'Allies Will Invade Reich.' Churchill Tells Commons

LONDON, Nov. 11 (AP)-As Germany at every moment becomes more demoralized by Allied pressure in Europe and Africa, she will be struck by invasion across the English channel or the North sea, Prime Minister Winston Churchill promised the House of Commons to-day while the Nazis were overrunning all of France.

"Such an attack requires an immense degree of preparation,' the prime minister told the electrified chamber. "All this is proceeding but it takes time,

"Of course, should the enemy become demoralized at any moment, the same careful preparation would not be needed. Risks could be run on a large scale."

In a message ringing with optimism, Churchill told the house it could be sure "that many things are going to happen in the next few days," and sounded an ominous warning to the greater facilities for bombing Italy.'

Michigan State ROTC graduates have been advancing rapid-ly in the army. We were fortu-nate enough the other day to get our hands on a three-page letter from Capt. Sammy Yeiter, a for-mer student leader who graduated in 1941.

Sammy wrote from somewhere in northern Ireland, where he became a full-fledged captain last May just 14 months after receiving his commission as a second lieutenant.

Sammy sent along the following prelude to his letter:

"Dear Mistress, Wife, Sweetheart or Ma, I've checked the item which

The letter actually was written last July to Sammy's mother in Lowell. Chances are now that he is somewhere in North Africa with the United States

But wherever he may be, Captain Yeiter has written one para-graph in his letter that might be of general interest to men students. He says:

"I once thought I was a busy feller back in college days, and I thought likewise in Kentucky and maneuvers, but now I know that I hadn't gone through any-thing at all. In college, there was at least 15 minutes a day I could call my own.'

Field reports indicated the Germans had about 1,000 airmen, with dive-bombers and fighters, in Tunisia, plus some Italian marines. Earlier reports that German air infantry had reached Tunisia, it was indicated, may have been premature. However, it was believed that German Marshal Erwin Rommel was trying to reach Tunisia by land with what he has left of the army which was beaten in Egypt.

Back in dismal Vichy, Marshal Petain's first shocked protestations against the occupation of the "unoccupied" zone diminished in direct ratio to the general advance of the German divisions to "all objectives" in France.

With high German officers all around him, Petain and his cabinet issued a communique which said the marshal was "counting on" the French army in Africa Change to "to continue the struggle to the limit of its forces." With Petain was Pierre Laval, just back from conference with Hitler in Munich.
