Two Michigan State War Heroes Reported Killed in Aerial Accidents.

The two Michigan State War Heroes, who were killed in aerial accidents, are:

1. Pvt. D. B. Wright, a member of the 109th Field Artillery, who was killed in a crash at Cherry Point, N.C., April 11.
2. Capt. J. D. Anderson, a member of the 327th Field Artillery, who was killed in a crash at Grenada, N.C., April 11.

In addition to flying Churchill, the Washington conference with the British, Captain Knight had taken part in 34 bombing missions, all in the Mediterranean area. He was decorated with the D.F. and the air medal with oak leaf clusters for his aerial exploits.

Captain Knight was a member of the class of 41, but did not graduate before enlistment. He was commissioned in January, 1941. While at State he was prominent in dramatics. Speaking of Captain Knight, President said, "He was one of the active members of the drama department and played the lead in the 1940 summer season play 'Our American Cousin.'"
