Navy Officials Say Jap Loss 'Incomplete'

Results of Cleaning-Up and Night Battle to Be Added

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON, Nov. 17 (AP)—An upward revision of Japanese navy losses in the sea battle of Guadalcanal was predicted today by naval authorities who emphasized that the announced total of 23 ships sunk and seven damaged was based on incomplete reports from the South Pacific war zone.

Yet to be heard from, it was said, are the clean-up operations by American planes and surface units which may have discovered and finished off crippled units of the enemy's fleeing fleet.

There was also a night engagement of November 14-15 of which nothing has been reported except that it was fought.

A message from Major General A. A. Vandegrift, commander of the marine forces on Guadalcanal island, coupled with previous reports, showed that at least five admirals were in the battle area, and probably in the action itself. Rear Admiral Norman Scott, like Rear Admiral Callaghan, was killed in action.

Starting with Navy Secretary Knox's press conference this morning, estimates of the effect of the battle on the course of the war in the Pacific came from many quarters and were in general agreement that the Japanese had been dealt a devastating blow.

Knox said the engagement was a "major action but not a decisive one." He declared that it ended "round 2" of the Solomons campaigns and cautioned that this meant there might be a round 3.

... Put Out Your Cans

Answering the question of patriotic citizens who faithfully rinse and squish their tin cans, and then wonder what to do with them, George T. Smith, chairman of the Lansing tin salvage committee, said yesterday all East Lansing cans should be placed in front of residences and commercial buildings Thursday night, for pickup Friday. Smith emphasized that only prepared tin cans will be collected.

Two-Timing Tower

Beaumont tower is back on the beam again after being a quarter of an hour off for about a week, so you people who forget to wind them can set your watches again.

Startled and wan-shocked students who noticed the north face of the clock turn an hour in 15 minutes, or who heard the clock strike for the hour and then never finish, probably will be relieved to hear it running as usual now.

Paul Revere's Technique to Be Used by ROTC for Practical Experience

By BILL MADDOX
In an attempt to give ROTC cavalry seniors as much practical experience as possible before they go into active field duty, the cavalry department has planned a "night ride" for tomorrow evening, according to Col. Percy Hayden.

The objective of the maneuver is to deliver messages at three points and return to base,

Students Asked to Help Rescue Beet Harvest

By MORTON D. SMERLING

At least 500 students are urgently needed next Sunday to save 150 acres of sugar beets in the vicinity of Williamston, B. D. Kuhn, assistant county agent leader, stated yesterday.

Reports from that area indicate that no labor is to be had, and consequently, unless the Michigan State student body comes to the rescue, many thousands of pounds of sugar will be lost, he said.

"State students have already worked many hours in the beet fields, but the labor situation around Williamston offers an additional opportunity for M. S. C. to show that it really means business in contributing directly toward the war effort," Kuhn said.

"In order not to conflict with classes, Sunday, Nov. 22, has been set aside for doing the work. Volunteers are asked to call at room 115 Ag hall, or Dean Anthony's office, 118 Ag. hall, by Thursday.

Late War Bulletins

LISBON, Nov. 17 (AP)—The Portuguese government has made a diplomatic protest to the United States and British governments against passage of United Nations military planes over Portuguese territory recently, it was disclosed tonight.

LONDON, Wednesday, Nov. 18 (AP)—Reuters reported from advanced headquarters in North Africa tonight that German Field Marshal Rommel is now in Tunisia.

MADRID, Nov. 17 (AP)—All three Spanish military services were authorized today to order a partial mobilization.

The army, air, and navy ministers, it was explained, are being allowed to call up the necessary number of troops to reinforce units under their respective commands.

Custer May Train Army Supply Units

FORT CUSTER, Mich., Nov. 17 (AP)—Proposed changes at Fort Custer, announced today by Col. George Shank, post commander, include enlargement of the fort to accommodate around 30,000 troops and the establishment of a provost marshal general's training center and replacement training center supplying officers and enlisted men for military police units for domestic and foreign duty.

