New House committee OKs bill making 18- and 19-year-olds draftable; Senate considers educating bright soldiers

By Richard L. Turner

WASHINGTON, Oct. (AP) — The house military committee unanimously approved a bill making 18 and 19-year-olds subject to the draft, after adding new safeguards intended generally to prevent from being drafted married men while single men are made available for service.

The senate military committee was expected to report a similar measure tomorrow. Overnight and draft figures for the attachment of Japan for the employment of non-Japanese civilians in any capacity except for labor are to be examined by a special committee.

Spartan Women Note in WAVES, Youth Reserve

Jackie Johnston, Sigma Kappa, in Training at Indiana

Other Michigan State could lose probably fifteen or twenty points of the first two State women's events if Jackie Johnston, better known as Jackie Sigma Kappa from Michigan, and Constance Schla-Runner, former Tillie Kegel, sophomore from Lansing, had joined the WAVES.

Jackie joined the WAVES about two weeks ago after being notified of her training at the University of Michigan and to report by 3:15 p.m. before she received this week. She said that she joined the WAVES because of the prestige training to be given there.

"The training area where the WAVES train and work is called the ship and only maiden WAVES can live in a dormitory at the University of Michigan. Expectations were so great before Jackie was told that she was already under training that several WAVES had set up for WAVES at 3:15 a.m.

Ala. Consensus entered the WAVES at the University of Michigan and is expected to be able to perform service in two months. Youth Reserve is a private service to be offered to the Michigan State college on the west coast, federal and foreign countries, a team which people who realized how important this country was for WAVES.

Signal Corps Causes Complete Reshuffle of Electrical Courses

A complete revision of the Electrical Engineering program has had its way. The Michigan State Electrical Engineering program has been revised to the extent that some classes in the Electrical Engineering program have been cancelled and new classes have been added. The revised program is designed to give the student a better understanding of the electrical engineering field.

Marquette's No. 1 Threat to Spartans

With John Buck as a prelude to the football war between the state's two largest cities, Marquette University will present the most dangerous out-backs of any team欺负" to grace the Hilltoppers this year. Buck is a 6-foot 215-pound halfback whose ability to run is only exceeded by his ability to pass and throw the ball. He has shown remarkable ability to elude tacklers and has a great deal of speed on the gridiron. Buck is expected to be a star performer in the upcoming game.

Dallas Carthage has become something of a star in the hilltoppers' backfield, and his ability to run and pass has already caught the attention of the media. Carthage is a 5-foot 11-inch, 200-pound halfback who has shown great promise as a passer and runner. He has a great deal of speed and is expected to be a key player in the team's success.

Tailback Paul Mears is another player who has shown great promise this season. Mears is a 5-foot 10-inch, 180-pound halfback who has shown great ability to run and pass. He has a great deal of speed and is expected to be a key player in the team's success.

The team's offensive line is expected to be a key factor in the team's success. The line has shown great promise this season and is expected to be a key player in the team's success.

The defense of the team is expected to be a key factor in the team's success. The defense has shown great promise this season and is expected to be a key player in the team's success.

The Marquette team is expected to be a strong competitor in the upcoming game, and is expected to put up a good fight against the Spartans. The team has shown great promise this season and is expected to be a key player in the team's success.
Fancy Costumes Preferred But Not Required for Marlit Gras Revelry

BY BARBARA DENNISON

Although costumes will be required at the Marlit Gras, they will not be mandatory. However, for ad-motion to the party, Ben Bush announced yesterday.

Costumes will be optional this year because of the theme of the party, however.

Marlit Gras festivities will start during the halftime of the Michigan State-Marygrove football game when "King" Arthur animals will appear in floats in a parade around the stadium. Mayor Sam Street (Hughes, D.), Lenawee, will throw the first shovel at 18 p.m., during the dance in termination. Following the connovation, a student production of music will be presented, featuring a new campus vocal group of Linda Warner and Fred Tyler.

Henry Simon, Jr, Ag '43, will have his "Mr. Nobody" act scheduled to appear in the program.

The Marlit Gras is one of the largest parties yet attempted by

Michigan State students, and proceed will be to raise money for relief and defense work.

C.D.C. Begins Campaign

Against Student Cars.

An intensive drive to make

Michigan State students aware of the urgency of the current gasoline shortage will be launched Thursday night by the Coordination Department for the C.D.C. (Temporary Curfew Committee). Walker Dean, A. S. '44, will head the department, which is a division of the C.D.C. and is made up of interested students on the campus who are responsible for the local traffic control and conservation.

Walker Dean, A. S. '44, said that during the meeting attended by students, faculty members, and interested will be held at Wells hall are entitled to tickets of admission, including lectures, dances, concerts, and movies. Special arrangements were made at the administration the announcement of the C.D.C. as follows:

one hundred twenty-five women have been invited to be the guests of honor at the "dancing bureau" for the service of the day.

The following committees of OSD will work under the supervision of the C.D.C.: Virginia Laycock, B. E. '43, in charge of the West, North, and South of the campus; Arthur Rolfe Keener, B. E. '43, in charge of the East; Robert Meade, B. E. '42, in charge of the Center; and William Meade, B. E. '42, in charge of the South.

Special advisers to OSD will be

William Meade, B. E. '42, in charge of the Center; and William Meade, B. E. '42, in charge of the South.

University's week-end yell and cheer leaders will form the basis of the committee, and the student branch of the C.D.C. will be involved in the planning of the major feature of the program, the "dancing bureau." The program will be developed under the direction of the commission and will be presented at the first meeting of the commission.
