Here Is the 'Low Down' on Those Men Who Wear Tan Uniforms on Campus

By ELLEN STEGGEN

Many have been checking out the uniformed inhabitants of the Michigan State campus, and has anyone noticed the fact that there are 10 men in the light tan uniforms who are wearing the same and brand new uniforms?.

The answer is, they are not civilians, but the six trainees, pilots and crew members of the Michigan State Air Reserves.

The Michigan Air Reserves are one of the 10 regular army air forces either on their way to physical examination and physical training.

The Michigan Air Reserves are the men who will do the undermanned flying chores in this war, such as housing flying in cooperation with the field offices, flying, piling, or instructing flying army and cadet cadet pilots, while members of the military are reserve and training center are also doing their part in the regular army air forces either on their way to physical examination and physical training.

Spartan Gridders
Slacken Workouts
For Virginia Win

By The Associated Press

West Virginia's Mountaineers, breaking their first victory over Michigan State, were defeated here today with a 33-player squad in Tupelo shape for Saturday's game with the Spartans. Coach Bill Kerr planned to get his squad in Detroit overnight, and then move to East Lansing Friday for a final workout on Macklin field.

While Coach Charles Barkman maintained his easy Spartan pads, he has his team in good shape for Saturday's game. The Mountaineers have a big line and good quarterback, and their defense is good. The Mountaineers have a big line and good quarterback, and their defense is good.

Michigan State in Western Conference?

Michigan State is older than three of the present nine football members of the Western Conference and larger than four of them.

With transportation facilities prohibiting the carrying of football squads for long distances, why isn't Michigan State admitted to membership in the Western Conference?

H. O. Schlender, sports editor of The Detroit News and author of The Empire Column, discusses this theme in an entertaining article. Watch for it in the Sports Section of Sunday's Detroit News.

Navy Announces Eight More Jap Ships Sunk in Solomon Battle

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19 (AP) - The Great American sea victory in the Solomon assumed even greater proportions today when the navy announced that a Japanese battle cruiser, three large cruisers and a destroyer were sunk and three other enemy warships, including a battleship, damaged in a single engagement last Saturday night.

These heavy losses were inflicted on the enemy by an American battle task force whose victory, coming on top of the smashing triumph scored two nights earlier, finally drove the enemy northward in retreat.

FDR Orders Ward Firm to Comply with WLB

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19 (AP) - President Roosevelt stepped into the row between the War Labor Board and the Montgomery Ward Co. today by directing the mail order house to comply with a War Labor Board order preceding for a "maintenance of standards" clause in a pending union contract.

The company had rejected the WLB order as illegal and meaningless, it had said, and that it would file an appeal to the FLRC, if necessary, to exempt the company from the order.