Colonel Shank's announcement was made soon after the movement of the newly-activated 94th infantry division to Camp Phillips, Kan., was made known officially. There are but two battalions in combat training here now.

Indications have it, according to Colonel Shank, that Custer will be used mainly to train service of supply units. The latter includes general hospital units, quartermaster corps, ordnance units, engineers and military police, supply combat troops with transportation, food, clothing, and shelter.

OPA Cuts Gas Rations in Eastern States to Three Gallons

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17 (AP)—The Office of Price Administration today reduced from four to three gallons the value of gasoline ration coupons in the "A" books now used in 16 eastern states.

The cut is effective Nov. 22. An official announcement said "Other measures to curtail fuel oil consumption in non-war industries, and for heating of certain types of buildings, are now being drafted and will be announced soon."

The cut on "A" gasoline coupons will apply to the entire territory of all of the 17 states where gasoline now is rationed, except West Virginia, where, for the time being, the situation will be unchanged.

Home Ecs to Hear Dietetics Expert

Miss Frances MacKinnon, new president of the American Dietetic association, will be on campus Thursday night to meet and talk to all Home Economics students and any other people interested. Miss MacKinnon will speak on "The Nutrition and the War," in room 130 Morrill hall, at 7:15 p. m.

Miss MacKinnon's dietetics internship was done at the Presbyterian hospital in New York, and she has been interested in public health work in school lunchrooms, a camp for undernourished children and the field of maternal child health in Arizona.

She worked for 10 years on the dietetic staff at the University of Michigan hospital, and as an instructor in the dietetic department of the U. of M. Medical and Dental school, and also at the New York hospital. At

All students driving cars on campus are requested to register for gas rationing today, Thursday, and Friday at either Central or Bailey elementary schools, according to Donald O'Hara, East Lansing site-administrator.

Booths will be set up in the gymnasiums of these schools from 9 a. m. to 8 p. m. on these days. Applications for ration books may be secured from any gas station, or at these booths. Students are urged to have the serial numbers of their tires with them, O'Hara said.

Students failing to register at the appointed times will be forced to appear before the rationing board to obtain their applications, O'Hara said.

Restaurant Coffee Rationed

DETROIT, Nov. 17 (AP)—Arthur H. Sarvis, state director for the OPA, said today that rationing of coffee for restaurants, hotels and other institutional consumers will begin Sunday.

Rationing boards at former sugar-rationing stations will register this class of consumers on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Two-Headed Drive Shoves at Axis in Bizerte, Tripoli

LONDON, Nov. 17 (AP)—Big American transport planes were scattering British parachute troops deep in Tunisia tonight in advance of a major enveloping movement by the revitalized British first army of Flanders and United States flying columns.

The word at Allied headquarters was that advanced French patrols were contacting German reconnaissance groups. These latter appeared to be operating out of Bizerte, which Berlin said was definitely in the hands of Axis forces.

From the Atlantic coast, a Sunday dispatch out of Monrovia, Liberia, gave the first hint that the strategic Vichy naval base of Dakar had begun negotiations looking toward capitulation to American-British forces.

Dakar Seeks Terms

The dispatch said a military mission from Dakar was en route to Allied occupied North Africa.

The British parachutists mushrooming into Tunisia were reported to have reached their objectives without opposition. The transport planes which dropped them were escorted by U. S. fighter aircraft.

Official enemy advices during the day lent support to the belief that the combined Allied forces are operating in both northern and southern columns in an effort to trap the Germans and

Tommys at Derna

CAIRO, Nov. 17 (AP)—The British Eighth army has captured Derna and El Mechili, narrowing the enemy-held gap of Libya and Tunisia to 900 miles, but pursuit of the disorganized Axis army was slowed today by bad weather and sharp rear-guard actions.

The Germans said U. S. troops were bombed at the southern boundary of Tunisia and Algeria, which is only 290 miles from Tripoli and 900 miles from El Mechili.

