Women Named to Top State News Posts

Calkins-Chosen Spartan Head; Others Picked

Board Appoints Miller, Ackerman, Dennis as Chiefs of Daily

The State News will have its first woman executive in the person of Betty Miller, junior English major, who is the first woman executive in the newspaper's history.

Miller was chosen by the board of editors to replace E. Paul Holmes as managing editor. She was also named a full-time reporter, making her the first full-time woman reporter on the staff.

Other appointments included:
- Robert L. Brauer, junior, as features editor
- John W. Brown, junior, as sports editor
- Mildred A. F. D. McWilliams, junior, as copy editor

The board of editors also named two new members this year, Bruce B. J. D. and Kenneth E. F. J. Holmes.

The board of editors has appointed the following to serve this year:
- Chief of Daily: E. Paul Holmes
- Chief of Sunday: Robert L. Brauer
- Chief of Features: John W. Brown
- Chief of Sports: Mildred A. F. D. McWilliams
- Chief of Copy: Bruce B. J. D.
- Chief of Sunday: Kenneth E. F. J. Holmes

All other members of the board of editors are the same as last year.

Alpha Gamma Delta in Michigan State College's annual sorority sing, the Interfraternity Sing, which was held in the auditorium on Friday, April 24, 19--. The group took first place among the sororities in the annual contest.

The Interfraternity Sing is one of the largest events of the year, and it is sponsored by the Interfraternity Council.

The group's theme for this year was "The Lights of the South." The theme was selected by the Interfraternity council, and it was chosen to honor the memory of those who died in the war.

The Interfraternity Sing is a competition between the sororities and fraternities of the university, and it is held each year to raise money for the university's sorority and fraternity scholarships.

The Interfraternity Sing has been a tradition at Michigan State College for many years, and it is one of the largest events of the year.

Gasoline Shortage Becomes Acute

WASHINGTON, D.C.-The gasoline shortage is now acute in the capital and has extended to all the eastern states. Gas is scarce in the metropolitan area and longer lines are forming at the stations. It is feared that the situation will get worse before it improves.

Miss Barnes, member of Kappa Delta Phi, will meet at Farm Lane Hotel today at 4:15 p.m. for their annual picnic. The names of the persons will be posted immediately.

U.S. Flies Hit 5 Jap Planes in Raid on Attu

WASHINGTON, May 24—Determined counterattacks by the Japanese in an attempt to drive the U.S. Army out of Attu appeared in the making today as the Navy announced a second large-scale operation against the Japanese on the little island which lies between the Bering Sea and Japan.

The raid came on Attu's northwestern sector. Four U.S. Navy planes spotted the Japanese attack and engaged in an action that apparently resulted in the destruction of several Japanese planes and ships. The Japanese attack was one of a series of U.S. operations on Attu in an effort to drive the Japanese out of the Aleutian Islands.
