slender types showed the most improvement at the end of the course," Hughes said.

Frosh to Use 'Topper Plays in Scrimmage

By TOM RIORDAN
Coach Charley Bachman will send his Michigan State football squad through a long scrimmage this afternoon with the freshmen, who will be using Marquette plays. The Spartans, forced inside by rainy weather yesterday, polished up their air attack with a workout in Jenison fieldhouse.

Plays for the first team were called by Russ Gilpin, Detroit sophomore quarterback, who has been elevated from the fourth team by virtue of his showing against Wayne. The stocky 189-pounder was a blocking back at Cooley high in the year his club won the city championship. Gilpin has forgotten little of the blocking he used at Cooley, and his past experience is paying dividends now.

Doing most of the passing were Dick Kieppe and El Stark, both of whom will get plenty of chance to use their throwing arms against the Hilltoppers Saturday. This week the aerial attack will not be aimed at the ends alone, but Bachman has been working the right half-backs and quarters in as receivers.

Filling out the backfield were Ed Ripmaster at full and Walt Pawlowski at right. Backfield alternates Bill Beardsley, Pete Fornari, Jack Fenton, Bill Gaylord all got a chance to do some pass-snatching along with ends, Vince Mroz, Bernie Roskopp, Roy Fraleigh, Bob McNeil, and Fen Crane.

Quarterback Gilpin got lots of help from Bill Milliken, Lou Brand, Bob Otting, and Glen Johnson. The starting line included Mroz and Roskopp, ends, Glen Diebert, and Dick Mangrum, tackles, Don LeClair and George Radulescu, guards, and Howard Beyer, center. Al Conner was absent from practice, as was Morgan Gingrass, because of a cut over his eye.

The club will go through a light workout tomorrow, its last before the game, to sharpen up on timing of both running and passing plays.

Tarheels to Face Deceptive Dukes

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 14 (AP)—Aldo (Buff) Donelli, whose baffling Duquesne Dukes boast a 16-game winning streak and 26 triumphs in 28 games, today credited the Dukes' victory sweep-to-an-attack "based on the idea nobody's got the ball."

The Dukes, whose football magic has befuddled three hapless foes already this season, get one of their hardest tests this

All of the fraternity touch football games, which were scheduled for last night, were postponed because of wet grounds.

Saturday against North Carolina's Tarheels at Chapel Hill, N. C., in a game scheduled only last night.

"Everybody thinks we're trying to fool 'em," said Donelli, one-time internationally-known soccer star. "But we're not."

"We simply use our deception at top speed, with as little motion in the backfield as possible," he explained. "A great many coaches say the soundest deception is in slow ball handling, with hand fakes to make the ball."

"But it's just the opposite with us. We utilize every bit of speed in our backfield and base our attack on the idea that nobody's got the ball. We want opposing linemen to wonder who's got it, and not guess. As long as they think we're fooling 'em, we'll win our ball games."

Donelli's attack basically is the Notre Dame "box," but he is using the "T" formation more this year. He has his own variation of the "man in motion," in which both that player and the other halfback handle the ball equally as much.

To Retire Oldsters

Both Stimson and Marshall, the army chief of staff, said the army had too many older men, who would find it hard to stand the strain of modern war, and Marshall revealed that he was studying the possibility of sending numbers of these men home when younger soldiers are available.

service director, told the senate military committee it was a question of inducting younger men or dipping into the group of married men with dependents.

His estimate of 7,500,000 men in army uniform in 1943—exclusive of men who would be in other services, such as the navy and the marine corps—included 2,200,000 men in the air forces, 3,300,000 in organized ground units, 1,000,000 in the services of supply, and 1,000,000 either in training or training other men for replacement assignment and the services of supply.

Give Year Training

Neither Stimson nor the chief of staff favored restrictions in pending legislation to forbid the use of teen-age soldiers in combat service until they had received at least one year of training.

Acknowledging that the lower draft age might play havoc with the nation's higher education system by draining youths from high schools and colleges, Stimson said the war department did not desire to "needlessly destroy the influences of colleges" but bluntly added:

"There won't be much need for colleges if we don't win the war."