Another formidable force was known to be deployed in the Lake Chad region 1,000 miles south of Tripoli across the desert. The force might already be on the move from Fighting French territory.

The weather kept most of the RAF grounded, giving the retreating foe surcease from bombings.

How You Can Help in War Here at Home

(Editor's note—This is the first in a weekly series of editorials on how students and faculty can help to win the war at home. This movement is in cooperation with the Michigan State CDC.)

AN ACUTE labor shortage which is currently being felt in every department here at M.S.C. has brought home violently to all of us the necessity of fulfilling our individual responsibilities.

For example, the war-depleted personnel of building and grounds department is finding it increasingly difficult to pick up after careless students. Why should it be necessary for them to bear the brunt of a large student body's thoughtlessness? It has been a time-honored tradition among proud Spartans to keep our campus a thing of beauty.

Habitual smokers have always refrained from the custom while within the confines of the campus. Thoughtful students, even though rushing wildly to classes, have followed the paved walks rather than short-cutting across carefully nurtured sod. So why not make the appearance of the campus even more of a personal responsibility at this time?

Everyone should take it upon himself to share with the B and G men left here the task of keeping the M. S. C. campus an object of everlasting pride.

—Dave East.

Air Force Wants Female Artisans

Because of the vital need for highly trained women in war work, army air force men are asking for the aid of M. S. C. women students.

In a letter received this week by H. B. Dirks, dean of Engineering, the commanding officer of Wright field, Dayton, Ohio, suggests that "this great need together with the attractive salaries offered... should appeal to the young women of America."

The air forces would like to hear from any senior women interested in employment in any position for which they might qualify at Wright field. Students are invited to call on Dean Dirks' office, room 101, Olds Hall, for further information.

Enlisted Reserve Quota Not Filled

The quota which has been established by the U. S. army makes it imperative that upperclassmen, (sophomores, juniors, and seniors), who have been considering enrollment in the Enlisted Reserve corps should take steps to do so immediately, Capt. G. H. Branch, ROTC adjutant, said yesterday.

Although a little more than a month remains in which upperclassmen may join, there is a possibility that the quota may be filled before the end of the fall quarter, Capt. Branch said.

The procedure of enrollment is simple. The student secures a statement of approval from the office of the college president, in the administration building, and takes it to the E. R. office in Demonstration hall. This office takes care of the remaining details.

Panama has recently revised its system of university credits to facilitate transfer of students to North American universities without the formality of special examinations.

An anonymous writer who signs his letter, "A Sad Man," says:

"After spending an entire week-end in Kalamazoo, attending a football game, several classes at the college and topping it off with a formal dance, I returned to Lansing Monday morning let down and heart broken.

"All this time over there and never once did I hear, 'I've Got a Gal in Kalamazoo.' Oh the shame of it all!"

Communicues from WPB:

The next time your date calls for you without shaving first, his alibi won't be good because—well, because WPB says that an ample supply of razors and blades is available for 1943.

After that—? Well, there are more important things to worry about than a shave a year from now.

Don't linger too long in the shower. That is the plea of WPB to college students in a campaign to meet an expected shortage of gas for civilian use. This also means cutting down on the use of hot water by filling the basin for shaving or washing instead of letting the water run freely.

A Guy Named Hank's Fast Making Tanks

DETROIT, Nov. 17 (AP)—A new method of straightening tank armor plate, designed to speed up the final stages of its production and to eliminate the use of much cumbersome and costly straightening equipment, was announced today by the Ford Motor company.

The formula, already in use in the new Ford armor plate plant, substitutes water-cooled dies for water tanks, sprays and straightening machines. It steps up deliveries of armor plate to tank builders and reduces the straightening of armor plate to one short operation.

'Save Clothing,' Say Extension Leaders

Clothing conservation demonstrations are being given throughout lower Michigan this fall by the Home Economics extension staff, Margaret Harris, assistant state home demonstration leader, revealed yesterday.

