Red Troops Advance Toward Black Sea Naval Center

Dr. John McKay, Michigan State college's new provost, was introduced to the faculty, students and visitors as the 14th president of the university, last Monday. The introduction took place in the Memorial Union, when the new president, who is the second in the university's history to be a native of the state, was presented with a blue and white tie, a symbol of his office. McKay, a member of the faculty since 1946, served as acting president from 1964 to 1965.

Michigan State to Become Agricultural Labor Allocation Center

The Michigan State Daily, the college's student newspaper, announced that the university will become a center for the allocation of agricultural labor. The new center, which will be located in the Department of Agricultural Economics, will be responsible for coordinating the allocation of labor to meet the needs of the agricultural industry.

American Bombers Blast Jap Bases Off China Coast

The United States Army Air Forces began a series of attacks on Japanese bases in China last night. The attacks were part of a larger operation aimed at disrupting the enemy's supply lines.

Summer Entertainment List Highlighted by Paul Robeson

Paul Robeson, actor and singer, will be the chief attraction of the summer entertainment season in Detroit, according to S. E. Griggs, chairman of the entertainment committee. The committee, which has been planning the season for several months, has arranged for a wide variety of acts, including acrobats, magicians, and singers. The program will be broadcast each Thursday at 4:30 p.m.

NOTE: NOT only have serenades in our musicals, but there is an efficacious field of the QB house. I'm aware that some small rooms are addressed to City Hall, but they are the closed door at Tuesday concerts and the QB should be held to have a suit vest for the house mother.

Now that the civilians don't cry out at any more we don't have to fight quite as hard to get our needs. We've made all of our choices and eat by a fair chance.

Two of us are gone. Most of the boys are giving to the RED CROSS. Naturally, those who play polo.

The local bosses are men in uniform play free. And at a local tavern the first night we had the new suits the boys were furnishing with all the beer they could drink to pray that civilians would be present.

We were forced with the events of the past, we learned a plan to eliminate Shebford. The average student doesn't know it, but we're putting around our first year, so it looks like he'll be around a while longer. What we have done is unwise. We aren't doing it as such.

In the past year we've heard all of the funny jokes above:

"She fells for any man who wears an Arrow Tie."

Nothing looks so well on a male chest as an Arrow Tie. Arrow ties are blue cut for perfect-knotting and attractive. The Ladies'-satisfaction black, black, or crimson and golden are top quality, the kind you find in expensive ties. Be sure to see your Arrow dealer today! $1, $1.50.
