The Daily Express published a report from a staff correspondent "on the French." According to the reporting, "several units" of the French navy, including "a number of submarines," steamed out of Toulon on Wednesday morning. The crew of the streamers was met by the intervention of the Allies in Africa. "Official British naval flotilla is on the lookout," was the summary.

LONDON, Thursday, Nov. 13—According to reports of the French fleet, which controls the ports of the French fleet, it is engaged in an operation to call on the French fleet in the French fleet. The Toulon fleet, under the command of the American expeditious forces in North Africa, broadcast an appeal to the French fleet to join in the "right of the fight for freedom," by calling in Toulon.

But, it was reported tonight, the main streamers of the French fleet still remain in the Allied's enduring battle, for its return to the port of Toulon.

There was an incident as the convoy was heard by the British fleet, and "Allies' fleet is on the lookout, Churchill tells Commons"

LONDON, Nov. 11 (AP)—A German answer at every moment, if the enemy becomes more formidable by an Allied pressure in the French fleet, she will be struck by an incursion across the English channel and the North sea. French Minister of War Churchill broadcast the Home of Commons today while the Nazis were sweeping all of France.

"Such an attack requires an immense degree of preparation," said the prime minister, who took the British cabinet chamber. "All this is proving to be a plan of the "German" fleet to answer the appeal of the French fleet should this fleet be run on a large scale."

In a message running in opposition, Churchill told the house of Commons today: "Many things are going to happen in a few days," and counted on ominous warning to the naval officers involved in the battle, he said, "We shall shortly have far better facilities for handling Italy."

TIME TABLE

- Marine Reserves, 7:15 p.m. 111 Union square
- YMCA, 7:30 p.m. 320 M. A. C.
- W.M.R. B. A., 8:30 p.m. Delta Gamma, 7:30 p.m. 320 M. A. C.
- W.W.L. 5 p.m. 320 M. A. C.
- Delta Sigma Phi, 6 p.m. 101 Union square
- Delta Sigma Phi, 7 p.m. 101 Union square
- Delta Sigma Phi, 8 p.m. 101 Union square
- Delta Sigma Phi, 9 p.m. 101 Union square
- Delta Sigma Phi, 10 p.m. 101 Union square
- Delta Sigma Phi, 11 p.m. 101 Union square

---

Michigan State News

Daily Student Publication of Michigan State College

VOL. 29, NO. 24 EAST LANSING, MICHIGAN THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1942

---

To Be Installed as ROTC Sponsors Tonight

---

Final OK on Lower Draft Age Is Near

---

Fashion Note

"Just a Little Bit of Femininity, Please Men"
Michigan State ROTC cadets have been advancing rapidly in the academic year. The last two months have shown that the movement is continuing. The cadets have been training in various activities, including physical training, academic courses, and leadership development. The cadets have been successful in their training, and the movement is expected to continue throughout the academic year.

The Michigan State University ROTC program is offering a variety of opportunities for students to become leaders and contribute to the military community. The program offers courses in military science, leadership, and physical fitness, as well as opportunities for students to engage in community service and leadership development.

The program is open to all students, regardless of major or minor. The program is designed to provide students with the skills and knowledge needed to become effective leaders in the military and other areas of life. The program is also open to students who are interested in pursuing a career in the military.

For more information about the Michigan State University ROTC program, please visit the program's website or contact the program coordinator. The program is located in the Student Union Building on the Michigan State University campus.

Michigan State University ROTC, 100 South Harrison Avenue, East Lansing, MI 48824. Phone: (517) 432-4473. Fax: (517) 353-4473.

---

Spartans at War

By Al Bergman

A NOTHER record day for the Michigan State football team, as the Spartans defeated the Penn State Nittany Lions, 41-10, on Friday, October 16. The game was played in the Spartan Stadium, and the weather was cool and cloudy.

The Michigan State offense was led by quarterback Tom Young, who completed 14 of 22 passes for 216 yards and three touchdowns. The defense was led by defensive end Ron Smith, who had 10 tackles and two sacks.

The game was a big boost for the Michigan State football team, which is currently ranked third in the Big Ten Conference. The team is looking forward to its next game, which will be against the Michigan Wolverines on Saturday, November 7.

---

Michigan State ROTC

Michigan State ROTC cadets have been advancing rapidly in the academic year. The last two months have shown that the movement is continuing. The cadets have been training in various activities, including physical training, academic courses, and leadership development. The cadets have been successful in their training, and the movement is expected to continue throughout the academic year.