Talks, exhibits, and demonstrations have been arranged to acquaint community leaders of war boards with approved methods of increasing clothing wear.

With the increasing demands of the army on materials and leather, it is necessary for civilians to take the best possible care of their clothing, Miss Harris said. Steam-pressing woollens to kill moth eggs, and proper storing are "musts" now.

Football Team Exposed to Measles; Mencotti Remains at Halfback

By The Associated Press
Michigan State coaches today were watching the complexion as well as the snap of the Spartans in their preparation for Saturday's tangle with West Virginia here.

Bob Shedd, senior team manager, is in the college hospital with a case of measles and the coaches aren't taking lightly the word of team physician, Dr. C. Holland, that there is "an awfully good chance" the eruptive fever may pick off a couple of layers.

Shedd wasn't feeling up to par Saturday, but he stuck to his managerial guns in helping the Spartans arrange for their game with Purdue. Hence, Dr. Holland's smiling opinion.

"Of course," comments the doctor, "most of the boys may have had measles when they were youngsters and in that case they may not get them again."

Rip and "Champ" Out
Dr. Holland also reported that Halfback Ed Ripmaster "definitely" would not be ready for the Mountaineer invasion. Both Ripmaster and Walt Pawlowski have been nursing twisted knees for several weeks.

Pawlowski's continued absence means Edo Mencotti will remain a strong fixture at right halfback. The former fullback probably will get the starting call over Pete Fornari on the basis of his debut performance against the Boilermakers. Coach Charley Bachman said he was pleased with Mencotti's blocking and tackling and said he expected him to perk offensively against West Virginia.

Otting Switched
The fullback post also has been bolstered, Bachman said, by the switch of Bob Otting from quarterback to the position weakened by the loss of Ripmaster. Otting displayed considerable plunging punch in a brief appearance against Purdue. The change leaves the Spartans with three quarterbacks and three fullbacks.

The Spartans need little reminder that Saturday's clash will be a tough one. They closed the season last year with a 14-12 victory over the Mountaineers in what was by far the roughest contest of the season. Scouting reports indicate the current West Virginia outfit is even scrappier, with several rugged freshmen contributing to the cause.

New Plays
The Spartans held a short workout Tuesday, working on their offense in a "skeleton" scrimmage. A few new pass plays were tossed into the State bag of tricks. For the drill,

Bachman named a backfield composed of Russell Gilpin, quarterback; Elbert Stark and Mencotti, halfbacks; and Otting, fullback, while the line include Ken Balgo and Barney Koskopp, ends; Alger Conner and Glenn Deibert, tackles; George Radulescu and Don Le Clair, guards; and Ernest Keckonen, center.

HERMIE SAYS —

OWN through the years there have been many brother combinations in sports. They seem to appear most prevalent in baseball with the Dean brothers, the Ferrells, and last season world series stars, Mort and Walker Cooper, leading the way.

However, we at Michigan State have, or had, one of the best brother combinations seen in many a collegiate moon. The wrestling twin act of Burl (Bo) and Merle (Cut) Jennings, which gained country-wide acclaim when the two Oklahoma boys grabbed national championships last winter was just about the best.

For the first time in two years the "natural" will be broken up. Merle underwent an operation to prepare himself for the air force and he will be unable to compete in the ring this winter.

Cut will carry on and should retain his national crown, but things won't be the same without both twins on the Spartan grappler squad.

WITH the physical education instructors now in the process of selecting the men from their classes to round out the 1,000 that will appear in the physical fitness program Friday night things are almost ready for the high school and small college instructors that will be the guests of State for the program.

With the entire fieldhouse and gymnasium filled with Spartan students going through their regular phys. ed. paces, the visitors will get plenty of chances to form ideas on their own courses of pre-military fitness programs.

Sigma Chi, Tick Tocks, Mason 5 Reach Semis

Long aerials and high kicks were the outstanding features of the Sigma Chi-Hesperian tilt last night for the Block 1 championship in the Fraternity touch football semi-finals league.

