MICHIGAN STATE NEWS
State Rated Over Normal in Week's Only Home Game

Seeking their second win over Michigan Normal, the Spartans will meet the Yellowjackets from Old College Field at 4 p.m. today.

The game was originally scheduled for May 6 but was, throughout the previous week, subject to change. Due to the possibility of rain, the decision to move the contest up was made several hours before kickoff.

Oscar Brown, former Muldrow star, is expected to start for the Spartans.

shrink the sales of women's underwear and make it impossible to get enough to keep the stores open, has been settled. The strike, which started in Philadelphia and New York, and spread to other cities, was settled in New York, with the agreement of a combination of industry representatives and the American Federation of Labor. The terms of the settlement were not made public.
