U.S. Navy Wins First Round In Solomons

Knox Expresses Pride Over Methods Used by U. S. Forces

WASHINGTON; Oct. 30 (AP)-With pride in his voice, Navy Secretary Knox declared today that the Japanese fleet has "retired the scene" of the Solomons nattle and that the first round of the struggle has ended with American forces on Guadalcanal occupying every inch of ground we ever controlled."

Some of the Japanese warhips, which have been supportthe foe's all-out drive to est the vital airfield on Guadcanal from American marines and army troops, have gone back to their bases, Knox said.

We are in as complete conrol of the situation in Guadalanal as we ever have been," he id at a press conference.

Injury to Keep Pawlowski on Sidelines

Fenton or Fornari to Get Call at Halfback

Instead

By Jerry Liska PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 30 (AP)-Michigan State and Temple tapered off today for their eighth meeting on the gridiron Saturday, with the invading Spartans cast as slight favorites to pluck the Owls-for the sixth time.

Holding an edge solely on the basis of their 14-0 upset of Great Lakes last week, the twice-beaten Spartans of Coach Charley Bachman worked out at Temple stadium following a "skull" session at their downtown hotel.

Injured Wally Pawlowski, tiny right halfback who accompanied the squad on crutches, definitely was out of the game. Pete Fornari, stocky Detroit junior, ran at Pawlowski's post in signal drill, but Bachman said lanky Jack Fenton would get the starting call if State kicked off.

Although the contest marks Temple's homecoming, a crowd

Advice for Convention Arrangers

INES twice as long as usual at all eateries patronized · by college students yesterday noon made many go to classes hungry. Others without 1 o'clocks waited half an hour and got leftovers if they were fortunate.

The cause, as most students know, was the teacher convention on campus. In other years the same situation has arisen when big conventions invaded East Lansing. But in other years eating places were not so crowded normally, and help was easier to get.

As the food and employe situations get worse, students will find it harder to eat when they want to or can. Per-sons scheduling conventions on campus later this year review the book "Forward Free-would do well to provide extra eating facilities for guests dom," an autobiography of Mewould do well to provide extra eating facilities for guests they bring here, so the already overtaxed student and faculty food purveyors can discharge their first responsibility--feeding local persons first.

It is true that all Michigan residents support Michigan State college, and are therefore entitled to convene here. But the college was founded to educate students. And students don't take to learning on an empty stomach.

In all perfect things a blemish brings liking .- Lyley.

Men's Council Creates Clean Brawl

THE college health center has a slightly more hol-low ring to it today than it has had at this time of year for the last two decades and more. The fact is, for the first time in the memory of the oldest prof around, there were no casualties as a result of the frosh-soph brawl.

To the members of Men's council should be donated a. bunch of laurel wreaths to wrap around their marble brows. Minus the help of Varsity club which it had anticipated, this group carried on the brawl almost singlehandedly, and quite successfully.

To critics who say the brawl was tame and cream-puffy, it should be pointed out that when a person spends three months in the hospital with pneumonia after the brawl, as happened last year (and he wasn't the first to do it), something had to be done to prevent recurrences every year.

The brawl of this year sets an excellent pattern for the future. It was strenuous, fairly conducted, and well managed, yet it precluded damage both to property and more artists. or less to the participants. As Jake Daubert said after-ward, "That's more like it!" -- Ellis Brandt.

(This open letter to men in the service is a weekly feature of the Michigan State News, describing the outstanding events on campus. Clip it out and mail it to a friend in the service.)

Oct. 31, 1942

Dear Johnny,

It may be a man's world, but things were reversed around here this week when the women took over the campus for one day. The grill, the Union desk, the police scout cars—nothing was sacred. Students ganged up on the grill for the first double dip ice cream cones in months, and it was a standing bet as to who would come out ahead when a bill was changed at the desk. There were no casualties, however.

Speaking of casualties, the Frosh-Soph brawl came off Thurs-day—a much tamed and civilized brawl in contrast to former years. The sophs won, but no tear gas, no tug-of-war, no pneu-monia, no nothing. Yes, the contest itself was tame but the dance afterwards made up for it.

From the sublime to the ridiculous, or vice versa, Michigan State went in for culture and attended two sessions of opera, presented by the Philadelphia Opera company. Even the most lowbrow went highbrow, and since the scores were sing in English and the players had a sense of humor, reports are that the audience "knocked themselves out."

Thanksgiving vacation will be only one day, but we'll be go-ing home three days earlier for Christmas vacation to lessen the transportation problem. Last night was the Harvest Ball, and tonight is Hallowe'en, so we're looking up the typewriters and taking in the waste bas-kets. The freshmen may have everything under control, but we don't trust these seniors who remember the good old doos. Sincerely, DASH.

Soviets, Retreat Selective Service Relies on Early 18-19 Draft to Fill Quotas

LANSING, Oct. 30 (AP)-Col. E. M. Rosecrans, state se-lective service director, expressed hope today that early passage of legislation to draft 18 and 19year-old youths would delay the induction of married men until after Jan. 1.

"We have enough single men to fill our November quota and we will have quite a few left for the December quota," Rosecrans "We don't know just how said. many, of course, but if the 18 19 year-old groups are made available soon we think they will fill the gap enough so that we won't have to take married men for a while longer." The director said that more than a month is required to induct a draftee and that unless the legislation is approved next week not many youths will be available for military service until late in December.

Three Agencies Probe Flying School Blaze

LANSING, Oct. 30 (AP)-Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the state fire marshal and board of aeronautics pressed an investigation today into a fire of mysterious origin which destroyed a flying school hangar and 14 trainer planes at the Capitol City airport early Friday.

Officials of the Hughes flying school, owner of the burned hangar and planes, estimated that about 50 army reserve student pilots were robbed of their trainer ships by the fire. Two large cabin planes, used to train pilots for the army ferry command, were not burned.

An official estimate of the monetary loss and of the origin of the blaze was not available. The hangar, built of metal, was about 120 by 70 feet in size.

The type of planes to be built under the army contract was not disclosed except that they would be large and of a type already in production.

In view of this uncertainty, the task of supplying the fighting troops on Guadalcanal was a problem still receiving major attention in unofficial discussions here.

After warning against overoptimism, Knox added:

"But I do have a great feeling of pride in the way our men have met the onslaught in the Pulagi-Guadalcanal area and the skill with which these forces have been handled. They have done a superb job.'

TP Boats Active Before Knox spoke, the navy department disclosed that Amer-ican defenders of Guadalcanal had destroyed 17 Japanese tanks since the foe began his big push.

The communique also revealed that swift American torpedo boats scored a hit on a Japanese destroyer trying to land reinforcements or supplies on the island. The destroyer was stopped when last seen."

Knox declared that tanks mentioned in the earlier communique today as being used by the Japanese were light, prob-ably about 16 or 17 tons.

The number of tanks blasted plainly indicated that the Japanese have landed a considerable amount of powerful equipment on the island.

In just five days, the United States desert task force has de-stroyed 14 Messerschmitt-109s, four Mcchi-202s and four Fiat-CR42s.

Today the chief of the U.S. fighter command in the Middle East, Brig.-Gen. A. C. Strickland, said this of his boys:

"They have the stuff. They know the advantages and limi-tations of the airplanes they fly. They don't try to fight Messerschmitts at the altitudes where the Messerschmitts are superior but lure them down to our best altitude and fly rings inside them and shoot them to pieces.