Sigma Chi scored late in the third quarter when Dave Hicks intercepted a Hespian pass on the 25 yard line and ran over for a touchdown. A pass from Dick Axton to George Zimmerman in the end zone made the conversion successful.

Mason 5 secured first place in Block 2 of the dorm league by beating Abbot 11, with whom they were previously tied. John Sabula passed from his own 40 to Ed Lord on the 15 for a first down. On the third down, Lord threw an aerial to Bob Huston who crossed the goal line to chalk up six points for Mason 5.

The Tick Tocks played the Lansing All Stars to break a tie in Block 2 of the Independent league. The contest was close until the last quarter when the All Stars tallied seven points. Charley Chambers intercepted a pass tossed by Al Jones, Tick Tock back, on the 25 yard stripe and ran the ball over. A successful pass chalked up number 7.

It's Not Too Late to Enter Novel Turkey Trot

Entries are rapidly coming in and many men have already run their four qualifying laps in anticipation of the 2nd Annual "Turkey Trot," to be held tomorrow at 4:30 p. m. in Macklin Field according to R. B. "Jake" Daubert, assistant intramural director.

"The 'Turkey Trot' is open to all men students, whether or not they are connected with any group on the campus. Individual winners will receive a sweater as first prize and medals for other places," Daubert explained.

First team prize in this novel run will be a turkey; 2nd, a goose; 3rd, a duck; 4th, a chicken, and the group finishing 5th is to receive a genuine goose egg.

Daubert pointed out that it isn't too late for more teams to enter today so long as they run the four qualifying, or conditioning laps from the stadium to Abbot hall and back before the meet.

This year's turnout is expected to exceed last year's crowd of 103. Bill Maxwell, running unattached last year, won the individual first place prize and the SAE fraternity "took the turkey."

Kappas Defeat Chi Os for Title

Kappa Kappa Gamma now holds the Block 3 women's intramural volleyball title is a result of its impressive victory over the Chi Omegas last night in the Block 2 playoff in Women's gym. Led by Dottie Guyer and Janet Munson, the Kappas rolled up a 33 to 20 score over the highly-rated Chi Omegas.

Over 125 persons turned out to see the Kappas turn in an outstanding net game accompanied by their constantly keeping the ball in the air on both supporting and return volleys. At the end of the half Kappas led 20 to 9. Up till last night both teams had won six games and had been undefeated.

In the other games played Tuesday night Sigma Kappa continued its undefeated record by overwhelming the Alpha Gams with a 42 to 18 tally. East Mayo edged out North Campbell by a tally of 32 to 31 and Sanford House defaulted to the Independents.

Combative Sports Program to Open With Wrestling

With the end of the term nearing, the intramural program in combative sports will be opened with the all-college wrestling tournament scheduled for December 4, 5, and 6, Fendley Collins, varsity coach, and Jake Daubert, assistant intramural director, announced yesterday.

Intramural awards will be given to the first three place winners in eight weights this year. The weight divisions begin at 121 pounds and run through 175 pounds into the unlimited heavyweight class.

Any student who has not won an all-college wrestling championship in the past or who is not out for the varsity wrestling team is eligible. Entries and further particulars on the tournament can be obtained from either Daubert or Collins.

Information!

WAR activities have caused tremendous increases in the volume of telephone calls, many thousands of them affecting war production and troop movements. Telephone offices and operators are busier than ever before.

Calls to Information for numbers that are in the telephone directory unnecessarily tie up telephone facilities and waste the time of trained operators.

They may delay other calls—perhaps vitally important ones that also must pass through central office apparatus.

In Lansing alone, 2,600 needless calls are made daily to Information for numbers listed in the directory—and that represents one-half of all information calls. Please help cut that waste—speed the service that speeds Victory!

