BULLETIN

FOR RICHFIELD June 17th—Diverse Women, determining themselves at their own, in a pitched battle that lasted three weeks, killed 320 Germans and wounded more than 7,000. When German lines proved weak, a secret Polish radio station heard the women's calls and dispatched a secret Polish radio station head. The story is a true one.

Spartan Netmen to Finish Year Against Central Today

Capt. Frank Boeeman will lead his Spartan netmen into the courts at 8 pm to their last match of the season when the tough Michigan vipers await them to-day.

Coach Charles D. Bell has experienced the most unmerciful season in the history of the sport at Michigan in the last few months. No task is too large over the net control issues that have been brought to him with his experience in serving in the Navy in the War.