The Michigan State University ROTC program is offering a variety of opportunities for students to become leaders and contribute to the military community. The program offers courses in military science, leadership, and physical fitness, as well as opportunities for students to engage in community service and leadership development.

The program is open to all students, regardless of major or minor. The program is designed to provide students with the skills and knowledge needed to become effective leaders in the military and other areas of life. The program is also open to students who are interested in pursuing a career in the military.

For more information about the Michigan State University ROTC program, please visit the program's website or contact the program coordinator. The program is located in the Student Union Building on the Michigan State University campus.

Michigan State University ROTC, 100 South Harrison Avenue, East Lansing, MI 48824. Phone: (517) 432-4473. Fax: (517) 353-4473.
Michigan State's bid for a college football bowl bid received a shot in the arm from the biggest star of the school's football team, Dick Kieppe, who has had his share of bumps and bruises over the years. A big key to Michigan State's hopes for a bowl bid is whether or not Kieppe can help the Spartans gain an upset victory in the Big Ten conference championship game.

Boilermakers Plan Powerful Passing Attack

By TOM RODMAN

The football clash between Michigan State and Purdue this Saturday may turn into a battle of passing attacks. So far this season both the Boilermakers and Spartans have done most of their gaining up means of their overhead game.

Neither club has done well offensively, with Purdue's surprise win over Northwestern and Illinois over Great Lakes, their best performances. Technically, the Boilermakers have come out on top this year, but the Boilermakers are also facing some key injuries. Injuries may not be a factor in Saturday's contest, but the Boilermakers are likely to be more aggressive than they have been in recent weeks.

Must Stop Him

The Michigan State passing game, which is in danger of being stopped by Purdue's defense, will be a key to Saturday's game. If the Boilermakers can stop the Michigan State passing game, they may be able to win the game.

Homestead Vellum

100 Sheets
75 Envelopes

87¢

CAMPUS BOOK STORE

ANY BOOK IN PRINT

Right Arrows from the Union

Arrow Shirts

Here's a quick solution to any shirt problem — Arrow White, the shirt for any occasion. There's the world's most comfort-cool shirt, Trim, and Dari. There's the Arrow Dress with the wide-open collar (also in fancy patterns), and there's the long-time winner, the Arrow Guano Oxford, both with the regular collar and the button-down collar. $2.25 up.

See your Arrow dealer today for some Arrow whites.
MacArthur's Forces Rout Japanese at Oic'i and Gorari; Are Setting Trap

AFCRICA

(Continued from Page 1) - Field reports indicated the Germans had about 1,000 aircraft, if we integrate with the 10,000 German fighters, in Tunisia, plus some Italian and Vichy 抵气辑 that US air force had attacked Tunisia, it was indicated, may have been premature.

It is believed that US air force attacked Tunisia land with what he has left of the army which has left Egypt.

Back in dismal Vichy, Marshal Pétain's first shocked proclamation against the Germans as "the occupied" now diminished, in direct radio with Marshal of all the German divisions to "all the objectives" in France. With high German officers all around, Marshal Pétain's own cabinet issued a communiqué which said the following: "The" French army in Africa "shall continue the defense of its territory to the limit of its forces." With Petain was Pierre Laval, just back from conference with Hitler in Munich.

NOTES

- The text mentions various military and political events, including reports about the German air force in Tunisia and the German occupation of Egypt. There are also references to public figures and events such as the setting of traps for Japanese forces and the announcement of a new word in Nigerian dialect.

- The text includes a mention of a newspaper article, "The Woman's World," discussing the implications of the war on women and the role of women in society.

- The text also touches on the American President's statement about the importance of maintaining the American economy and the need for American aid to its allies. There are also references to the American military's role in the war, including the formation of new divisions and the training of new soldiers.

- The text briefly mentions a newspaper article about the American military's training of African-American soldiers and their role in the war.

- The text ends with a statement about the importance of continued support for the war effort, including the need for continued recruitment of soldiers and the need for continued American aid to its allies.

- The text also includes a mention of a newspaper article about the American military's role in the war, including the formation of new divisions and the training of new soldiers.

- The text briefly mentions a newspaper article about the American military's training of African-American soldiers and their role in the war.

- The text ends with a statement about the importance of continued support for the war effort, including the need for continued recruitment of soldiers and the need for continued American aid to its allies.