Operatic Star Gives Varied Program

By JOAN MEYERS

Bruna Castagna demonstrated last night to an audience of about 1,200 why she has been named by critics as the "greatest living Carmen of her day." In a program highly varied to give full expression to Mme. Castagna's full-bodied contralto voice, rich in tragic qualities, she exhibited the good artistic taste and restraint in the dramatization of the music of a seasonal performer.

Beginning with a group which included numbers by Pergolesi, Lully, and Ponchielli, she early impressed her audience with the emotional depth of her voice.

Arias Received Well

Three arias from "Carmen," "Habanera," "Card Scene," and "Seguidilla" were enthusiastically received by the audience.

Mme. Castagna reached the climax of her program in the aria "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice" from "Samson and Delilah" by Saint-Saens. For her rendition of the lover's plea, Mme. Castagna drew the most enthusiastic applause of the evening.

Presents Encore

As encore she presented charming "Chanson" by Jacobs. For a second bowing-out number Mme. Castagna sang a romantic ballad "Your Song From Paradise," by the contemporary composer, Barlow Brown.

The singer returned for her final encore to sing "None But the Lonely Heart," by Tschai-kowsky.

U. S.-Darlan Dealings Only Temporary

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17 (AP)—President Roosevelt emphasized today that the United States' dealings with Admiral Jean Darlan in North Africa were only a "temporary expedient," intended to save both lives and time in carrying the attack to the Axis.

The emergence of Darlan as a leader in North Africa in collaboration with American forces had brought bitter criticism from Fighting French forces, who called him the "No. 2 Traitor of France."

In a formal statement read at a press conference, Roosevelt said:

"People in the United Nations would never understand the recognition of a reconstituting of the Vichy government in France or in any French territory."

FDR Asks Work, Not Exultation

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17 (AP)—President Roosevelt tonight hailed American successes in Africa and the Far Pacific as an apparent "turning point of this war," but added a warning that there was time only for working and fighting, none for exultation.

Earlier he had described the recent naval battle in the Solomon islands as a major victory for the Allied cause. Tonight, addressing the Herald-Tribune Forum by radio, he singled out one participant in that battle for a hero's praise—Rear Admiral Daniel J. Callaghan.

In addition to these things, Mr. Roosevelt stoutly defended the administration's policy of withholding news of naval losses until it is clear that the enemy already has possession of the information and indicated that long-range social reforms have been shelved for the time being.

Ag Division Edits Second Annual Publications List

In order to show the source of writing and educational material produced yearly by the Michigan State college students for reference, Joseph G. Dunham of the publications department has compiled the second annual list of the writings of members of the Ag division.

The list includes this year about 320 different articles by 150 authors, on subjects such as extension teaching, book reviews, and contributions to different periodicals. Other articles range from simple farm suggestions to highly technical matters.

How to Conserve your Shirts and Ties

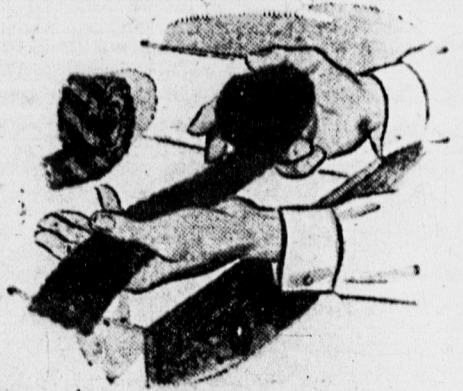

1. Turn up your shirt collars before your shirts are washed. Your collars are less likely to fray this way—and will last longer.

3. Untie your tie the reverse way of how you tied it. Don't wear the same tie too often. Give it a rest.

2. Don't starch fused collars heavily. (They're the ones that look starched, but aren't.) Too much shortens the life of these collars—and don't put too much starch in your soft collars, either! Arrow has a large variety of shirts with fused and soft collars.

4. Roll up your knit ties when not wearing them. They retain their shape better that way.

5. Buy Arrow Shirts and Ties. They are made to wear longer, and fit you better.
